New Way To Have A Colored Preacher Move

Rev. J. E. Manuel has served the colored people of Butlertown for five years and goes to conference next Monday. There is some opposition to his returning and in order to make sure of this they are charged with resorting to desperate methods. One night recently while the parson and wife were sitting in their home a pistol shot rang out and the bullet struck the jam of the door which leads to the room which they occupied. The bullet was found buried in the wood.

Rev. Manuel looked out and could recognize several of the men outside. Early next morning he went to the home of Holland Wye and accused him of being in the crowd. He first denied the accusation but afterward told his story and blamed it on Vernon Wye, a cousin. Leonard Brown was also recognized as being one of the crowd. Brown and Wye have been arrested and are in jail but Vernon Wye, who is charged with having done the shooting is at large.

There has been considerable complaint of bad conduct near Mr. Lynch's store in Butlertown and the preacher has tried to correct it by precept and example. For this reason he has incurred the ill will of some of the residents and they want him discontinued as pastor.

Such conduct cannot go unpunished and it is hoped the authorities will investigate thoroughly this affair.

THE CHESTERTOWN ROTARY CLUB BORN

A new Rotary Club was officially born in Chestertown on Thursday night. The occasion was fittingly celebrated by a banquet at the Washington College Gymnasium when about 100 Rotarians were present from Easton, Elkton, Pocomoke City. Chestertown and elsewhere. The charter from the International Rotary was presented by President Sam Shanahan, of Easton. in a splendid address. Mr. Shanahan also had charge of the evening's program in the absence of the district governor. The charter was accepted for the Chestertown Rotary Club by Dr. Paul E. Titsworth, the president of the Chestertown Rotary in a fine address in which he emphasized the Rotary motto—"Service Above Self" and "He Profits Most Who Serves Best."

The Easton Rotary Club by Norman Jefferson presented the Chestertown Club with a beautiful bell and gavel.

The singing was a feature of the evening being lead by Chorister Gillespie, of Elkton.

Greetings were voiced by Dr. Baldwin. of Easton Club; John Terrell, of Elkton, and Edw. J. Clarke, of Pocomoke City Club.

The Chestertown Orchestra under the direction of Prof. Roy Woodland furnished charming music.

The menu was most temptingly served under the direction of Manager King. Commissary of Washington College was as follows: Ox Tail Soup, Saltines, Pickles. Roast Chicken, Dressing, Smithfield Ham, Mashed Potatoes, Asparagus Tips, Hot Rolls, Coffee, Ice Cream, Wafers, Cigars, Cigarettes.

The waitresses bewitchingly attired in white were the young ladies of the Triangle Club of Chestertown M. P. Church.

The charter memebrs of The Chestertown Rotary Culb are: R. H. Collins, Jr., C. L. Dodd, Dr. J. P. Franklin, H. B. Hudson, W. R. Huey, H. F. Jefferson, C. C. Jones, C. W. Kibler, Jr., J. G. Metcalfe, W. P. Newnam, C. E. Noland. Albertos Perry, H. S. Russell. A. F. Shure, Dr. H. G. Simpers, M. deK. Smith, Jr., D. F. Stam, P. E. Titsworth, A. S. Turner, Jr., W. B. Usilton. W. B. Wilmer,

The officers are: Paul E. Titsworth, President; Marion deK. Smith, Vice-President; W. Robert Huey, Secretary-Treasurer; Richard H. Collins. Jr., Segt-at-Arms.

The directors are: Paul E. Titsworth, Marion deK. Smith, W. Robt. Huey, Richard H. Collins. Jr.. Harry F. Jefferson, Austin F. Shure. Wm. B. Usilton.

KU KLUX KLAN MAKE ANOTHER RAID IN KENT

Near midnight Wednesday Sheriff Goodman received a telephone message to come to the upper part of Kent and he would be met by friends. Therefore, the Sheriff with Deputy Lee started out, and when near the cemetery at Lambson's Station, met about 64 Ku Kluxers. They piloted the officers down the State road to John Phillips' place where they visited and found plenty of evidence. There were 5 stills found in two small outhouses besides 400 gallons of mash and 8 barrels of raw product.

Harry Scott and Ella Warwick, both colored, were just leaving the place having made a purchase of rum. They were held as witnesses and John Philips was paced under arrest and brought to Chestertown jail. Mrs. Phillips had an invalid child and for this reason was not brought to jail. There was one other small child in the home.

When the men rapped on the door Phillips appeared with a pistol but seeing the crowd soon put it in his pocket and made but little resistance. Some thought he had been drinking.

A DELIGHTFUL MUSICAL

Miss Louise B. Russell, teacher of music at Washington College, presented her annual musicale in William Smith Hall last Friday evening before an appreciative audience. Every member showed artistic skill and talent. It also proved the fitness of the teacher for the place she occupies. The home talent included besides Miss Russell, Misses Elizabeth Covey, Elizabeth Culp, Louise Simpers. Theodosia Chapman, Margaret Russell, Kathryn Smith, of Fairlee. and Miss Sarah Revelle, of Rock Hall. Miss Alma Metcalfe, violin, Miss Winifred Hudson, cello. and Miss Loretta Lee, soprano, were from the Peabody Institute, Baltimore. It would be difficult to find three musicians whose selections were more pleasing, whose renditions were more skillful and full of that graceful rhythm which only apt and talented students can portray. The whole program was like a spring zephyr coming to our midst after a winter of chilling winds and ice to bring cheer and gladness.
