Would You Buy a Burlap Suit Just Because Burlap is Cloth?

There are as many kinds of leather as there are of cloth. Burlap, cotton, linen, shoddy, woolen and silk all find their corresponding grades in leather.

Why not bring us that favorite pair of shoes and have them rebuilt with K. L. Leather soles?

This Tanner's trade mark is a guarantee of the best—nothing is too good for the patrons of this shop, either in materials or workmanship.

AMERICAN LEGION MINSTRELS NOV. 16, 17, 18

Everything is ready so let the curtain rise, is the sentiment expressed by every member of the troupe of the Big American Legion Minstrels, who will ramble the boards of the Lyceum Theatre on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday evenings, Nov. 16, 17 and 18, at 8 p. m.

The production is under the direction of the Parlett Production Co., of Baltimore, Md., and the best Home Talent Show ever witnessed here, is promised by Eddie Parlett, the Director, who came in town Monday to knock the rough edges off, relieving Stanley Allen, Assistant, who trained the boys the first week. Many towns along the Eastern Shore have acclaimed that these productions are well worth seeing.

Eddie Parlett, Director and Comedian, who works in the show as well as directs, is a believer of laugh provoking shows and followers of Home Talent Shows who want a real good laugh, from curtain to curtain should not miss seeing these shows. The production is built on the Parrot and Doctester plan, well balanced, clean cut, attractive, and those who enjoy the days of minstrelsy when minstrelsy was all the rage, will bring back many sweet memories of the past.

When the curtain arises Monday, the patrons will witness one of the newest minstrel first-parts they have ever seen, presenting a special painted scene, which will set off to a good advantage the classy costumes worn by the Legion Boys. In this portion of the entertainment the boys will appear in blackface, and snappy songs and jokes will be routine in order. The finale to the first part: The Sextette from Lucia sung in ragtime, is well worth the price of admission itself. Those who want a real evening of fun and laughter mingled with good singing, should come dressed in their loose suits.

After a short intermission lively minstrel acts will follow such as Ukuleles Boys presenting an Hawaiian Scene, Monologues, a side splitting Graveyard act, that would make a mummy laugh, sketches, musical acts and concluding with a Plantation Scene in which 15 boys will do a very pretty soft shoe dance.

There will not be one dull moment in the entire performance brimmed full of pep and comedy, well worth seeing and for a good cause. Mr. Kibler hopes to see the houses packed to standing room.

Among one of the surefire laughs will be Slim Keenan, the 375 pound boy wonder, who has one of the song hits of the show, entitled, "I got to laugh dat all" and believe us you will.

There will be a Big Street Parade at 11.45 on Monday.

GAMBLING IN FLORIDA LANDS

Two Ohio officials—Cyrus Locher, director of commerce, and Norman E. Beck, chief of the division of securities—have returned from an official investigation of certain land concerns in Florida which applied to the Ohio securities department for licenses to sell Florida land or securities in that State.

All applications by Florida concerns to qualify for operation in Ohio have been rejected, none being able to meet the requirements of the State securities law. Thus the present speculative boom in Florida lands is outlawed in at least one State, and Ohio investors have been duly warned. The officials report that bankers and real estate men in Florida estimate the lots platted and staked out to be sold along the east and west coasts and on the ridges number approximately two million. To occupy them for homes would require a total population of 60,000,000 in the State—half the number of people in the United States.

Perhaps nine out of every ten lots sold are bought purely for speculative purposes, and not to build on, a condition the very reverse of wholesome, and one certain to result in a collapse sooner or later, with tens of thousands in possession of worthless land. It is, in the published opinion of the officials, a "speculative debacle." Yet men who figure a long time before buying a lot in their home town where they know values, jump for Florida lots with never a thought of investigating their actual worth.—From the Chicago Journal of Commerce.

TWICE IN THIS WOMAN'S LIFE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her from Sickness to Health

Ellensburg, Washington.—"When I was first coming into womanhood I suffered terribly every month. My mother did everything she could think of, so she took me to several doctors and they only helped me a little. Mother was talking to another lady about my condition and she told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Mother got me six bottles and at the end of the first month I was much better, so I kept on taking it until I had no more pains. When I got married and had my first child I was in terrible pain so that it was impossible for me to do my housework. I thought of how the Vegetable Compound had been of so much benefit to me when I was a girl, so I went to Perier's Drug Store and got six bottles. It sure did help me and I still take it. I am a well woman today and I can't say too much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I will answer any letter that comes to me to answer about what your medicine has done for me."—Mrs. WILLIAM CARVER, R. F. D. No. 2, Ellensburg, Washington.

"Excuse it please?"

YOUR telephone rings and you answer it, only to hear the familiar "Number, please?"

"Didn't you ring me, operator?" you ask.

"There is no one on the line now," she says, "will you excuse it, please?"

Annoying, isn't it? But just who is to blame?

