

KENT'S CHURCHES ACTIVELY AT WORK

Do you hear the gospel of Christ each Sunday? Come to one of our churches and hear the word.

Shrewsbury Parish Church, Robt. W. Lewis, Rector. Evening prayer and sermon at 2.30 p. m.

Wesley Chapel. Sunday school at 9.30 a. m., worship and preaching by Q. L. Dawson, minister... Christian Endeavor at 7.30 p. m., leader, Mrs. E. P. LeSage, "God's Bounties."

Kesley Chapel. Sunday school at 2 p. m., worship and preaching at 2.30 p. m.

Raum Chapel. Sunday school at 2.30 p. m., Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m., worship and preaching by the pastor at 7.30 p. m.

One of these churches expects you will live up to their expectations? C. L. Dawson, minister.

Bond M. E. Church, Rev. W. L. McCintock, Pastor. Sunday school at 10 a. m., followed by a Decision Day Service, Epworth League service 7.15 p. m., followed by revival service. Service on Monday night at 7.30 p. m. Everybody invited.

Bond Church Aid will hold a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Parsons on Wednesday evening.

Mowbray M. E. Church. Sunday school at 2.15 p. m., Divine worship and sermon by pastor at 3 p. m. No evening service.

Mowbray Church will hold a social at Cliffs on Friday evening, Nov. 27. Revival services will begin next Sunday evening, Nov. 29. Everyone welcome.

Salem M. E. Church, Fairlee, Rev. S. L. Hanby, pastor. Sunday school at 10 a. m., preaching at 11 a. m., subject "Holden With the Cord of Sin;" Junior League at 2.30 p. m., Epworth League at 7.30 p. m., subject "Following Christ (win-my-chum)." Revival services each night during the week except Saturday night, assisted by neighboring pastors. Bro. McIntire will preach on Tuesday evening.

Union M. E. Church, Worton. Sunday school at 2 p. m., preaching by the pastor at 3 p. m.

Wm. T. Hague, a prominent member of Kennedyville M. P. Church, addressed the Christian Endeavor Society of Christ M. P. Church Sunday evening.

The Triangle Club held its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the home of the Misses Nicholson on High street.

Bishop Davenport will be at St. Paul's Church Sunday, November 23 and hold service at 11 a. m.

Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown. N. O. Gibson, minister. Sunday Nov. 22nd. Divine worship and sermon at 11 a. m., subject of sermon "The Christ at Prayer," Sunday school at 2.30 p. m., Christian Endeavor 6.45 p. m., gospel song service and sermon at 7.30 p. m., subject of sermon "The Rest of Faith." Cottage prayer meetings each evening during the week except on Wednesday and Saturday evenings at 7.30 o'clock. Wednesday the usual prayer and Bible study service at 7.30 p. m. Union Thanksgiving service at 10.30 a. m. sermon by the Rev. T. J. Sard, pastor of the M. E. Church. Donations for the Thanksgiving barrel for The Old People's Home at Westminster will be received at the home of Mrs. J. D. Bacchus, Water street. Donors are requested to send their donations not later than Tuesday morning, Nov. 24th.

Rev. J. H. Beauchamp of Wilmington, filled the pulpit in the Chestertown M. E. Church on Sunday morning in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Thomas J. Sard, who has been conducting a revival at Caroline Street Church in Baltimore. Dr. John K. Warren, of the Washington College faculty, preached at night on "High Ideals." A synopsis of this address will appear next week in the News.

The school of religious instruction closed its five weeks course Tuesday night at the M. E. Church. Certificates were presented the hundred or more students after which refreshments were served by the ladies of the church.

Rev. Samuel J. Smith, of Newark, Del., will preach at Chestertown M. E. Church on Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. in the absence of Mr. Sard in Baltimore. The public is invited. Other services of the church as usual.

