Kent's Churches

The sermon at I. U. Church will be delivered Sunday, September 26th, at 8 p. m. instead of at 10:30 a. m.

The Ladies Aid Society of Christ M. P. Church met at the parsonage Tuesday evening.

The Triangle Club met on Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Mary Kinsey.

The Soldiers of the Cross of the M. E. Church met at the home of Mrs. Alvin E. Coleman Tuesday evening.

Salem M. E. Church, Fairlee, Rev. S. L. Hanby, pastor. Sunday school at 10 a. m., preaching at 11 a. m., subject "Ask for the Old Path." Epworth League at 7:30 p. m., subject "The Universal Song," short sermon by the pastor.

Union M. E. Church, Worton. Sunday school at 2 p. m., preaching by the pastor at 3 p. m.

You are invited to be with the congregations of the St. James M. P. Church in their services this coming Sabbath as they meet at 10 a. m. at Sabbath school with Robert G. Nicholson, superintendent, in charge. Rev. L. Colvin Randall, pastor will preach in the service at 11 a. m., and Howell Crew will be the leader of the Christian Endeavor Society prayer service with the theme "Getting Strength From God," as that to be discussed. It is a good topic, and one and all can help discuss. Rev. Williamson, a representative of the Anti-Saloon League of Maryland, will speak on the work of the league, in connection with the society meeting. The Lynch Sabbath school will be held at 6:45 p. m., and the pastor, Rev. L. Colvin Randall, will preach at the service at 7:30 p. m. The quarterly conference of the charge will be held at the parsonage at St. James at 8 p. m. Thursday evening, October 1st, and all members of the Official Board are urged to be present.

The Soldiers of the Cross had a very pleasant farewell surprise in honor of their Sunday school teacher, Gustaf L. Lindstedt, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Coleman on Monday evening, August 31. A very pleasant evening was spent and refreshments were served by the class. Mr. Lindstedt was presented with a silver flower vase.

Asbury M. E. Church, Millington. J. Irwin Barrett, minister, Sunday September 20. Sunday school at 10 a. m., sermon at 11 a. m., sermon subject for morning will be "Thomas Called Didymus." The Sunday evening message will be the third of a series of sermons on the Apostles Creed dealing with the words "And in Jesus Christ." These sermons on the creed are particularly valuable to those who are in doubt as to the stand the church takes in this day of modernistic trend. The Epworth League song service will be led by Miss Emma Jones, at 7:30 p. m. and all leaguers should be present. Rehearsal of Rally Day is but two weeks away and is a challenge to all to take a firm hold for our autumn church work.

At the meeting of teachers and officers of Christ M. P. Sunday school held Wednesday evening it was decided to resume afternoon sessions of the school October 4th and continue until the first Sunday in May. This will give five months for morning sessions and seven months for afternoon. The following were elected members of the association most of whom have been acting as substitutes: Mrs. N. G. Gibson, Mrs. Fred. G. Usilton, Mrs. Amy McMennamin, Mrs. L. A. Pennington, Mrs. Arthur Bacon, Mrs. C. C. Jones, Misses Catherine Fowler, Flora Wheatley, Wm. Vansant, Charles N. Satterfield, R. Frank Elburn.

Kennedyville M. P. Church. Sunday school 10 a. m., sermon by the pastor, Dr. J. W. Trout; Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m., topic "Getting Strength from God," led by Wm. T. Hagure; 7:30 p. m. sermon by pastor. On Friday, September 11th at 2 p. m. the monthly meeting of the Sunshine Class was held at the home of their teacher, Mrs. George Glenn. The Bible study for this month, 17 chapters of the 1st book of Samuel and each member brought Bible verses on "Cheer." At the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

Rev. P. L. Peach returned missionary from Malay, preached at Wesley Chapel Sunday morning. Dr. Peach is a native of Prince George county, Md., and was sent to the Federated States 12 years ago under the M. E. Board of Foreign Missions. He is now home on a furlough, and has been visiting Mrs. Peach's aunt, Mrs. Thomas J. Wilson, of Rock Hall. Mrs. Peach was formerly Miss North Wilson who at one time lived on East Neck Island, and who went to Singapore 10 years ago to become the bride of Dr. Peach. Their three charming little children mix their English and Malay language in an amusing way, but who have delighted all who saw them.

