ROCK HALL NOTES

Monday evening the Adventist Church was filled to capacity when a missionary anniversary at the close of the Harvest Ingathering Campaign was celebrated. Mrs. Charles Judefind presided at the organ and was assisted by four other musical instruments played by Clifton Downey, Orin Downey, Jesse Downey and Emmett Wood. A large choir was led by Newton Downey. Mrs. William Witt had faithfully trained the children in their parts and Mark Pettibone made announcements of a "Harvest Time" program. The offering amounted to $15.85 and the sale of produce netted $35.93 making a total of $51.78 for the evening.

Mrs. Charles E. Davis is visiting her sons and other relatives in Baltimore.

Charles Stevens has moved to a home east of town.

Mrs. Charles Parsons is improving from an attack of the gripe.

Roland Warner is spending the winter at the fishing grounds at Kent Point and Mrs. Warner and daughter, will be guests for the time of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dowling, Sr.

Mrs. Cecilia Jones, who is rather helpless from a stroke of paralysis sustained a year ago, moved from Bridgeton with her son, Joseph Jones and family to a bungalow of Marion Coleman's and enjoys the warm welcome and calls of her numerous friends here.

Joe Strong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Downey, Jr., became ill on Thursday and was taken to a Baltimore hospital Friday where his ailment was pronounced pneumonia of one lung. He is doing nicely.

Thomas Hogans is able to sit up and receive guests for short chats.

Mrs. Walter Jester continues very ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Boyer.

Mrs. John C. Wood is making a visit to Waterbury, Conn., where her brother, Wickes Sappington, is in a hospital after bursting his spleen a couple of weeks ago when he had a fall of eight or ten feet and struck his back on a stone. A rib is badly fractured also. Reports concerning Mr. Sappington's condition are favorable. Twenty of his fellow employees promptly offered themselves when it was feared blood would be necessary for transfusion.

Mrs. William Fithian is mother of a newly arrived baby son. Captain Fithian is at present cruising in Southern waters.

Mr. William G. Gunning, for many years in charge of the Culinary Department of Washington College, died at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Powell, in Atlanta Georgia, on Thanksgiving Day, aged 75 years. Mr. Gunning was a gentleman of exceptional ability

Solving An Old Problem

There are so many friends and loved ones that simply must be remembered at Christmas. Each one is expecting a present from you. That means you will have to dig down deep to make their Christmas merry.

To help finance your Christmas buying this bank has a savings plan, the CHRISTMAS SAVINGS CLUB, which solves the old problem that worries you each year.

Under the CHRISTMAS SAVINGS CLUB plan you can make small deposits, ranging from twenty-five cents up to a dollar or more each week. You'll never miss those small amounts and when Christmas comes next year you will be prepared with ready cash.

Everybody sees the wisdom of this plan and more are starting it this year than ever before. You should join too and also start a small account for the children and teach them the wise habit of thrift.
