While passing through Davis Hill, a Negro settlement about one mile west of Galena, Mr. Chaires noticed the chimney of a house on fire. He ran into the house to investigate and found the woman lying helpless on the floor. He assisted her to a chair and then ran and extinguished the blaze. The Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company is planning to install a system by which residents of the town will be apprised of the location of a fire immediately following the alarm, without the necessity of being forced to call the telephone exchange. Fire Chief Russell has devised a plan for dividing the town into zones which will be numbered. Following the blast from the siren fire alarm, the fire bell will sound a given number of taps which will indicate the zone in which the fire is located. Printed cards will be placed in every home in the town, giving the public the required information. The plan will be put into effect as soon as the cards are printed.

By action of the board of town commissioners, taken this week, C. H. Eshman, proprietor of the Voshell House, has been granted the right to complete the addition to his hostelry, work on which has been suspended for more than two years. It was claimed by the town board that the foundation of the new structure encrouched on the building line established some years ago, notwithstanding that the space had previously been enclosed by fence and was generally supposed to belong to the hotel property, an agreement has been reached which provides, it is understood, that Mr. Eshman can go ahead.

Public sentiment has been favorable to the completion of the addition and the injunction filed by the Town Council over two years ago has been lifted. It is said the hotel may proceed to construct the improved property at any time.

The deed held by the hotel calls for twelve inches more space than it will use in the erection of the addition. The new survey of the town, however, shows he is on the town and this action of the Board is not to be a precedent.

WHAT IS AN ANNUITY?

An annuity is a form of INCOME INSURANCE, based on the American Experience Table of Mortality, under which the purchaser (the annuitant) is guaranteed a semi-annual income for life in return for a lump payment in money, property or securities.

For purposes of illustration, let us assume that you have, at the age of 65, $15,000 and that this constitutes your sole source of income. If invested in the most careful manner, so as to avoid any danger of loss, the current rate of income will probably not exceed 4% or $600.

This sum is woefully inadequate for the proper support of old age, yet, not knowing how long you will live, you will not feel justified in using any of the principal to piece out your income.

Suppose, however, you invest the $15,000 under the Annuity Plan of Washington College, you will then be paid a regular income of $900 each year for as long as you may live.

The amount which you invest under the Annuity Plan of Washington College is invested in approved securities and held separate from the current funds of the college. This serves as an additional guarantee for your income over and above the $450,000 (a conservative estimate) value of the plant and property of Washington College.

After the death of the annuitant, the sum invested in the annuity is devoted to such use as the annuitant may designate or, if no definite use is designated, to such uses as is deemed best for the upbuilding of Washington College.

Questions are gladly answered

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, Sarah A. Anderson, who departed this life two years ago, March 20th, 1924.

Two years ago you left us,
How we miss your loving face;
A beautiful life is ended,
None on earth can take your place.
More and more each day we miss you
Friends may think the wound is healed,
But they little know the sorrow
That lies within our hearts concealed.

By Her Children.
