

Budget of Breezy Local Happenings Here and There

Next Thursday will be Thanksgiving. Union services will be held in Christ M. P. Church and the sermon will be preached by Rev. T. J. Sard.

A new residence is being erected on "Campbellworthmore" farm by Stavely & Bowers. This farm is owned by James W. Chapman and tenanted by Mr. Magruga.

Chestertown Council, Junior Order United American Mechanics, held an impressive memorial service in Fraternal Hall in memory of two members who have recently died, William J. Elliott and Joseph H. Lewis. Eulogies were delivered by Charles F. Wheatley, J. Bruce McIntire, Chas. Hague and Polk T. Bramble.

The financial statements of the six banks in Kent county made public on Saturday, show a large increase in total resources for the quarter ending November 3rd, as compared with the previous quarter. Total resources at the close of business on November 3rd were $4,467,000.

Dr. Paul Emerson Titsworth, president of Washington College, addressed the Parent-Teacher Association of the Federalsburg High School last week on the subject, "The Kind of a Teacher I Would Like for My Child."

The ladies of the Christian Endeavor Society of St. James' M. P. Church held a supper Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sewell J. Lee at which $90 was taken in.

Robert V. Moffett, for the past six years justice of the peace for Chestertown, has tendered his resignation to Governor Ritchie to become effective as soon as his successor is appointed and qualified. Mr. Moffett has accepted a position as manager of the Crook stores here. The appointment of Mr. Moffett's successor will be made upon the recommendation of Senator Copper.

The net proceeds of the Legion minstrels will be about $350.

John W. Barnes, treasurer of the Modern Woodmen, has paid to Mrs. Edward Robinson, of Chestertown, the $2,000 benefit which her husband carried on his life.

Fire Friday evening destroyed the barn, two cows, granary and a large amount of grain on the Flemming farm two miles east of Smyrna. The tenant is William Nowland who estimates his loss at $5,000. The fire was discovered by Mr. Nowland shortly after 6 o'clock after he had locked the barn and was about to eat his supper.

Charles R. Price, of near Centreville, and Frank T. Price, of near Chestertown, have returned from a grouse hunting expedition in the mountains of Pennsylvania. They accompanied a party of Pennsylvania friends on a hunt which lasted several days, bagging 43 grouse and a quantity of rabbits and squirrels.

Dr. Paul Smith and Dr. John H. Mullin, well-known physicians who recently purchased part of the James G. Harris farm property, situated on the Chesapeake Bay and Still Pond Creek, state that the property will be used as a site for a summer residence for the two physicians. The property will also be utilized as a hunting ground during the gunning season. Dr. Smith stated that the two are pleased with their purchase, which is located in a beautiful section of the Eastern Shore region. There are about 75 acres of apple orchard on the farm.

Washington College lost to Western Maryland last Saturday 13 to 2. The latter team scored in the last few minutes of play.

Emmanuel Guild of Chestertown P. E. Church will hold a turkey supper on Thursday, December 3rd.

S. Scott Beck, Esq., has been appointed trustee in the Horsey estate in place of the late Hope H. Barroll, Esq.

The Chestertown Development Co. purchased at public sale Thursday the Woolen Mill equipment for $1,500, worth $15,000. Plans are being made to sell the mill to manufacturers with new machinery and increased employees.

H. Clay Brown has been named as President of the Kent County Board of Election Supervisors vice Geo. E. Noland, deceased.

Mrs. Wm. Comella, through Harrison W. Vickers, attorney, has purchased the country home of the late Mrs. Emma Jane Miller, about four miles from Chestertown, consisting of a modern home and fifteen acres of land, for $4,500. It is stated that the new owner will convert the place into a modern poultry plant and will occupy the residence as soon as extensive repairs have been completed.

Malcolm Bailey and Harry Smith, both white, who were arrested and lodged in jail here by Sheriff Goodman, charged with stealing a number of overcoats from residents of Centreville, were tried in the Centreville court on Saturday. Bailey was paroled in the custody of Attorney Harrison W. Vickers, who defended him, with the understanding on the part of the court that Bailey should be recruited to the United States Navy at once, and Smith was acquitted. John Wright, also white, who was arrested at the same time for robbing the hardware store of Wm. M. Culp here of a number of pistols, cartridges and pocket knives, is held in the Chestertown jail for a future hearing.