Crumpton M. P. Church. Divine services at 11 o'clock preceded by Sunday school at 10 a. m. The interest is increasing and some who do not attend miss an enjoyable service. The church is going forward steadily along all lines. The Wednesday evening prayer meeting and the Sunday afternoon praise service are glorious times of refreshing. The old time fire burns on our altars. Sunday evening promises to be an occasion of more than usual interest. Great song services precede the sermon. The subject the pastor will consider will be illustrated by very interesting experiments performed with chemicals. Some facts hardly believable will be shown. Come and see what blessings are in store for you.

The primary department of Emmanuel P. E. Church gave a musical and literary entertainment in the parish house Friday evening for the benefit of the school. The net proceeds were $13. The teachers of the class are Misses Elizabeth Titsworth and Ada Schreiber.

The net proceeds of the first annual Horse Show held by the Kent County Horse Show Association here on Armistice Day was $850, which the association donated to the Kent County Health Association for the advancement of its free treatment clinics for patients living in Kent county. Prizes of $5 and $3 were awarded second and third winners although this was not promised.

Kennedyville M. P. Church, 10 a. m. Sunday school, 11 a. m. sermon by Dr. J. W. Trout, 7 p. m. Christian Endeavor, topic "God's Bounties." How Can We Share Them With Others," led by Mrs. John Atwell, 7.30 p. m. sermon by pastor. On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hill entertained the Ladies' Aid Society. On Friday afternoon, the Sunshine Class held their monthly meeting at the home of their teacher, Mrs. George Glenn. The Bible Study for this month was the last 18 chapters of First Book of Samuel and they brought scripture verse on song.

Still Pond M. E. Church, E. M. Shockley, minister. Sunday School 9.30 a. m., A. J. Hackett, superintendent, Divine worship 10.45 a. m., preaching by the pastor, Epworth League service 7.30 p. m., subject "Following the Christ," leader Ralph Geary.

Betterton M. E. Church, E. M. Shockley, minister. Sunday School 2 p. m., Archie Crew, superintendent. Divine worship 3 p. m., preaching by the pastor, Epworth League service 7.30 p. m., topic "Following Christ," leader, Mrs. Archie Crew, assisted by the pastor. This service is in the interests of the evangelistic services which begin Monday night 7.30 p. m. All are urged to be present.

St. James and Lynch M. P. Churches. Come with us on this coming Sabbath to give thanks unto God, at the St. James and Lynch M. P. Churches. St. James will start the day with the Sabbath school in charge of the annual Harvest Home exercises, appropriate recitations, music and decorations. A collection of produce will be made in this service, and the collected articles sent to several institutions, including the M. P. Home for the Aged and Infirm at Westminster, Md. At 11 a. m. following the 10 a. m. special service, the pastor, Rev. L. C. Randall, will speak on the subject of "Thanks Giving." The Lynch Sabbath School will meet at 2.30 p. m. and the preaching service at 3 p. m. St. James Christian Endeavor meets in a special service at 7 p. m. with Misses Bessie Nicholson and Virginia Lee as the leaders, and the topic "God's Bounties: How Can We Share Them With Others?" Thomas D. Bowers will be the special speaker of this evening service.

The primary department of Emmanuel P. E. Church gave a musical and literary entertainment in the parish house Friday evening for the benefit of the school. The net proceeds were $13. The teachers of the class are Misses Elizabeth Titsworth and Ada Schreiber.

The net proceeds of the first annual Horse Show held by the Kent County Horse Show Association here on Armistice Day was $850, which the association donated to the Kent County Health Association for the advancement of its free treatment clinics for patients living in Kent county. Prizes of $5 and $3 were awarded second and third winners although this was not promised.

The net proceeds of the first annual Horse Show held by the Kent County Horse Show Association here on Armistice Day was $850, which the association donated to the Kent County Health Association for the advancement of its free treatment clinics for patients living in Kent county. Prizes of $5 and $3 were awarded second and third winners although this was not promised.

