LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

A. S. Turner has measured the distance from Hopewell Corner to Stam's Hall to be 2 and 2-10 miles. From Hopewell to Worton Station is just 3 miles.

Edward B. Jones has on exhibition at the News office a model of a canoe. It is a beauty and watermen especially are charmed by its graceful lines. Mr. Jones at his daughter's home on Queen street, has a big line of bird houses, chains, canes, cutlery, etc., all made by hand from wood. He is a genius with the knife and will take pleasure in showing his work.

County Farm Bureau officials who have been making an exhaustive study of the sheep industry in Kent county estimate that the farmers receive from $80,000 to $85,000 annually from the sale of wool and lambs. There are on the farms of the county 8,000 sheep from which are annually sheared 36,327 pounds of wool and from which $65,000 worth of young lambs are sold.

The man who has been fortunate enough to own good pigs during the past few months and has known how to push them rapidly has found them about the most profitable thing on a farm. J. Lee Gardner, who lives near Darlington, reports that on September 26th he had a litter of 10 purebred O. I. C. pigs arrive and all lived and thrived. Ten days ago they were purchased by George Livezey. tipped the scales at 1400 pounds and called for a check of $252.

Messrs. Jones & Satterfield, of Chestertown, Md., were two of 33 lucky hardware dealers who shared in the distribution of "Captain Kidd's Treasure" by Henry Disston & Sons. Inc., at the convention and exhibit of the Pennsylvania and Atlantic Coast Hardware Association in Philadelphia. Fourteen "pirate chests," supposed to have been dug up from the sands where buried more than two centuries ago by Captain Kidd and his crew of bucaneers, were distributed in booths of jobbers who handle the Disston saws, tools, and files, and visiting hardware men tried their luck opening them with "magic keys" which had been sent to them by Henry Disston & Sons, Inc., Captain Kidd's own chest, in the Disston booth, contained a handsome gold watch.

The milk meeting in the Court House Wednesday evening was well attended. Emphasis was laid on growing our own feed, tuberculin test and cutting out "boarders."

Washington College closed its 1925-26 basketball season by a well-played victory over St. Josephs, of Philadelphia, last Saturday night. The score was 26 to 18. This game marked the final appearance of Captain Mike Fiore who has been a member of the varsity squad for four years.

Samuel Frisby, well-known colored citizen of Chestertown, and for many years a servant in the home of the late George B. Westcott, died on Sunday.

Congressman T. Alan Goldsborough will speak over the radio from Station WCAP, Washington, at 7.00 p. m., on Wednesday, March 17th. His subject will be "Some Aspects of the Tariff Question" Congressman Treadway, of Massachusetts, will be the companion speaker for the evening.

Buick and Chevrolet automobiles are now being sold with price reduction allowance for the decrease in Federal revenue tax. See the N-B-R Motor Co., local dealers.

Miss Dorothy A. Knotts, of Hillsboro, Miss V. Estelle Nickell, of Rising Sun, Miss Margaret A. Hammer and Miss Katherine M. Kibler, of Greensboro, compose the affirmative co-ed debating team of Washington College, which will argue the matter of America's entry into the League of Nations with girls' teams of Albright College and Elizabethtown College in the early spring. This is the first girls' debating team ever organized at Washington College and it will stage the first debate ever held between Maryland and Pennsylvania college girls.

High prices were obtained on Thursday when Mrs. James J. Wilson's fine herd of cows near Pylesville, Harford county, was offered to the public by Auctioneer W. A. Wheeler. The cows were exceptionally good and buyers expressed their appreciation by bidding freely. The high cow brought $220 while several touched the $200 mark.

Leading fruit growers in Kent county who have made an examination of their fruit buds during the week, including Walter B. Harris, of Betterton; O. B. Burrell, of near Galena; Benj. F. Rash, of Worton; Mrs. Evelyn A. Harris, of near Betterton, declare that the prospect is fine for a large yield of all kinds of fruit if weather conditions are favorable The weather of the winter has not injured the buds and the prospect is especially good for a large yield of apples in which most of the growers are specializing. These growers are considered the leading authorities on fruit culture.

