

Millington Merchant Has Car And Stock Burned

His Chrysler sedan and $1,000 worth of merchandise destroyed by fire at Belair, while enroute from Baltimore to Millington, was the experience of Israel Hankin, of Hankin Brothers, Millington Merchants. The blaze started from a defective exhaust pipe in the automobile, when Mr. Hankin was driving through Belair. The Millington man had been to Baltimore to purchase a quantity of merchandise, and in some way sparks from the exhaust pipe ignited some woolen blankets in the machine. The Belair Fire Company was called out and managed to prevent the engine of the car from being destroyed, but the remainder of the automobile and the stock were ruined. The total loss was about $2,000 with no insurance on either car or merchandise.

Harry Russell, Eddie Keenan played his usual good game but was a little too anxious at times causing his team to be penalized for "off-side" more than once. The team as a whole did well and are to be congratulated on their victory.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE WINS FROM LOYOLA

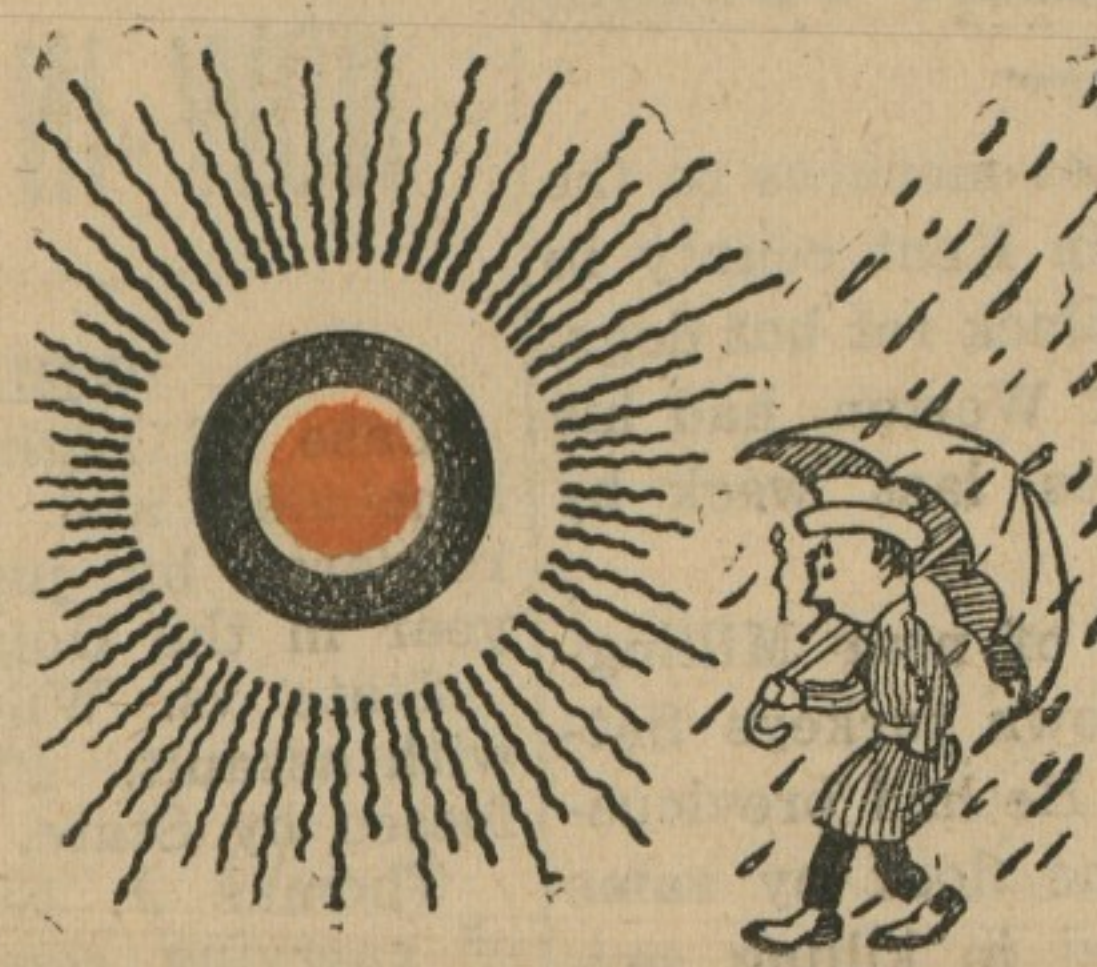

Football drew about 800 people to Washington College field Saturday afternoon and they were rewarded by seeing a good game. Loyola was the opposing team. The final score was 14 to 6.

With Bobby Cavanaugh, its all Maryland man, back in the line-up as a regular for the first time this year, Washington College was about 50 per cent stronger.

Cavanaugh, a splendid dropkicker, good passer and punter, clever runner and great defensive player, was what Washington needed to insure its first victory of the season. Loyola couldn't check Bobby, so the laurels rested with the Eastern Shoremen.

The deciding touchdown was made on rushing, but a pass, Cavanaugh to Dumschott, had paved the way to Bobby's rushing for the first touchdown. As had been anticipated, Loyola made trouble for Washington with its shifts and triple and double passes. The Baltimoreans are said to have taken advantage of the one mediocre punt made by the Chestertown quarterback to unleash their scoring punch on a nicely executed triple pass, McNichol crossing the goal line on a 25-yard run.

Kelley, the plucky centre had his knee hurt, and was succeeded by Staten Island, N. I was continuously tired, weak and depressed, had no appetite. I read your Tut's Liver Pill advertisement and tried them. After a few doses I began to improve. Tut's Pills have kept me free from a return of the illness, and I feel like a new person. I am never without them." At all drug stores.