The net proceeds of the first annual Horse Show held by the Kent County Horse Show Association here on Armistice Day was $850, which the association donated to the Kent County Health Association for the advancement of its free treatment clinics for patients living in Kent county. Prizes of $5 and $3 were awarded second and third winners although this was not promised.

The net proceeds of the first annual Horse Show held by the Kent County Horse Show Association here on Armistice Day was $850, which the association donated to the Kent County Health Association for the advancement of its free treatment clinics for patients living in Kent county. Prizes of $5 and $3 were awarded second and third winners although this was not promised.

The net proceeds of the first annual Horse Show held by the Kent County Horse Show Association here on Armistice Day was $850, which the association donated to the Kent County Health Association for the advancement of its free treatment clinics for patients living in Kent county. Prizes of $5 and $3 were awarded second and third winners although this was not promised.

The net proceeds of the first annual Horse Show held by the Kent County Horse Show Association here on Armistice Day was $850, which the association donated to the Kent County Health Association for the advancement of its free treatment clinics for patients living in Kent county. Prizes of $5 and $3 were awarded second and third winners although this was not promised.

The net proceeds of the first annual Horse Show held by the Kent County Horse Show Association here on Armistice Day was $850, which the association donated to the Kent County Health Association for the advancement of its free treatment clinics for patients living in Kent county. Prizes of $5 and $3 were awarded second and third winners although this was not promised.

GALENA HAPPENINGS AND PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Redding and son, Harry, Jr., spent Saturday in Wilmington.

The third quarterly conference of Galena M. E. Church, was held on Wednesday the 18th at 2.30 o'clock at Locust Grove.

Mrs. William Thornton, of Warwick, visited her sister, Mrs. Walter Hadley this week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bramble spent Sunday in Wilmington with relatives.

Frank Cohee visited his sister, Mrs. Amanda Hewitt, in Wilmington, last week. Mrs. Hewitt has been very sick for several weeks.

Capt. and Mrs. Walter Hadley and son, Walter, and Mrs. Annie Moore, spent Sunday with Mr. Hadley's sister, Mrs. Charles Miller, Worton.

Mrs. Josephine Davis has returned after a visit with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Craddock.

Mrs. Sallie Garey, of Middletown, Del., is spending some time with Mrs. Josephine Davis.

Quite a number of our people attended the Horse Show near Chestertown on Armistice Day.

Hanson Horsey, Jr., of Millington, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hanson Horsey, here.

Miss Ada Mulford has returned to her home after visiting relatives in Baltimore for several weeks.

Miss Ethel Lee Prettyman, of Philadelphia, has been visiting her parents in Galena. Miss Prettyman spent a wonderful summer in the mountains at the Glenwood Hotel, Delaware Water Gap, Pa., where she had a clerical position. She has been offered similar employment in the Useeppa Hotel, Florida.

Holden Ireland, of Cecil county, spent Sunday with his uncle, Thomas G. Jarman. John Bowers and wife were also visitors, the latter visiting her father, Thomas G. Jarman.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Guthrie spent a few days last week in Kenton. Mr. Guthrie and his brothers spent the days gunning.

Mrs. Wm. T. Wood visited her daughter, Mrs. Frank Johnston, in Dr. Jones' Hospital, in Wilmington, on Sunday.

William Jefferies has opened a harness and shoe repair shop in the room which Mrs. James Scotten formerly used as a tea room.

Mrs. John Welch and little daughter, Josephine, have returned home after several weeks stay with some friends in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Morgan and family of Cecil county, visited her mother, Mrs. Lucy Cruickshank, on Sunday.

Mrs. Carrie Stradley visited her father, Thomas C. Roe, in a hospital in Wilmington, one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jefferies and son, Frank, have returned home to Wilmington, after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Redding.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jones and daughter, Lois, of Belmont, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Davis.

Paul and William Pennington and Mrs. Nat Scotten visited their brother, Glenn Pennington, in Philadelphia, this week. Mr. Pennington is quite sick.

Chester M. Davis and cousin, Hopkins Moore, of Cambridge, students at Washington College, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Davis and family.

