KENT COUNTY FISHERMEN HIT HARD BY THE NEW ABERDEEN ORDER

An order of the U. S. Government has been made public which is particularly hard on Kent county fishermen. This order stops fishing in the waters of the Aberdeen Proving Ground Reservation except at night. The fishermen of Rock Hall and Betterton have been fishing on these grounds and this order is a great hardship.

This order was made public on March 12 and is now in effect. The order says that the public may fish "from 12 noon Saturdays to sunrise Mondays and on National (not State) holidays from one hour after sundown of the preceding day to sunrise on the day following the holiday. Persons fishing in these waters are not permitted to land."

Some of the fishermen have appealed to State's Attorney S. Scott Beck, of Chestertown, to intercede in their behalf and he has already gotten in touch with two Maryland Congressman and the War Department.

It is hoped that the order can be modified so the Kent fishermen can use the waters of the Aberdeen Proving Ground.