R. W. Barnett has had a new electric barber pole erected on High St. opposite the door of his shop.

W. S. & A. M. Culp has been awarded the contract to build James W. Crouch's new residence on the Avenue. Wm. Duyer and help will do the carpenter's work.

Senator W. B. Copper is improving his residence on the Avenue by shingling the exterior and by laying hard wood floors on the interior. Ellsworth Leary, of Rock Hall, is the contractor.

Another musical entertainment under direction of the Wheeler Production Co., will be given in the Lyceum Theatre, the latter part of May for the benefit of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company.

By action of creditors the store of R. Plein, meat and grocery merchant, on Cross sereet, at Chestertown, was closed this week. It is understood that Mr. Plein will be able to satisfy the pressing claims and resume business at an early date.

The Old Line Construction Company of Chestertown, were the lowest bidders on 1.33 miles of road in Delaware this week.

WEDDING NOTES

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fillingame, in Chesapeake City, Md., on Saturday, February 27th, 1926, when their daughter, Mary Elizabeth became the bride of Hiram Clarke Powell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Powell, Sr., of near Middletown, Del. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles Robey, of Havre de Grace, Md., a former pastor of the bride's home church, at Sassafras, Md.

As the clock chimed two the bridal party entered the living room which was beautifully decorated with laurel and hyacinths. The lights being draped with pink cast a soft shadow over the entire room. Miss Margaret Harrington, of Chesapeake City, Md. skillfully played the Lohengrin wedding march. Mrs. Howard Fillingame, of near Middletown, Del., a sister-in-law of the bride was matron of honor. Miss Kathryn Thornton of Middletown, Del., was bridesmaid. Howard Fillingame. of near Middletown, Del., and John Fillingame, of Chesapeake City, brothers of the bride were ushers. George Titter, of Church Hill, a boyhood friend of the groom was best man. The bride entered the living-room on the arm of the groom. She was gowned in a white satin back crepe with slippers and stockings and carried pink roses. Mrs. Fillingame wore brown satin back crepe with slippers to match and carried sweet peas. The groom, best man and ushers wore suits of dark blue serge and buttonteres of sweet peas.

The ceremony was performed under an arch of laurel and hyacinths. The bride's traveling gown was of blonde satin with shoes, hat and gloves to match. A reception was held immediately after the ceremony for the relatives and friends of the newly-weds. The bride's former school students served at the reception. As the bride and groom were leaving for their honeymoon north, they found a large surprise awaiting them at the door. They were showered with rice and confetti. The bridal car was handsomely decorated with old cans and shoes. After Mar. 1st the newly wedded couple will reside near Townsend, Del., where the groom is engaged in farming.

Guests were present from Philadelphia, Baltimore, Wilmington, Landenburg, Church Hill, Kennedyville, Middletown, Elkton, Warwick, Cecilton, Earleville, Pivot and Chesapeake City.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Hadaway wish to announce the marriage of their daughter, Dora E., to Roland S. Unruh, of Dover, Del., formerly of Betterton, Md. On account of the death of the bride's grandfather, they were quietly married at Elkton, on March 10, 1926, and will be at home after March 25th, on their farm which Mr. Unruh recently purchased north of Dover, Del.

ARE YOU LOOKING FOR AN ASSURED INCOME?

Every Thoughtful man and woman wants to arrange for investments to provide for old age.

We suggest that you consider the Annuity Plan of Washington College.

1. High Dividends are secured. The semi-annual payments of annuity provide the largest income, consistent with safety. At the death of the annuitant, the principal goes, according to the donor's wishes, either to a designated or an undesignated fund of Washington College.

2. The investment-gift is safe. The $450,000 plant, and property and the good name of Washington College are behind it. The semi-annual dividend remittances will be paid as long as the annuitant lives.

