

Budget of Breezy Local Happenings Here and There

Chestertown is to have another chain store. J. W. Crook & Son have negotiated with Robert V. Moffett for the store-room now occupied by him. The partition will be taken out and extensive improvements made. This store will handle meats, groceries, etc. Mr. Moffett has been offered the position of manager.

A card received Saturday, from Franklin Smith, Spencer Smith, Geo. Cooper, Daniel McKee and Graham Nelson, said "We are 1010 miles from home, in Jacksonville, Fla., going South all the time to Miami."

News from the young men yesterday was to the effect that they were on their way home disgusted with conditions there. "No place for anyone except the rich," is their opinion.

A clinic for diseases of the chest will be conducted in The Health Center, Chestertown, at 10.30 a. m., on Monday, September 7th. Individuals complaining of any of the following: Cough, exporation of blood (spitting), tired feeling, loss of weight and appetite, indigestion, hoarseness, etc., should see their family physician and obtain permission to attend clinic at the place mentioned above.

The Church Hill Motor Company, agents for Studebaker, have sold the following cars recently: Marlon Everett, six coupe; Harry Perkins, special 6 touring; Mark Perkins, 8 Victoria; James P. Brown; Dr. H. P. Copeland, Mrs. John Phillips, Millington, each a standard 6 coupe; W. S. Hurlock, Kennedyville, a standard 6 coupe. W. H. Good, undertaker of Church Hill, foreseeing the need of the future, has ordered a $4,000 ambulance mounted on a big 6 Studebaker chassis. This will meet a great need and Mr. Good is to be congratulated for his enterprising spirit.

Monday, Sept. 7, is Labor Day. H. B. Rote, the High street jeweler, is selling the "Fairfax" pattern in sterling. It is greatly admired. Cyrus G. Howard has purchased from Mrs. M. E. Dwyer the dwelling on High street extended. "Doc" a valuable setter belonging to Prof. A. Roy Woodland, was killed by an automobile on Tuesday. A citizen of Chestertown cashed in on his Miami real estate this week and cleared $7,000 on the deal. Not bad, was it?

The following named persons have contributed to the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company Truck Fund: George E. Parrott, Still Pond, $3.00; Marion T. Miller, Rock Hall, $10.00; P. G. Wilmer, Chestertown, $25.00.

Fine moving pictures are now being shown at the Lyceum Theatre every night except Sunday.

Read the page advertisement of The Summons Finance Corporation of Wilmington, Del., in this issue.

There were 143 persons from Chestertown who went on the excursion to Atlantic City Wednesday.

Big August Furniture Sale at John Barley's Furniture Store. See big ad. in this issue.

The girls' minstrels at Massey Church, No. 1 and crew of the Chestertown Fire Company attended the parade in connection with the Elton Carnival this week. T. Herbert Hartman and Thos. W. Perkins were two of the judges.

The judges and waffle supper at Norton Manor on August 12th, netted about $145 for St. Paul's P. E. Church.

The Chestertown Electric Company were unable to finish their improvements Sunday and will have to shut down next Sunday.

News from Miss Madge Crowford, who is still in the hospital, is that she is improving.

T. W. Eliason, Jr., is transferring the old tables on T. Avert street in rear of Bibb Hotel into garages. Jas. E. Cooper is contractor.

W. P. Newman's new home on Washington avenue is making a good showing. Contractor Clemanan expects to finish same before Christmas.

The next meeting of the Shore commissioners will be held in Centreville in October.

"Wickliffe," the beautifully located farm on Chesapeake Bay, near Rock Hall, containing 365 acres, has been sold to Nelson Stevens by his brother, James. The consideration is said to have been about $40,000. Mr. Stevens will remove to Baltimore.

Bedford Titter has been spending a property on Cross street of H. H. Barroll, Esq., immediately in rear of his home on Maple avenue. He is tearing down the old home and will erect a garage. George Pennington is building a kitchen for Mr. Titter to his restaurant on 26 1/2 Ave.

On Monday, August 26, J. D. Maxwell gave his employees what he called a "Harvest Dinner." There were 15 at the table including two guests and all enjoyed as fine a dinner as could have been prepared. There were fried chicken in abundance and all the delicacies of the season including watermelon, ice cream and mother's home made pie for desert.

The Chestertown Fire Company was called out Monday morning to the home of Thomas Clements on Mill street. A leak in the gas meter was lighted and blazed up scaring Miss Maggie and her father and it was thought wise to send in an alarm. Before the firemen arrived John Lynch with a wrench cut off the gas and put out the fire.

