RURAL CARRIERS PLANNING CEREMONIAL

An appropriate ceremonial to fittingly observe the establishment of the first rural route on the Eastern Shore at Millington on May 1, 1900, is planned for May 31 by the Kent and Queen Anne's County Rural Letter Carriers' Association.

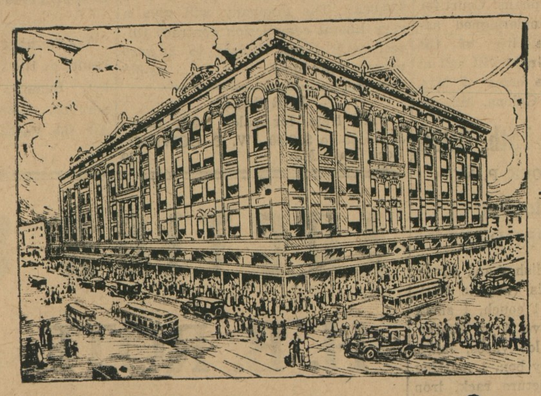

Plans for the event were given impetus at a meeting of this organization in the directors' room of the Centreville National Bank, Wednesday evening of last week. Members of the Association from the two counties were present and voiced the belief that an interesting program could be arranged for the occasion.

Few are aware of the fact that Millington is the home of the Eastern Shore's first rural free delivery route. But official records disclose this to be a fact and it is believed that representatives from every shore county and officials from the United States Postoffice Department will be glad to accept invitations to participate in the ceremonial at Millington.

VERNON SELBY WINS NEW HONORS

When Owen and Vernon Selby, borthers, were youngsters in their teens, Owen, the elder, could tie Vernon into about any knot known to wrestling. Now there are those who doubt that any man his weight can tangle Vernon unduly, and among those who are said to entertain such an opinion is Tom Jenkins, former heavyweight wrestling champion, now coach at West Point.

Tom thinks that this young man, who is the son of Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Selby, of Rock Hall, Md., is about the last word in collegiate mat efficiency. If accomplishments count for anything the Cadet mentor probably isn't far wrong.

Class By Himself.

A year ago Cadet Selby had been considered the finest wrestling product ever turned out at the Military Academy. Now he has added the deeds of another defeatless season to his achievements and stands in a class by himself.

Vernon has just completed his third campaign at West Point. He has yet to lose his first bout at the Point, or for that matter, anywhere else. Three seasons of unbroken success, both in intercollegiate and intramural competition, is said to be a record never before attained by a Cadet matman.

But this Maryland youngster's remarkable feats are not bounded by the limits of his West Point experience.

Four years in two Maryland prep schools saw Vernon encounter and conquer the most formidable schoolboy matmen of this State. He never failed to win the schoolboy championship of the State, never knew what it means to suffer defeat in practice bout, intramural elimination or dual meet.

Among the men defeated by Selby in West Point dual meets the past winter were Schenk, of Franklin and Marshall; Burrows of Yale; Hall, of Toronto University; Wilson, of Virginia Military Institute; Bruder of Springfield Training College, and Oliphant, of Columbia.

The conquest of Bruder was quite a feat, since the latter, captain of this well-known athletic training school, was rated the leading 135-pound amateur in the New England States.