A slight fire occurred at the jail on Saturday evening, starting in the kitchen. The Volunteer Fire Company responded to an alarm, but the blaze was extinguished before their arrival. This is the second fire to occur at the jail within a month.

Bayard Sutton has been appointed superintendent of the County Home, as well as tenant of the farm connected therewith. Miss Sue B. Ford, present acting superintendent, will move to the Hanson property in Queen Anne's county, near Chesters bridge, recently purchased by her.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES

Messrs. A. E. Culver and W. R. Huey attended the Maryland Grand Lodge meeting in Baltimore this week as representatives from the Chestertown Lodge of Masons.

Superintendent McCord, of the Harlowe Cannery Company, has rented the apartment of Mrs. Lucy Dodd, in Chestertown.

Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Vaughn and Mrs. Nellie Lockwood, of Middletown, were guests of Miss Minnie Massey, of Chestertown, over Armistice Day and night. Mrs. Lockwood remained for a visit with Miss Massey for several days.

Mrs. Gertrude Robinson and son, Ralph, of Worton, are guests of Mrs. Robinson's brother, James H. Robinson, at the Lafayette Hotel, Havre de Grace.

Miss Delma Quillen, of Harrington, Del., is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. C. Robinson.

Mrs. Wm. C. Sutton is visiting her daughter in Baltimore.

Mrs. Lee Gill and son, John, spent last week the guest of relatives at Cecilton.

Mrs. Harry Wilkison, of Baltimore visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnes, last week.

Miss Ruth Lambert, of Philadelphia, was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Dodd, part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Brice Whittington, and daughter, of Marion, Md., were week-end guests of the latter's brother, Prof. and Mrs. Roy Woodland.

Mr. and Mrs. Denver Benton and daughter, of Baltimore, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Kirby, the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Morgan Matthews, of Baltimore, was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Matthews.

Mrs. J. P. DeCourse celebrated her birthday last Wednesday at her home on High street and was remembered by her friends with gifts and cards.

John M. Toulson, who has been in Florida the past six months for the benefit of his health, is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Toulson. Dr. and Mrs. Houston Toulson, of Baltimore, were also guests at his parental home over Sunday.

We are sorry to report Whittier C. Copper has suffered a relapse after a long illness and is quite ill at his home opposite the Park.

Mrs. Mary Kirby, of Baltimore, is visiting her sister, Mrs. William Elliott.

Gale Rasin, of Still Pond, is a valuable member of Beacom College's undefeated soccer team.

The Every Evening says, "Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Brice had as their guest this week, Miss Gladys Beauchamp and Dr. Barkley Eshman, of Chestertown. Mr. and Mrs. Brice will entertain a house party over the week-end of November 28."

Prof. Douchkess and wife and Harry Graham, of Easton, Pa., spent Sunday with the home folks on Kent Circle.

Mrs. Edward H. Shuman, of Washington, was the week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Cooper.

J. Calvin Copper attended the W. M. C. vs. W. C. game at Westminster last Saturday and while there was the guest of John Wooden at W.M.C.

Dr. Mary C. Burchinal, Washington College, '96, Chester Heights, Pa., has lately been named a member of an honorary committee by Mary E. Wooley, President of Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass., to counsel with the College Entrance Examination Board. This is a distinct honor for Dr. Burchinal as this committee is made up of those who have either belonged to the Board in former years or who have otherwise rendered some distinguished educational service.