The Trustees of the Poor, in Talbot county, in charge of the County Home and farm, have rented the farm to Charles Warner, a present tenant, for next year, at the rental of $500. The Trustees assume no expense or liability in connection with the farm. Mr. Warner is also keeper of the County Home. The rental of the farm on a cash basis removes one of the obstacles to economical administering of the county home, the farm for many years producing practically nothing towards the support of the Home.

The fire North End Hotel at Ocean Grove and the fact that Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter were among the guests. They arrived home Friday evening and state that their room was directly above the room in which the fire started, and both had just time enough to grab a few of their clothes and escape from the burning building. Mr. Klinefelter saved only the suit he wore, but succeeded in getting several of his wife's dresses from the clothes press. Their valuables and clothing which were destroyed were fully covered by insurance. They saved their trunk by paying helpers $9.00.

Following the close of the excellent Chautauqua program on Friday night a meeting of the local committee of guarantors were held for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year. The retiring president, Chas. F. Wheatley, presented a contract to the superintendent, Miss Flynn, signed by 104 men and women in the town and county. The deficit of $500 has been paid. The officers who will manage the affair next year are: Chairman, W. Robert Huey; secretary, M. Wilbur Thomas; treasurer, Charles F. Wheatley. The committee will meet later and select the various committees and a strenuous effort will be made to prevent a deficit next year.

TOURING WEST WITH ORANGE BROS. CIRCUS

Wilbur S. Brinsfield, son of George H. Brinsfield of Crumpton, and Arthur States, son of George States, of this county, are concluding an interesting tour of the states of Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota, and Illinois as proprietors of the lunch stand privilege with Orange Brothers' Circus.

They left here on March 15 and joined the tented aggregation at Ada, Oklahoma. Mr. Brinsfield is owner and manager of the stand and reports that business throughout the Western country is encouraging. The two lads have had a unique experience during the last six months and expect to be home to spend Christmas with their families. Both are extremely fond of fox hunting and expect to spend a portion of the winter with their respective families in Queen Anne's and Kent counties, where the young men are well known.

Still Pond Defeats Chestertown

Still Pond defeated Chestertown in a series of five games of horse shoes Wednesday evening at Riverside Terrace. Still Pond taking three of the five games.

The games were closely played and very interesting. As the standing of these two teams to date, Chestertown enjoys a six game lead over Still Pond. Chestertown having won ten and lost four.

"Barnyard Golf" is being ahead rapidly throughout Kent county and much interest is manifested in this sport.

Still Pond has a "quack" team and deserved the victory.

Personal And Social Tidings Of Friends

Mrs. Clyde Abell, of Leonardtown, and Miss Nettie Abell, of Washington, D. C., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Graham on Kent Circle.

Prof. Victor Doushness and wife, of Easton, Pa., returned to their home Tuesday after a visit to her parents on Kent Circle.

Miss Rebecca Moffett with her Sunday school class have been spending the week at Betterton and report a splendid time.

Mrs. Frank V. Simpers visited her daughter at the Girls Camp in Pocomo Mountains this week and both returned Tuesday. Miss Louise gained in weight and in height.

Dr. and Mrs. Houston Toulson, of Baltimore, were week-end guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Allison.

Walter Allcutt, Jr., is spending the week with friends at Pikesville, Washington and Frederick.

Tom Dyott and Miss Irene Conolly, of Baltimore, are spending two weeks at Hotel Rigbie, Betterton.

Master Allan Barnes left Monday for a week's visit with friends in Annapolis.

Miss Ruth Clark had her tonsils removed at Mercy Hospital, Baltimore, on Monday.

Mrs. Walter Truitt and sister, Miss Edith Jackson, also little brother, Master John Jackson, Jr., of Wilmington, were guests of Mrs. Earle Barnes several days last week.

Prof. and Mrs. Leonard Howeth, of New York, have been visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Bryan, the past week.

Prof. and Mrs. Galen Vansant, of Chatham, Va., were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Vansant, the past week.

Miss Elise White, of Baltimore, is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Thomas White.

Little Miriam Sewell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Sewell, entertained a few of her friends on Monday, in honor of her fifth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Goss and little daughter, Jane, are visiting the former's mother, in Winchester, Va.

Miss Elizabeth Norris, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mrs. Roy Woodland.