Miss Hilda Boyd has returned to her home after a few days stay with relatives in Baltimore.

The Epworth League on Sunday night was led by Henry Caldwell. The subject was Win-My-Chum.

Rev. and Mrs. O. T. Baynard and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Matthews of Chincoteague, Va., spent Wednesday in Wilmington.

Mrs. Wm. Boyd who was operated on in the City Hospital, Baltimore, has returned home. She is improving nicely.

Albert Moffett, who was operated on at the St. Frances Hospital for appendicitis returned home Tuesday. John N. Edward, of near town, who has been quite sick, is much improved.

Mrs. Alex Powell, of near town, spent Saturday in Wilmington.

Wm. LeCates, the Hershey's hustling salesman, has returned home for a few days after a stay in Boston.

Mrs. C. Nickerson and grandson, James Antone, moved from their home in town to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kelley's home near town.

Mrs. Theresa Scott, of Delaware College, spent Armistice Day with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Edw. A. Scott.

Mrs. George Jones visited relatives in Baltimore last week.

Miss Marian Pennington entertained quite a few of her little friends on Saturday afternoon in honor of her eighth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cannan, of Walter McIntire visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. McIntire, on Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Jones, who has been spending some time with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Dushane, of Chesapeake City, has returned to her home here.

Camden, N. J., spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Cannan, returned home with them for the winter months.

Edward Caldwell, of Kennedyville, spent the week-end with his brother Henry Caldwell and family, of near town.

The bake held by the "Til Try" Sunday School Class, in Redding's Ice Cream Store, on Saturday, was quite a success.

MILLINGTON NOTES AND PERSONALS

Misses Florence Dixon and Helen Stevens attended the Annual meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, which was held at Middletown on Thursday and Friday of last week, as delegates from the Queen Esther Circle of Asbury M. E. Church.

Marion Spear, of Baltimore, spent the past two weeks with his sister, Mrs. C. T. Brainnigan.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Booth, of Chester, and I. Johnson Booth, of Media, Pa., were guests last week of the former's sister, Mrs. Harry L. Higman.

Mrs. Eva C. Sykes returned home last Saturday after spending three weeks with friends in Baltimore.

Leo Gale, of Galena, has rented the Orem property on East Cypress street and will move there about January 1, 1926.

The ladies of Asbury M. E. Church will hold a turkey supper this Saturday evening, Nov. 21st, in the new community building.

A Group Institute for the Sunday Schools of the Baltimore District was held last Tuesday in Trinity M. E. Church, South. The Sunday schools of the following churches: Church Hill, Goldsboro, Ingleisle, Kent and Queen Anne's were represented. Lunch was served in the Sunday school room to the delegates and visiting members by the ladies of Trinity M. E. Church. The day was very much enjoyed by all those who were present.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of Asbury M. E. Church was held on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. John L. Smith.

American Education week was observed this week by the pupils of Millington High School with a fine program.

Constitution Day, Monday, November 16th.

Mrs. John Slaughter is quite sick at her home on West Cypress St.

Mrs. John Wallace, of near town, and Mrs. Howard Anthony, visited friends in Chester, on Wednesday of last week and enjoyed the big Armistice Day parade.

Mrs. E. R. Sidell has returned to her home in Philadelphia after spending several weeks with friends in town.

Edgar T. Stevens spent last Sunday with his niece, Mrs. Mack Geary, of Chestertown.

Price Phillips, of Wilmington, was the guest last week of his aunt, Mrs. Ruth Bowman.

Mrs. Maggie Poore visited her daughter, Miss Marei, at Emergency Hospital, Easton, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Felton and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, left last Monday in the latter's Ford Sedan by way of Cape Charles and Norfolk, Va., for Florida, where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. James E. Higman spent a few days this week with her nephew, Parvis Sparks, near Sudlersville.

Gilbert Burris, of Delaware City, was the guest this week of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Burris.