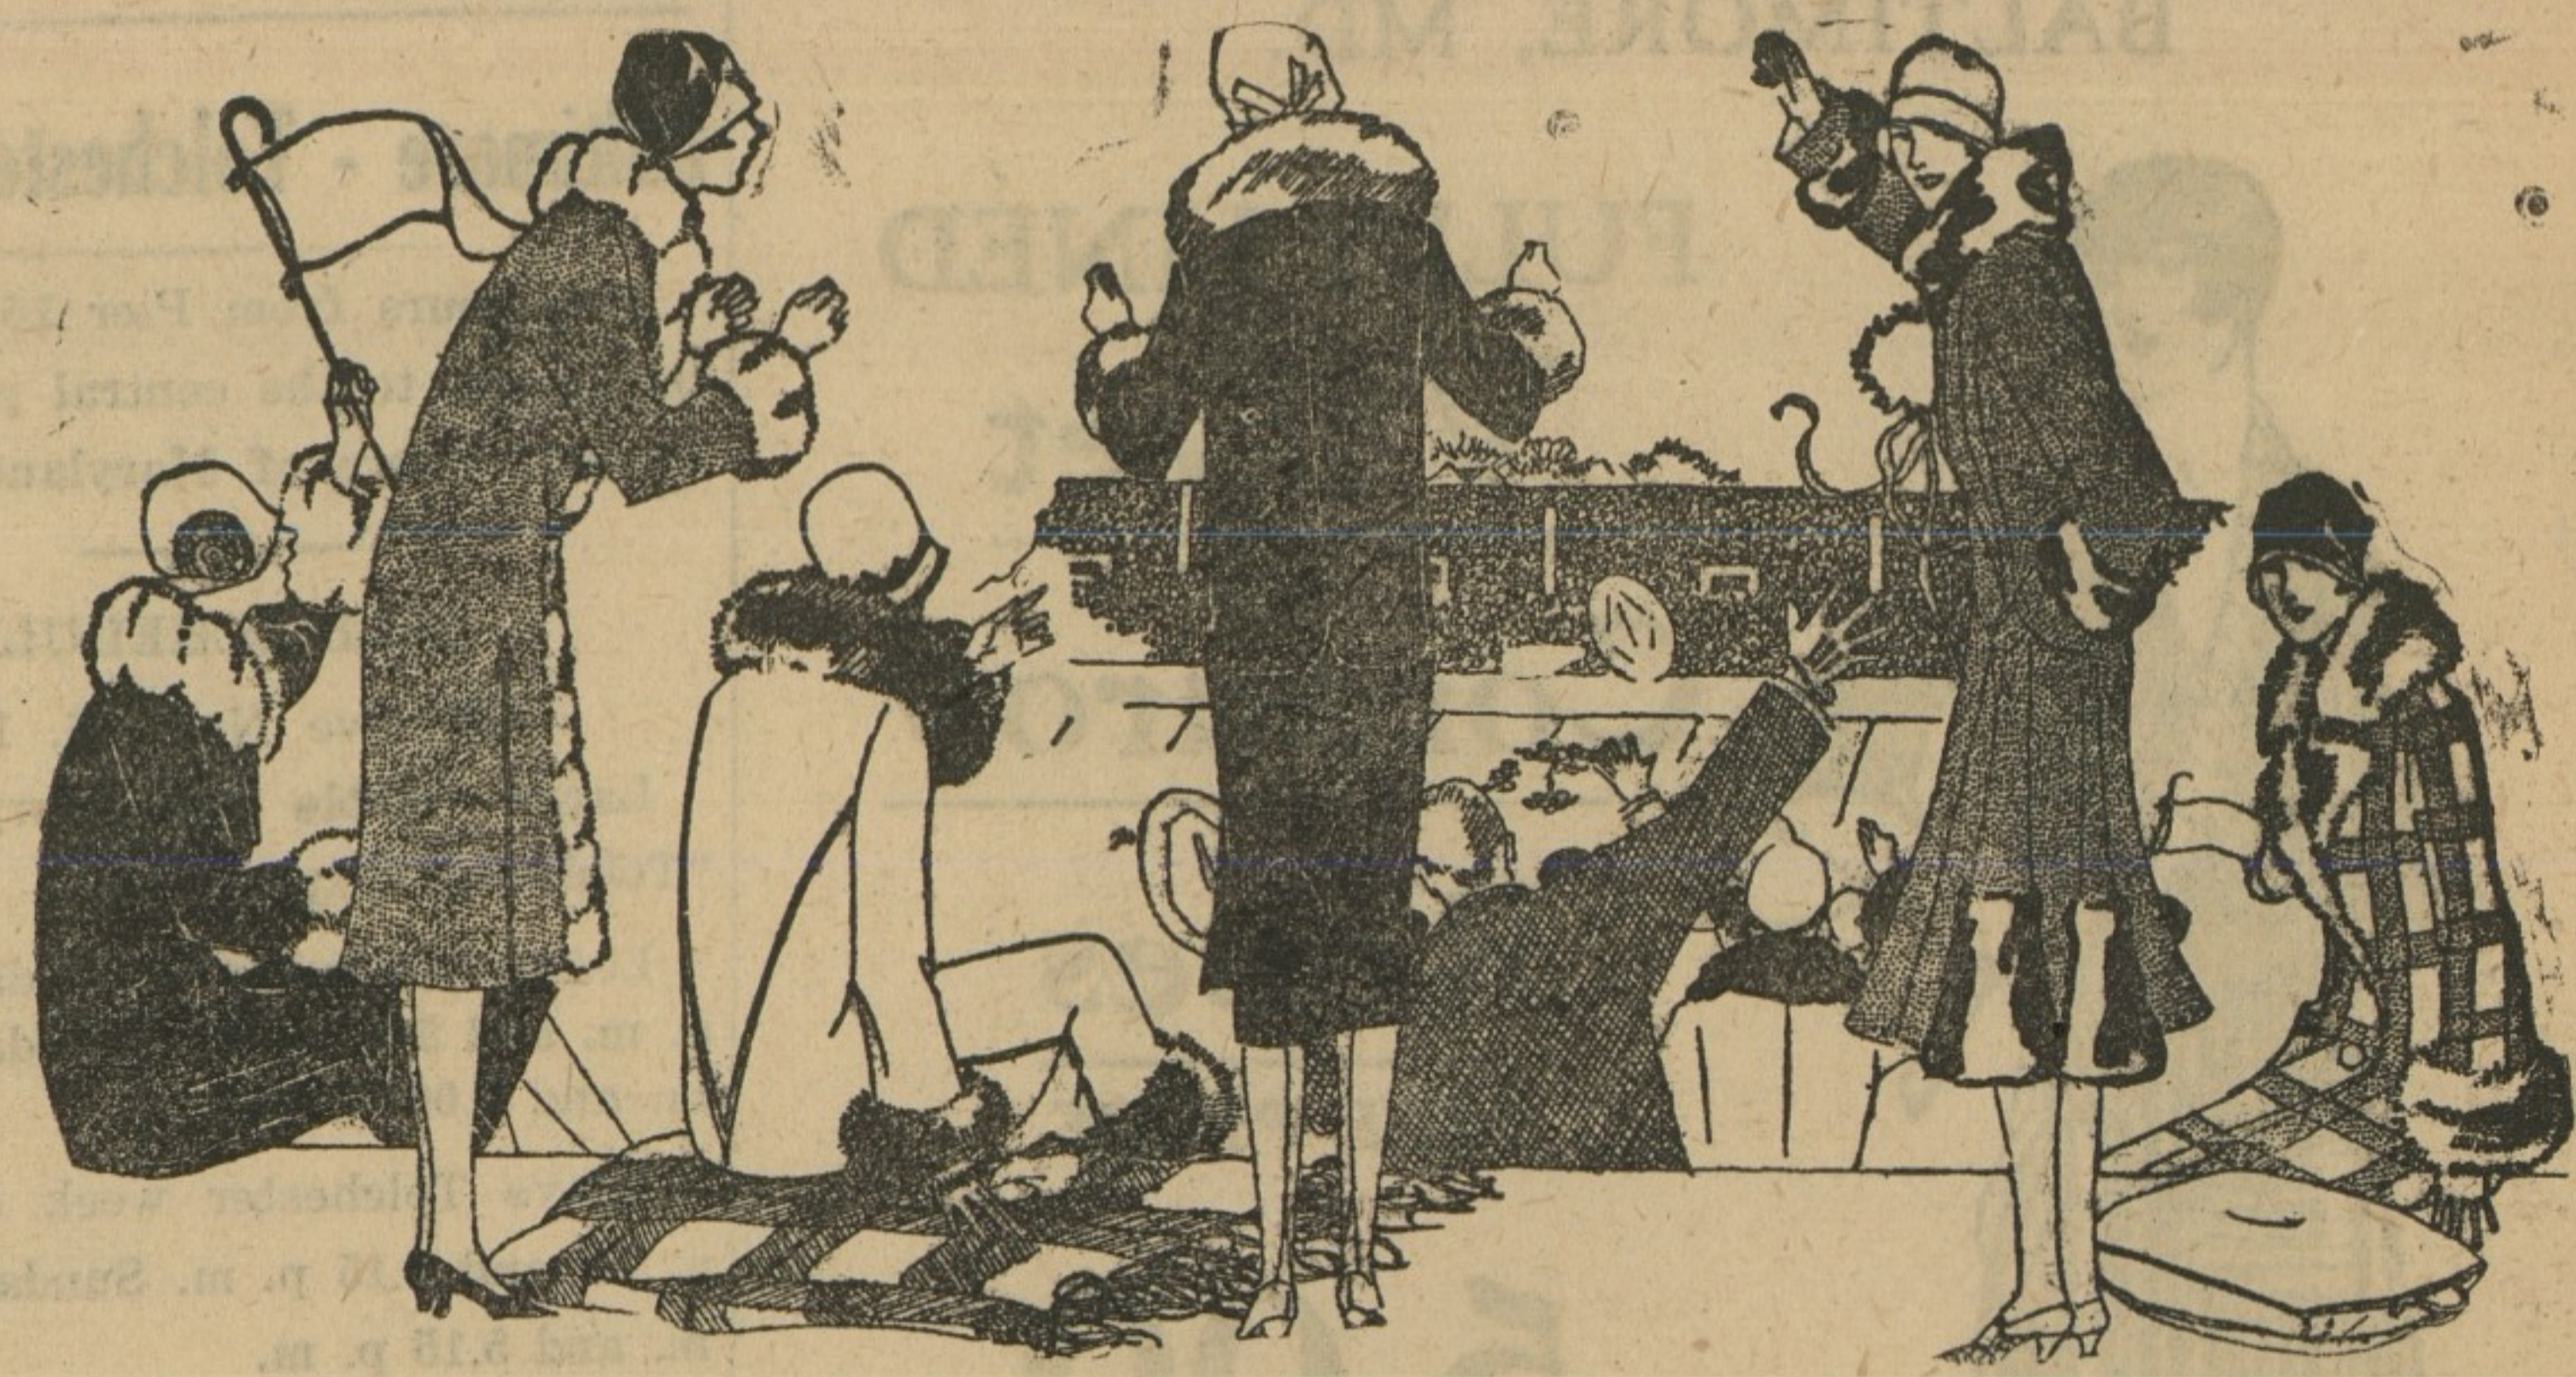

William W. Naylor, 76 years old, died at Townsend on Sunday. The funeral services were held from his late residence, Townsend, on Wednesday afternoon at 1.30, interment at Drawer's Cemetery, Idessa.

SCHWARTZ BROS. CO.

610-612 Market St.

WILMINGTON

Phone 6885

Choose Your Thanksgiving Coat From This Specially Priced Group of Lavishly Fur-Trimmed Models at $59.50

Coats in every fashionable silhouette from the smart straight line coat to the newest flared models. Coats beautifully trimmed with fine furs, fashionably applied at collars, cuffs and borders; beaver, wolf, American opossum, raccoon, fox, etc. Coats developed of fine fabrics, such as suede velours, short nap bolivias and sport coatings, in beautiful shades of gracklehead, sea swallow, lipstick red, cuckoo, tanger, queenbird, brown dove, navy, black, etc.

