A SALE
That Will Make HISTORY

Every year VANSANT & NEWSOME stage a January selling event. They do this for two reasons. Primarily the object of such a sale is to clear stock for spring purchases. Yet there is another consideration. When a group of customers give their generous patronage throughout a year, the management of this store feel that it is only right that there should be a few days set aside each year wherein unusual and surprising bargains are offered. In this sale there are scores of such bargains. Bargains, greater in fact than we ever before have offered. That is why we say this sale will make history. People for miles around will come in and buy while prices are so unprecedently low.