3. Relief from investment anxieties and care is assured. Purchasers of the annuities in Washington College are released from further worry about reinvestments of funds, idle money, the passing of dividends or liability of loss from unsound investments.

4. Your money will work for you as long as you live and will accomplish your desires after death without the possibility of a bitter and costly contest of your will.

5. $100 and up may be thus invested in cash, estate, approved bonds and stocks.

6. This investment is safe, is not taxable, saves worry and the commission of an agent and provides a regular, fixed, and sure income for the life of the annuitant and eventually will become part of the Endowment Fund of Washington College, there to be a monument to you which will go on serving humanity forever.

7. Rates of interest offered: 5% if you are between the ages of 50 and 60, 6% for ages 60-70, 7% for ages 70-80, and 8% for age 80 or above.

Questions are gladly answered.

DR. PAUL E. TITSWORTH, PRESIDENT.
Chestertown, Maryland.

You're going to see a great style show for men here this Spring

HART SCHAFFNER & MARK CLOTHES WILL BE HERE and that means

The Eton Flannels	Acid Blue	Chamois Shades
Blairgowrie Tweeds	Birch Gray	Onion and Rust
Caber Checks	Silver Gray	Sherwood Grey

THOSE are only a few of the smart features; you'll see the new knitted top coats; you'll see the new university double-breasted suits, in Blue Cheviots and wide wale serges, you'll see the new wider shouldered models with wider lapels and narrower hips. You'll also see prices that will amaze you for fine quality. They won't look nearly high enough

$25 $30 $35

Suits with 2 pair straight pants or Suits with pants and knickers to match.

New Spring Oxfords
New Spring Hats
New Spring Shirts

Knickers	Sport Sweaters
Golf Hose	Neckwear

BORDLEY & SON

The Store for the Lad and his Dad

Chestertown, Maryland.

PERSONAL NOTES

Mrs. Earle A. Barnes and two daughters were week-end guests of relatives in Wilmngton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bates Chaires and little daughter, Mary Emma, spent several days last week with relatives in West Chester, Pa.

E. E. Hudson continues to slowly improve.

Mrs. Paul E. Titsworth is visiting her sister in Plainfield, N. J.

Capt. and Mrs. Blount have been guests of their daughter and son-in-law in Chesapeake City.

Mrs. Harry Turnbull, of Baltimore, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walter Chapman.

James Bramble who has been spending the winter months with his son at Landenburg, Pa., was in town for the week-end. He reports his wife as doing nicely. They will remain at Landenburg until the early summer.

Mrs. John Evans has returned from Tampa, Florida, and is with her daughter, Mrs. Sidney P. Townshend.

Mrs. Thurston Brannam, of Fort Royal, Va., has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. George B. Westcott.

Miss Minnie Massey has returned from Florida and is visiting her brother, E. Thomas Massey, in Massey.

Henry Gill spent a part of last and this week in Baltimore, Washington and Virginia on business.

Mrs. Thomas B. Willson has returned to Baltimore after a ten-day stay with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Skirven.

Mrs. Wm. H. Waddell was removed to the home of her son, Randolph Waddell, one day last week. Since breaking up house keeping three months ago, Mrs. Waddell had been at the home of her mother, Mrs. Laura Needles, where she had received loving and careful attention. Mrs. Alice Hadaway is now nursing her.

Miss Anne Brice Welch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Welch, of Chestertown, took a prominent part as a member of the dance committee for the Southern Dance, recently given as one of the social affairs of the year at Beaver College, Jenkintown, Pa., at which college she is a student. The dance, which was given by members of the Southern Club, was attended by over two hundred persons, the escorts representing nearly every college and university in the East. The Southern Club of thirty members is one of the several students' clubs of the college, and is composed of those whose homes are South of the Mason-Dixon Line. The college is situated in the suburbs of Philadelphia.

Dr. G. I. Humphreys and Rev. G. J. Hooker visited Chestertown on Wednesday.