Mrs. Louisa A. Hurst visited relatives in Wilmington last week.

John A. Tobin returned on Tuesday from Piqua, Ohio, with a very handsome Studebaker Limousine Hearse, the first one in use on the Peninsula between Salisbury and Wilmington. The machine was driven in by Mr. Tobin, himself, over the national Old Trail.

Mrs. John Coleman, of Rock Hall, visited her sister, Mrs. P. B. Rasin, on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper, daughter, Margaret, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cooper, of Chestertown spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Dwyer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Money, of Kennedyville, visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rasin on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crowding have moved to their new home near Worton. Mr. and Mrs. Preston Crowding having moved into the house vacated by them.

J. D. Maxwell spent part of the week in New York.

Mrs. Grace Aldridge, of Chestertown, visited J. D. Maxwell and family on Tuesday.

KENNEDYVILLE NOTES

Houston Pote and family, of Wilmington, spent Thursday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pote.

Mrs. Shafer and daughter, Miss Emma, spent a part of the week in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Hedley, of Chester, spent the week-end with her parents.

Mrs. Lee Gill, of Golts, visited Mrs. Roger Kennedy last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Granvil Ward and children, of Philadelphia, spent the week-end with her parents.

Miss Elizabeth Pennington and Mrs. Henry Boggs are on the sick list.

The Mite Society of Grace Presbyterian Church will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hill's Friday evening, Nov. 27.

The Pomona Grange was held in the school building Saturday last with a small attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Redmile and Mr. and Mrs. Lin Redmile visited in Wilmington this week.

Miss Evelyn Spencer is able to be out again.

Charlie Hessner and Bert Newton spent Monday and Tuesday in Philadelphia.

George Johnston and Will Johnston have been enjoying a well-earned vacation from the milk station.

Service at M. P. Church as usual.

A GREAT BIRD DOG

A gentleman of Millington, claims to own the keenest bird dog in Kent county. One day last week he and a friend were hunting around when they noticed the dog standing firm.

Upon going closer to "flush" the "birds" they discovered that instead of a covey of birds to fly up they found the dog had "stood" a gallon jug of moonshine. The men bagged their game and later in the afternoon the dog stood firm again and upon investigation found this time a quart bottle. By this time the two hunters were scarcely able to carry home their "bag."

Wm. Medders & Co. SPECIAL ATTENTION TO TELEPHONE ORDERS Still Pond, Md. We make FREE DELIVERY via ERICSSON TRUCK to your town.

"THANKSGIVING SALE"

Thousands of dollars worth of high class merchandise to go in this sale at lower prices, "TO SELL QUICK," so as to make room for our new Christmas goods.