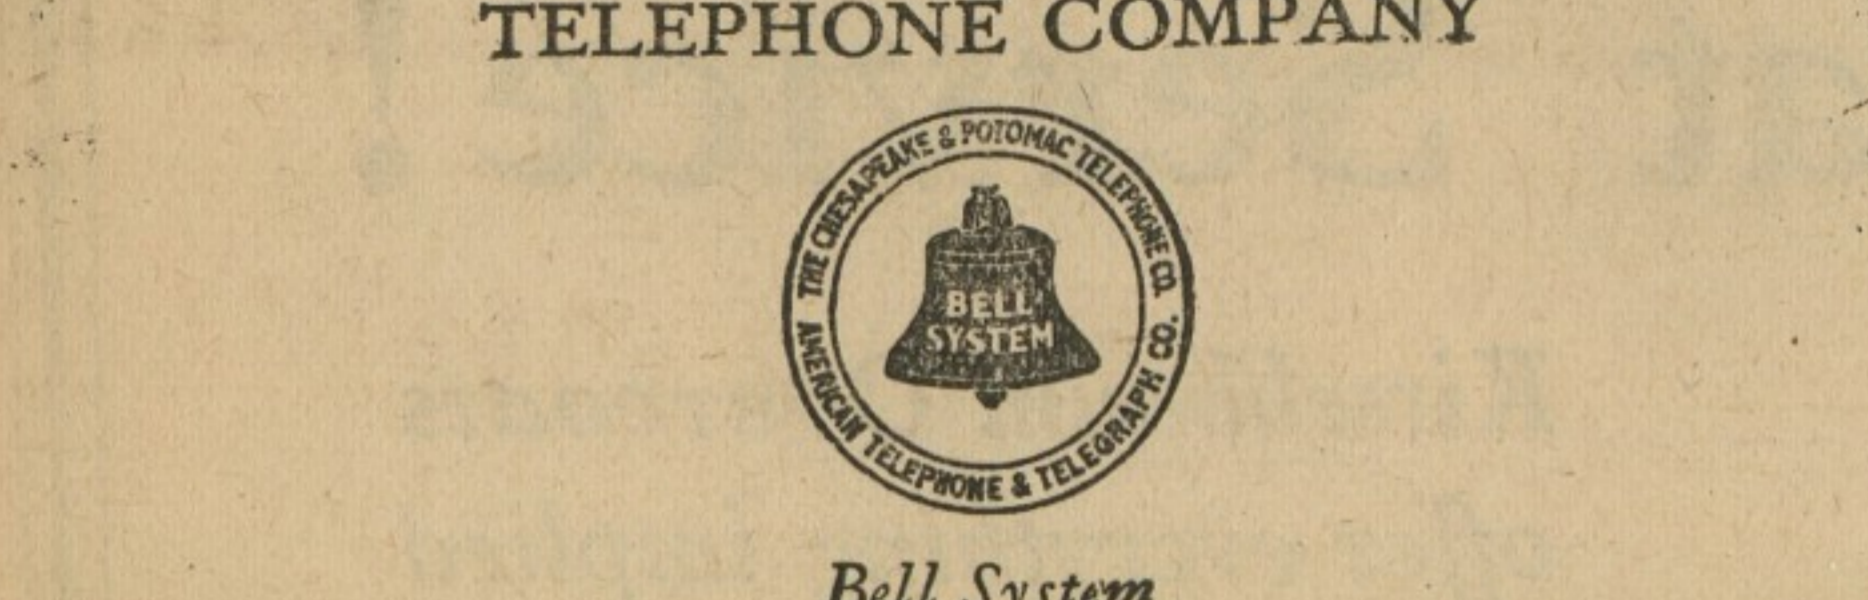

Of course, the operator may have made a mistake but suppose that some one gives your number to the operator by mistake, discovers his error and hangs up. When you answer there will be "no one on the line." Suppose some one starts to call you, then changes his mind and hangs up—again, "no one on the line." Suppose that because you do not answer at once the person calling concludes that you are out, and hangs up—"no one on the line."

"But," you may ask, "why does the operator act as though expecting me to make a call in such cases, instead of explaining that whoever called me has hung up?" The answer is this: the operator who answered you was not the one who rang your bell. The call may have been made through any one of a number of other operators. Thus the chances are greatly against the operator who answers you knowing anything about the abandoned call.

So, realizing that you have been inconvenienced, there is nothing for her to but apologize for another's mistake.

"There is no one on the line now. Will you excuse it, please?"

A Bargain Display of Winter Needs

FINE LINE OF All Wool Blankets

All Wool Blankets at real old-fashioned bargain prices! It took Noland's, of course, to secure this big assorted line and it takes them too, to offer them at the low prices you will find them marked. Now is the time to stock up for the winter. If you will go over and examine the ones you have, we'll bet that you'll find a need for at least one or two more! Come in and get them at Noland's special prices.

Big Assortment of MEN'S COATS SHEEP LINED

THE BEST TYPE FOR OUT-OF-DOOR WEAR

Here you are, men. A fine line of warm sheep lined winter coats with a belt all the way around. They are just the thing for a farmer. You can button them up right around your ears this winter, take an extra tug or two in the belt to keep it tight, and then the wind can blow, you won't care for the coat will keep you as warm and snug as can be. They are priced very reasonably—come in and look them over.

MEN'S PANTS For Work and DRESS

A fine line of wool garments that are priced very low. All sizes and many different patterns.

CORDUROY COATS And PANTS

For the toughest kind of wear the corduroy coat or pants cannot be equalled. We have them, and they are priced very low.

Shoes, Boots and ARTICS

We are prepared for winter, that is, for your winter. A new big line of Shoes, Boots and Artics have just been unpacked. We ordered a great many more than usual to get advantage of special discounts and the like. Of course, this may mean less profit on each pair to us, but that's not the point. We think that if they are lower than you can get them elsewhere, you'll come here to buy, then we'll sell more of them and consequently make a little profit ourselves.