E. E. Hudson and son, Hope, are convalescent.

J. Samuel Kreeger, the Chestertown Jeweler, is visiting his parents and former home in South Carolina.

Miss Rachel Parrott and Mrs. Kate Ford, of Still Pond, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Rash, last week.

J. W. Bramble, a well-known farmer of near Millington, who had the misfortune to be thrown from a wagon Friday, February 26th, is improving nicely.

Mrs. Anna Willson Uttrich and Maude Willson Miller have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Harry Skirven, the past week.

Robert J. McWhorter, of Delaware, spent the week-end with friends in Kent.

John A. Russell and Mr. and Mrs. Dresden Clayton, of Chester, were guests over Sunday of relatives in town.

DELINQUENT TAX-PAYERS

FOR YAER 1915

Are hereby notified that unless the taxes owing for 1925 are paid on or before April 1, 1926, all properties assessed will be advertised and sold to the highest bidders for cash.

This is positively the last notice to the delinquent tax payer.

GEO. W. SUTTON,
m6-4t Treasurer of Kent Co.

MONEY FOR FARMERS

We make loans to farmers for term of 33 years on easy payment mortgage plan of the FARM LOAN SYSTEM. We charge no COMMISSIONS and we do not require farmers to subscribe to any STOCK.

Loans are made for any farm Purpose or to pay off EXISTING MORTGAGES. If your farm is morteaged why not get the advantages of one of our NEW mortgages that NEVER have to be RENEWED—a long term loan being paid off gradually. Semi-annual payments are fixed in advance and you know exactly what they will be. You need not pay more on principal unless you desire. Remember: NO COMMISSIONS and NO STOCK.

For interesting pamphlet and further information, see or write

WM. FRAZIER RUSSELL, JR.
Chestertown, Md.
or
THE MD.-VA. JOINT STOCK LAND BANK of BALTIMORE
Munsey Bldg., Baltimore, Md.

Thomas W. Eliason, Jr., is confined to his home by grip.

Lawrence G. Brown was given a birthday surprise at his home in Centreville Wednesday night. Quite a delegation from Chestertown were present.

George Brice, of New Jersey, visited Chestertown friends this week. Mr. Brice's supervision of 100 fox hounds and connection with wealthy men of New Jersey gives him an insight into interesting affairs. He says the hounds are fed horse meat, besides other things, and in a year more than 100 horses are eaten. Every farmer on which a fox is found is given a $20 gold piece. This encourages the protection of foxes.

Miss Mary Knight, who has been sick for ten days, is convalescent.

Mrs. W. R. Huey continues sick at her home on Kent Circle.

Mrs. James P. Parrott visited friends in town this week.

Betterton Notes

Charles Conwell had his hand badly bitten by a young dog belonging to H. Caldwell Crew. Dr. L. P. Atwell dressed the wound.

The play entitled "Always In Trouble," given by Locust Grave talent, in the school auditorium last Friday night was enjoyed by a large audience.

Nelson Boone, Mrs. RaymondCrew. Mrs. Friedman and daughter visited Baltimore the past week.

Capt. Thomas E. Brice continues to be quite sick at his home here.

Quite a number of our folks attended the funeral of the late Emory Crouch at Piney Neck. The deceased for a number of years made his home here with his son, Lester Crouch.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Johns held its monthly business and social meeting at the home of Mrs. Lotan Rasin.

Some of our townspeople saw the minstrel show given by the Young Men's Bible Class of Chestertown M. E. Church in Still Pond Hall and report a very good entertainment.

The ladies of the M. E. Church held a very successful bake last Saturday in the stores of Charles Brice and Owens & Co.

W. A. Ottaway, of New York, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith. Mr. Ottaway is associated with New York Canners, Inc., and has been stationed here during the canning season for several years.

Mrs. Harry Meeks has been visiting in Baltimore and Annapolis.

FLOOR WORK WANTED

Hardwood floors layed, scraped and finished, also all kinds of old floor renovated. Phone 807F3 JOHN W. LAWSON, Chestertown, Md. R. R. No. 5. f27

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_22_1-0097