FARMERS HAVE THE VOTES TO RULE

In numbers, character and aliveness the tenth annual convention of the Maryland Agricultural Society and the Maryland Farm Bureau Federation in Baltimore last week was the best farmers' meeting ever held in the State.

Farm lands are suffering from over-taxation. Those attending the convention were of one mind on that point. They urged in statements and figures that, in relation to their value and earning power, the farms of Maryland were obliged to pay unduly in taxes.

intelligently than they ever were.

a big part in politics in Maryland from now until the elections in November. State officers and a new General Assembly are to be elected and the farmers will have the opportunity to pass upon the men chosen to make their laws and to bring reforms where they are needed.

Have they the power. According to the last census there are in Maryland 38,526 general farmers and 40,123 farm laborers, a total of 78,649. This is by far the biggest bloc in the State. No other single occupation or interest has a half or a third as many votes. Why, then, should not the farmers see that the right kind of men are sent to Annapolis? Perhaps they will. Maryland farmers are now better organized and more intelligentlp le than they ever were.

Figures just published by the United States Department of Commerce show that the governmental cost of the forty-eight States increased more than three times between 1915 and 1924 and the net debt kept pace with the rise in expenses. What is needed is a policy that will check the advance and introduce real economy into State affairs. Maryland needs a good dose of this medicine and the farmers will help themselves and the whole State if they will bring it to pass. What will they do with their 78,000 votes?—Baltimore News.

SEEKS TO SAVE CRAB

Drastic conservation legislation by Maryland and Virginia is necessary to save the crab industry, Secretary of Commerce Hoover declares in submitting to Governor Ritchie and to Governor Trinkle, of Virginia a special report by the United States Bureau of Fisheries.

He recommends the legislation include provision to reduce crabbing at least one-third until the supply can be increased.

The survey, which was made in co-operation with the Maryland Department of Conservation and the Virginia Fisheries Commission, is said to have shown a decline of more than 50 per cent. in the catch of crabs in Maryland and Virginia waters since 1915. In that year the catch was reported as 50,300,000 pounds; in 1924 it was 24,800,000 pounds.

Other recommendations made by Mr. Hoover are:

That the taking of sponge crabs and buckram crabs be prohibited at all times.

"That the peeler crab be designated as one having the new soft shell, fully formed under the hard shell, which can be detected by the pink sign.

"That statistics and biological data be collected to note the effect of the new regulations.

"That State fishing commissions be empowered to change regulations, subject to approval of their respective Governors."

Yes, sir! that's my buddy!

TROUBLE'S a bubble, just as the song says. And you can stick it with the stem of your old jimmy-pipe . . . packed to the brim with Prince Albert. Friendly, fragrant Prince Albert. Cool, comfortable Prince Albert. A pal in the pinches . . . a cheer-leader when you're on top.

Pipe-peeves vanish in a P. A. smoke-screen. Problems go up in smoke. Cool and sweet and fragrant, P. A. sifts into your system and pins a big red rose on the workaday world. Tobacco with a real mission in life . . . to make you pipe-happy and keep you that way!

And listen to this: P. A. can't nip your tongue or parch your throat! Because—the Prince Albert process put a padlock on tongue-torture right at the start; gave Bite and Parch the gate in the beginning . . . and they've never been back!

Men who thought they never could smoke a pipe have tried again with Prince Albert . . . and stuck! Go and do you likewise. There's a friendly shop nearby where they hand out P. A. sunshine in tidy red tins. Take the shortest cut. Step lively! Your tobacco troubles will then be over for all time.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.