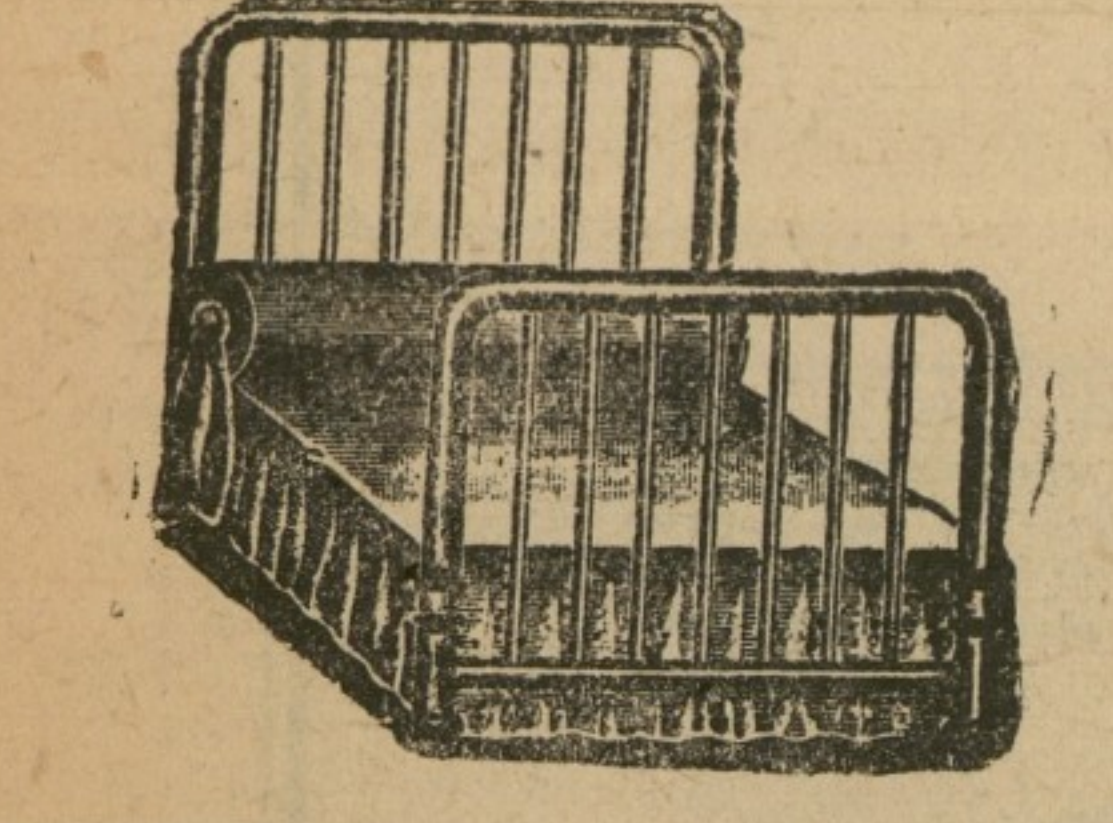

Good Furniture at Lower Prices Buy a New Rocker Makes Your Home Look New

Our new Xmas rockers have arrived Prices $10.00, $12.50, $15.00

These New Reed and Fiber Living Room Suits are on sale complete $39.00, $49.00.

HEAVY ENAMEL BEDS $10 ALL SIZES ON SALE $15.00 Enamel Beds $10.00 Good Beds $7.50 to $19.00

NEW LOW BUFFETS Made of solid oak and built for beauty and service. Prices $22.50, $29.00, $35.00

NEW OAK COUCHES $19 Couches made with steel spring base, guaranteed not to sag $25.00 Couches now $19.00 $30.00 Couches now $22.50 Good Couches $15.00 up

BUY GUARANTEED SPRINGS A bad spring is not cheap at any price. Each spring is sold on a 10-year guarantee. Prices $6.50, $7.50, $10.00

NEW FELT MATTRESSES $10 New Double Thick, All Cotton Felt Mattresses, with Extra Quality Twill Tickings. $15.00 Mattresses for $10.00 Cheaper Mattresses $6.50 up

Bargains in Oak Bottom Seat Chair $2.50 Oak Chairs now $1.90 Extra value $2.25, $2.75

- The $50.00 Axminster Rugs, full Seamless Rugs $35.00
- The 30.00 Body Brussels Rugs, full seamless $25.00
- The 25.00 Brussels Rugs now on sale $19.00
- The 18.00 Congoleum Rugs (all new patterns) $12.50
- The 7.50 Grass Rugs, in many patterns $5.00

"The store with a conscience"

Beautiful Undergarments in Silk and Rayon

To a man, a silk garment is just one more garment. To a woman, a silk garment gives that elusive feeling of class, of daintiness, of good grooming as nothing else can.

Look over this offering of Bloomers—Vests—Step-ins and Combinations in Silk and Rayon, feel the quality, admire the beautiful colors. Prices start at $1.

Full fashioned silk hosiery by Dexdale in a wide range of colors.

These articles are splendid for X-mas gifts and X-mas is but five weeks off.

A special group of Silk Dresses $15

HARRY F. JEFFERSON Chestertown, Maryland

"The store with a conscience"