Bond M. E. Church. Special Rally Day services, Sunday school at 11 a. m., Divine worship at 11 a. m. A speaker and singer from Wilmington will assist in the services. Come and enjoy the service. No Epworth League service at night in order to co-operate with the service at Mowbray.

Mowbray M. E. Church. Special Rally services afternoon and evening Sunday school at 2:30 p. m., evening service beginning with a song service at 7:15 p. m. Speaker and singers from Wilmington will assist in the services. Mowbray Church Aid will meet in the parsonage Thursday evening.

The regular monthly meeting of the Missionary Society of Christ M. P. Sunday School was held Sunday morning. The collection amounted to nearly $27. The Primary Class, Mrs. T. D. Bowers, teacher, won the banner which was presented by R. Frank Elburn in an appropriate speech.

Williamson, Assistant Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Maryland; Christian Endeavor at 6:45 p. m., gospel song service and sermon at 7:30 p. m. Prayer and Bible study on Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

Crumpton M. P. Church. Sunday school at Double Creek at 10 a. m., followed by preaching by the pastor at 11 a. m. Come and worship with us.

At Crumpton M. P. Church an excellent program is being arranged for the evening service at 7:30 p. m. The improvements have been completed. The interior of the building is beautiful and ready for Divine worship. An unusual character and full of enthusiasm. Soul-stirring songs, the old-time fervor in worship, and a heart searching message by the pastor on "God's Circle," will be the features of the evening that cannot help but be attractive. Every Sunday evening people come for miles to attend this church, and when they go there suddenly be but one expression made after the service: "That was a wonderful service." The pastor, officials and all, "Come thou with us and we will do thee good."

The Annual Home Coming, Double Creek M. E. Church, Sunday, September 27th. Morning service 10:30 song service; 11 a. m. preaching by Dr. E. L. Hickey; afternoon service, 1:30 song service; 2:00 General experience meeting, led by Bro. Jas. A. Smith, of Wilmington; 2:30 selection by students quartette; 3:00 preaching by Rev. Wm. T. Hagure; evening service, 7:00 song service; 7:30 preaching by Rev. Geo. L. Hardesty. The following ministers have been invited to assist in the services during the day: Rev. W. W. Charles, Daniel Wilson, O. T. Baynard, G. W. Hastings, R. S. Hodgson. The friends are requested to bring their lunch and we will provide suitable accommodations on the grounds. J. H. Gardner, Pastor.

At the Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. T. J. Sard, pastor. The services for Sunday the week will be: Sunday school at 9:45, public worship at 10:55, five minute sermon to the children, followed by the regular preaching service, subject "Thoughts and their fruits." Epworth League at 7, topic "An Evening with Hymns." Miss Ruth Kelly, leader; preaching at 7:30, subject "Friendship with God." Prayer meeting on Wednesday night at 7:30, topic "The Harvest of the Blowing of Trumpets, or the Feast of Holy Testimony."

The By-Kota Club will meet at the church Monday evening, September 21, at 8 p. m. to be entertained by Mrs. Ella Crow, Mrs. Parks Rasin and Mrs. Edw. Furbush.

GRANGE NOTES

Kennedyville Grange No. 244 will meet next Monday evening, Sept. 21 in the school building at 7:30 o'clock. A good attendance is desired, as business of importance is to be discussed, in regard to entertaining the Pomona Grange.

Good Rule for Life

Write it on your heart that every day is the best day in the year. A man has learned anything rightly unless he knows that every day is doomsday.

BISHOP DAVENPORT OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY

The Rt. Rev. George W. Davenport, of Easton, Monday, celebrated his 5th anniversary of his consecration as bishop of the Diocese of Easton, Protestant Episcopal Church.

In his five years Bishop Davenport has brought the diocese to an active and aggressive realization of what it can do. It has grown greatly in spiritual strength, and in financial matters it has trebled its gifts.

New buildings have been added and the financial support of the clergy brought to a point in favorable comparison with other dioceses.