John C. Davis has been quite sick, the past week suffering with rheumatism.

Master Edward Elliott, of Baltimore, is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. T. B. Elliott.

Mrs. M. L. Tarbutton, of Crumpton, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Barnes.

Col. Wm. J. Varnott has rented his Norton farm to Lester Bowers.

Master John Bennett is convalescent from a ten days spell of sickness.

Walter S. Trew has returned from an extended visit abroad with Dr. Bartus Trew. Mr. Trew has an interesting story to tell but found no place like old Kent.

Jesse Maxwell, of Worton Manor, Kent county, is attending the American Legion meeting this week at Hagerstown.

Rev. N. O. Gibson and wife left on Wednesday for a trip to the Berkshire Hills, Hudson River and other places. There will be no preaching in Christ Church Sunday. Sunday school at Cooper, of the Kent County Savings Bank, is enjoying a week's vacation.

Miss Amy Wheat, the efficient stenographer in the C. & P. telephone office, is enjoying a vacation and visiting her sister in Chester.

Mrs. Arthur Pinder and little daughter, were week-end guests of friends at Easton.

G. W. Hurd and family have been entertaining friends this week from Baltimore. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. E. O'Neal, two children with mother, grandmother and great grandmother. They motored to Slaughter's Beach big Thursday and all had a big time.

Carvel Worrell, of Swarthmore, is spending his vacation in Chestertown.

Mrs. J. J. Joholake, of Washington, formerly Miss Dora Hodgkins, of Chestertown, is the guest of Miss Lena Vansant.

Dr. A. L. Sterling and family are spending a few days with relatives in Crisfield, Md.

W. A. Parson, President of the Atlantic Steel Casting Company, W. R. Munson, General Manager A. S. C. Co., Chester, Pa., Preston Faison, of Philadelphia, W. E. P. Armstrong, of Baltimore, and Dr. H. C. Hughes, spent the week-end rock fishing at Rock Hall. Capt. Charles Blackington had charge of the party. They had a very successful day, catching a number of rock and trout.

Wm. Smith, of Charleston, W. Va., is visiting Chestertown relatives.

Miss Helen Simpers, of Chestertown, is visiting her aunt, Miss Effie Townsend, in Washington.

Mrs. Chas. R. London, of New York, is visiting her brother, C. Frank Crow, near Chestertown.

Norman L. Landers, of Hopkinton, Iowa, was a visitor to Kent this week. He says we have a fine country here and wonders why we don't have a boom as well as Florida and California.

Mrs. Lily Ware, returned to her home in Chester after spending several weeks with her aunt, Mrs. W. T. Godwin, in Crumpton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wells, wife, daughter and Miss Waywell, of Flushing, N. Y., are guests of Wm. Joiner and family in Worton.

Mrs. John Kilduff and son, of Baltimore are guests of Mrs. Jones on Kent Circle. Milbourn Jones, of Washington, was home over Sunday.

Masters Wm. Collins, Louis Skinner and Billy Usilton, of Chestertown, are enjoying a week's motor boat trip to Cambridge and other Eastern Shore points.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fennimore and daughter, of Marcus Hook, are spending their vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Fennimore, in Crumpton.

Mrs. L. H. P. Vansant is visiting friends in Baltimore.

The Triangle Club of Christ M. P. Church made their annual visit to Bay Shore Tuesday.

Albert Goodman is nursing an injured hand received from a kick from one of the county trucks.

W. C. Marth has been awarded a scholarship at Washington College from Talbot.

Miss Blanche Stock was taken to Emergency Hospital, Easton, Friday with an attack of appendicitis.

Mrs. Nellie Farrell spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. Jennie Coleman.

Mrs. H. Clay Hendrix is still critically ill at her home.

In honor of her three little granddaughters, Margaret Burt McDowell, and Eugenia and Mary Louise Pepper, of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Harris B. McDowell gave a lawn party at her home near Middletown, on Tuesday afternoon. Among the children present were: Howard Strong, Jr., of Chestertown; Harry Davis, of Sassafras; with their mothers, and Mrs. G. Layton Grier, of Milford, and Mrs. Marvel Wilson, of Swarthmore, Pa.

Mrs. George I. Harrison, who has been ill for several months is able to be out again.

Mrs. Esta McGinnes has returned to her home in Chester, Pa., after spending a week with her mother, Mrs. Wm. J. Sparks.

