HIGH SCHOOL PLAY DRAWS LARGE AUDIENCE

The annual class play by the seniors of the Chestertown High School was presented in the Lyceum Theatre Tuesday night, and despite the unfavorable weather, drew a crowded house. The play, entitled "The Girl From Upper 7" was a typical western story depicting the discomforting experience of elite eastern city visitors to the home of their uncouth western cousins. The characters were unusually well portrayed reflecting much credit to participants and directors. The cast of characters follows:

Rev. John Blake, Wm. Allan Robinson.

Francis Hughes, "Acting manager of the W. R. & C. R. R., George Turner.

Edward Fielding, From the East employed in the office of the W. R. &. C., Marion Sutton.

Douglas Mason, Lusby Moffett.

Steven Malone, "Manager of Lower 7 Ranch," Harold Williams.

Ezra Simpson, "In Malone's Employ," Nelson Leverage.

Jonah Hawkins, "Sheriff of Sedhill County," Charles Willis.

Noah Hawkins, Frank Fowler.

Fitzhugh Montmerry, Loveland, Ellsworth Estes.

Tom McShane, Nelson Townsend.

Rose Hawkins, Mary Hawkins, Jonah's daughters, Frances Clements, Rowena Woods.

Fawn—No—Fraid, Clara Mathews.

Mrs. Susan Brent, "Mason's Aunt" Elizabeth Carter.

Octovia Brent, Genevieve Brent, Her daughters, Helen Townsend, Evelyn Brown.

Flossie Mason, Muriel Lee, Irene Gordon, Octavia's friends, Catherine Urie, Catherine Wheeler, Georgianna Robinson.

Fleurette, "Mrs. Brent's Maid," Anne Bonwill.

Genie McShane, Julia Williams.

MRS. BASSETT ALWAYS TIRED

Now in Good Health by Using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lansing, Michigan.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound whenever I needed it. When I first used it I was so bad I could hardly walk across the room without crying. I was tired all the time. I think my trouble was coming on me for six months before I realized it. I read of your wonderful medicine in the paper, and * * * my husband bought me a bottle, and after the first few doses I felt better, so kept on taking it until I was well and strong. I take it at times when I feel tired and it helps me. I will always have a good word for your medicine and tell anyone what good it has done me. I recommended it to my neighbor for her girl, who is sixteen years old, and it was just what she needed. She is feeling fine now, and goes to school every day."—Mrs. E. F. Bassett, 216 South Hayford Avenue, Lansing, Michigan.

Do not continue to feel all run-down and half sick when Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is sold by druggists everywhere. It is a root and herb medicine and has been used by women for over fifty years.

IN MEMORIAM

In remembrance of dear wife, Mary E. Dolan, who died 11 years ago April 8, 1926.

As we stood beside your bedside and saw your life depart,
And when we knew that you were dead it nearly broke our hearts,
Upright and beautiful in all her ways.
Wonderful character to the end of her days.
A loving mother true and kind,
What a beautiful memory she left behind,
'Tis sweet to be remembered
And always bear in mind,
You are gone but not forgotten, by your husband and children, James Dolan.

Citizen's Training Camp

Chaplain J. Monroe Stick and Captain C. C. Westfall, U. S. Army, made a tour of Kent county this week in the interest of the Citizens' Military Training Camp to be held at Fort Eustis, Va., from July 8th to August 6th, 1926.

These camps have been going on for the past six years and from the standpoint of publicity, the Eastern Shore Counties have been neglected. Consequently our young men have not been taking advantage of the excellent opportunity that has been theirs, and other parts of the State have been filling up our place in the camp.

The quota for Kent county is but five young men. Chestertown should furnish that many alone. This is an opportunity that should not be neglected by the young men of this community. Enrollment in the camp is in no way an enlistment in the service, and obligates one in no way to present or future service in the Army. All expenses including fare both ways, board, lodging, shoes and uniforms, laundry and medical attention are furnished by the Government. Rivers W. Leonard, Col. U. S. A., retired, is the representative for Kent county, and would be glad to furnish any information upon request or write to either of the above named officers at Room 432 Hearst Tower Building, Baltimore, Md.

Give your pipe a chance!

SOME pipes were "born with two strikes on 'em." Just never had a chance to offer their best. You can judge your pipe only by the tobacco you put in it. If you haven't smoked P. A., your pipe hasn't had its chance. To those men who know the keenest pipe-enjoyment, Prince Albert stands out like a beacon of cheer on a moonless night.

Prince Albert has put pipes into the mouths of more men than any other tobacco that ever came down the pike . . . and has kept them there! Because no other tobacco is like P. A. Cool and fragrant as mountain air murmuring through the pines. Sweet as the breath of spring.

P. A. won't bite your tongue or parch your throat, because the Prince Albert process cut out bite and parch right at the outset of P. A.'s brilliant career. This means that you can hit it up with your jimmy-pipe and P. A. from the minute breakfast is over until you nestle down between the sheets at night. You not only can, but will!

If you're looking for proof, you needn't search beyond the nearest shop where they hand out smoke-gladness in tidy red tins marked "Prince Albert." Give your pipe a chance. Pack it with P. A. and light up. That first wonderful pull will tell you P. A. was simply made-to-order for you!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.