A THANKSGIVING APPEARANCE Is Just As Important As A Thanksgiving Appetite!

Spruce Up For Thursday!

THANKSGIVING is generally recognized as the official day for new clothes. It means an outing for new Overcoats, an airing for new suits, and an inning for new Tuxedos! And in this store it also means peak selections, because our winter assortments get into their stride at Thanksgiving. Whoever visits us Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday is assured of getting exactly what he wants for THURSDAY! And there is no "wishbone debatability" about the values either! Every price "breaks even" with a fair return for the merchandise and an honest equivalent for the customer.

OVERCOATS SUITS TUXEDOS
$13.50 to $37.50 $16.50 to $40 $27.50 & $37.50

BOSTONIANS
Shoes for Men
Styles That Last
$6.50 to $10.00

BORDLEY & SON
The Store for the Lad and His Dad
Chestertown, - Maryland

SCHOBLE Hats
For Style For Service
$5.00 to $7.00

We know your family dinner and home will not be complete on Thanksgiving Day

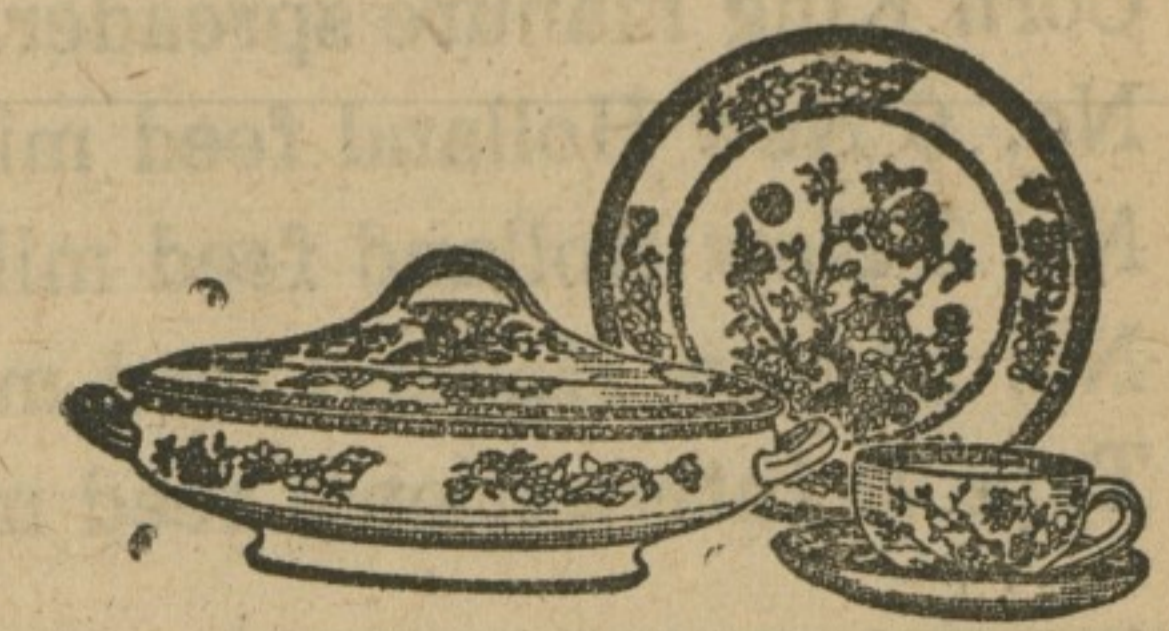

Without a set of Dishes. In fact Dishes are a necessity. Our selections which we offer for your approval may be purchased either in complete sets or individual pieces, as you prefer. A number of new patterns add to the pleasure of choosing here.

You know that our store is full of all kinds of Silver and other ware that must appeal to both the housewife and the husband.

SILVERWARE and CARVING SETS for your THANKSGIVING

One of our regular Open Sets. We have it in six different patterns from $45 to $85 for a 100 piece set.

For Your JEWELRY NEEDS we are at your service with a complete stock.

J. S. Kreeger,
"The Jeweler"

Cross Street, - Chestertown, Md.