Miss Esther Afferbach, of Perkasie, Pa., a graduate of Penn State College, has been elected to teach home economics in the Middletown public school during the coming year.

Miss Afferbach succeeds Miss Elizabeth Houston, who resigned and will teach during the coming year in Pennsylvania.

Miss Mabel Price, who for several years has taught the seventh and eighth grades in the Middletown school, has resigned. Miss Price will teach in a school near Philadelphia.

Miss Blanche Power, of New York, is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Julian T. Power, on Water street.

Miss Anna Elburn, of Baltimore, and Miss Isabella Fowler, of Worton, were guests last week of Miss Esther Peacock. Also Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Elburn were guests of Mrs. George Peacock.

Dr. John L. Wethered, of near Baltimore, visited his sister, Mrs. Hope H. Barroll, in Chestertown, this week. Bradford Dudley, of Baltimore, visited friends in Kent this week.

Miss Nannie Hackett, of Chestertown, was taken to Elkton Hospital for special treatment.

Roy Barnett entertained the Young Men's Club of Christ M. P. Church in a most pleasant manner at his Kent Circle home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell Hendershott have rented the residence of Ellsworth Newcomb and the conductor of the freight train has families Thos. Holdson's, these two relatives expecting to remove to Florida.

Wm. Vansant has been confined to his home this week with an infected foot.

DEATHS

Mrs. Mary M. Cox, widow of the late Daniel Cox, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Allcutt at 5:30 p. m., on Friday, August 21st, 1925, aged 90 years and 10 months.

The deceased had been active and in good health until several months ago when she was confined to her room, during which time she had the loving and devoted attention of her daughter, and grand-daughter, Mrs. Percy Jewell.

She was a lady of estimable character and lovely disposition, greatly loved by a wide circle of friends.

None knew her but to love her, None named her but to praise. She leaves besides her daughter, five grand children.

Funeral service was held from her late home on Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m., conducted by Rev. N. O. Gibson. The pall bearers were Messrs. John W. Barnes, F. G. Usilton, William Malin, William Burk, Bertie Crouch and John T. Carroll. Interment in Chester cemetery. C. L. Dodd, undertaker in charge of funeral arrangements.

Samuel Schick, formerly of Chestertown, died at his late home in Trainer, Pa., on Monday. He leaves a widow and seven children. His remains will be brought to Chestertown tomorrow Thursday and rested at the home of his brother in law, Alfred Taylor, where funeral services will be held on arrival of train, conducted by Rev. T. J. Sard. Interment in Chester cemetery. C. L. Dodd, undertaker, in charge of funeral arrangements.

The bearers were Frank Taylor, Alfred Taylor, S. F. Robinson, Chas. L. Warren, Lee M. Walmer, McKinley Patrick. Besides a widow he leaves eight children. Interment in Chester cemetery. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

The Hiram C. Sparks farm located in the First District of Queen Anne's and containing two hundred and fifty acres of land was sold at public sale in Centreville to Charles E. Tucker for $6,000. At the same time a dwelling and store house located in Barley were sold to Grover Morris. This property brought $1500.

Tempting Two Trousers Suits

Here, men, is a value that shows how much we think of you and your business.

You never saw better signing this summer and when we say "$35," you'll reply, "I'll take it," but there's only

$22.50

This one item alone should sell you the idea of coming here for one suit now—and from now on

Jas. T. Mullin & Sons, Inc.
Wilmington Delaware
Men's and Boy's Outfitters

CHECK UP YOUR OLD STOVES

See that GRATES, FIRE POTS, FIRE BACKS and FRONTS are ship shape.

Then you won't have to let the fire go out some cold day next winter while a repair is being made, and quite possibly wait a week for a repair part.

WM. M. CULP
The Hardware Store
Chestertown, Maryland

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Announcing Important Changes in Bodies and Chassis

Added Beauty and Utility
Closed Cars in Color

No Increase in Prices

All-steel bodies on Tudor Sedan, Coupe and open cars. Bodies and chassis both lowered. Larger, more attractive fenders, affording greater protection. New improved transmission and rear axle brakes on all types. One-piece ventilating windshield on closed cars; double ventilating type on open cars. Curtains opening with all doors on Touring car and Runabout. Closed cars in colors, with upholstery of finer quality to harmonize, and nicked radiator shells. Many other refinements now add to the beauty and quality of these cars.

For complete details see

ELIASON MOTORS, Inc.
Chestertown, Maryland.