MRS. ROOT LECTURES ON LIBRARIES

Mrs. Root Tells The Woman's Literary Club, Of Chestertown, Many Ways In Which To Make the Chestertown Library Better In Address There Recently.

Mrs. Root in this lecture said: "When I am passing through various towns I have a lovely time. One of my chief pleasures is this. I go into a public library, get a good book or some interesting magazine and in it I find some good sport and reading matter. It is a great pleasure for me to have this opportunity to visit these towns in behalf of the Maryland State Library Commission.

In Easton I saw a movement that interested me very much. A trained librarian is employed. These people have earned money for this library through the sale of books and flowers. Now, why can't the women of Chestertown do the same thing? This library at Easton is called the Talbot County Library. The people are trying to make the commissioners pay for a public library."

Mrs. Root says that it is not generally known, but Maryland ha sa State Library Law. The County Commissioners may tax 7 per cent on a hundred dollars for a county public library. They are not made to do this, but they are allowed to do it. Any municipality may levy a tax for the support of city or county libraries. It is a thing we are all proud of to see a movement that we take a great interest in, grow into a great success. In Crisfield there is a little library. It hasn't many books and the money is collected by charging one dollar a year for membership. Princess Anne has a subscription library.

Federalsburg has a splendid library.

To have an interesting library, your books must be in order and classified. The attitude of the librarian to the people who enter have a great deal to do with the success of the library. The beautifying of your library does a great deal more. One thing that is liked in a library is the right to come and go as one chooses.

The good service of a library means that you read only the best books. Children should not be allowed to read immoral books. They should not read too many fairy tails, but should read the books that teach them high morals. A thing that every parent wants his child to have is a high ideal of old age. Every child from the age of ten to twelve naturally believes in fairies and the unseen.

The public libraries are trying to help all good and growing organizations. They are trying to show what is best for them to read. For the banker, they buy the latest books on banking, for the doctor, the latest book on medicine, for the lawyer, the latest book on law, etc.

Nowadays we see so many new books illustrated in the moving pictures that we want to read them. All books do not appeal to everybody, but some books do appeal to everybody and some to only a few people.

Mrs. Root says, "Make a point of showing and advertising the books on hand in your library; in this way people will become interested. The things that a library gives to people are: Recreation, pleasure, education.

Mrs. Root says, "Do not think of your library as a charity, but always consider it as an asset and strive each and every one to make it thrive. It is the duty of every woman to try to make the town library grow and thrive." The above address of Mrs. Root was taken down and written for us by pupils of Chestertown High School.

Epsom Salts in Sugar Coated Tablet Form

Anyone May Take Salts Now

The best physicians have always advocated the free use of Epsom Salts to start the action of torpid liver, to clear the blood and to cleanse the system generally. But because Epsom Salts are so "nasty" to take and so upsetting to the stomach, most people prefer to use something else.

But now all this is ended. Now anyone may take Epsom Salts compound—in sugar coated tablet form—a new method just perfected in one of the largest scientific laboratories in the country.

Wonderful results follow the use of this tablet. Thousands are taking them for laxative and blood cleansing purposes. They are actually pleasant to take. In addition to being sugar coated another coating of Salol is given them—this Salol is the greatest intestinal antiseptic known to medicine. Anyone may be sure to get the right kind of Epsom Salt Tablet with this special Salol coating by asking any dealer for Dill's Epso-Tabs. A large box costs only 25 cents.
