DRIVE THROUGH FIRE. TRUCK, CONTENTS BURNED

Edward Brady, of Piney Neck, was the victim of a pecular accident on Tuesday afternoon, which caused him serious financial loss. He was moving his household goods from his former home to Chestertown in a large truck and at the intersection of the State road with another road he encountered a brush fire which workmen had started. Mr. Brady, as he thought, drove through the burning brush without trouble, and had proceeded up the road for distance of 100 yards when he happened to look back and discovered the entire load of goods on fire, having caught evidently from a spark from the burning brush. The goods were destroyed and the truck was badly scorched but he succeeded in saving it from destruction. Mr. Brady's loss is about $600.

GRAND JURY REPORT

To the Honorable Judges of the Circuit Court for Kent County, State of Maryland:

The Grand Inquest of the State of Maryland for Kent County. having concluded its labors, most respectfully begs leave to submit its report:

After organizing by selecting Carl N. Bordley secretary and M. A. Toulson and Frank A. Roeder, assistants, proceeded at once upon the duties imposed upon us endeavoring to perform the same in an impartial and correct manner.

We have examined 51 witnesses. brought in 49 presentments and found 48 true bills of indictment.

The jail was visited and 41 inmates found. The needs of the jail have been brought to the attention of the Court before so that we will be content in reiterating the importance of improved conditions as soon as possible.

We view with regret our inability to learn the source of supply of the liquor that comes into Chestertown weekly. There were a dozen or more cases of violations of the local option law but we failed to find anyone who would divulge from whence they got their supply.

There seems to be considerable Jamacia Ginger sold at various stores and we would warn these merchants against further sales.

We wish to extend our thanks to the Court, Clerk of the Court, State's Attorney, Sheriff. Town Officers and all other officers for their courtesy to our demands and for their promptness in expediting the business in hand.

Respectfully submitted,
FRED. G. USILTON,
Foreman.

Thursday, April 22nd.

State vs. Oscar Johnson for selling liquor. Court trial. Verdict guilty. $25 and costs or 30 days in jail.

State vs. Leonard Houston for selling liquor. Court trial. Verdict guilty. $200 and costs or 6 months in House of Correction.

State vs. Hennie Houston for selling liquor. Court trial. Verdict guilty. $25 and costs or 30 days in jail.

State vs. Henry Johnson for larceny of horse and carriage. Verdict not guilty.

State vs. Sam Tiller for larceny of revolver from Paul Comegys. Plea and verdict guilty Sentenced to 6 months in House of Correction.

State vs. Howard Lewis for larceny of clothing from Mrs. Ida Jones Guilty. Sentenced to 3 months in House of Correction.

State vs. Howard Lewis for breaking jail. Verdict not guilty.

Court adjourned until 9.30 Friday.

Friday, April 23rd

Case vs. Albert Savington charged with non-support of three children. Court trial. Verdict guilty and ordered to pay $6 per week for a year and to give a bond for $300.

State vs. Wm. T. Murray charged with having sold liquor on two occasions. Plea and verdict guilty. Pay a fine of $200 and costs or three months in House of Correction. On second case sentence was suspended.

State vs. Edw. Murray charged with selling liquor. Plea and verdict guilty. Fined $25 and costs or 30 days in jail.

State vs. Mrs. John Phillips charged with selling liquor on two occasions. Plea and verdict guilty. The Court's attention was called by the State's Attorney to the fact that five stills and barrels of mash were found at the home of Mrs. Phillips. Fined $300 and costs or four months in House of Correction. In the second case sentence was suspended.

State vs. Wilbur Russell for carnal knowledge of a minor. Plea and verdict guilty.

State vs. John and Ethel Parks charged with maintaining a public nuisance in Skinner's Neck, near Rock Hall. Jury trial. On trial at time of going to press.

Court will likely finish its labors early next week.

The Court has reappointed J. F. Wheatley, Thomas W. Perkins and J. Raymond Simpers as auditing committee.

What will you get out of it?

THAT'S always in our minds at this store. We know that people like to see a business prosper that considers the customer's return.

If we can get that idea over to you; and if you find that this is that kind of a store, we'll never have to be anxious about our success in it.

CHESTERTOWN, MD

HAND OF DEATH

Wm. P. Newnam, of Chestertown, was called to Talbot county, this week by the death of his father who passed away on Wednesday. The funeral took place yesterday.

The funeral of Joshua R. Jarrel, well-known resident of Still Pond, was held in Still Pond M. E. Church Tuesday, April 20th at 3 o'clock, the pastor, E. H. Clark, officiated. Rev. E. H. Collins, former pastor and a friend, delivered the sermon. The well-filled church and the beautiful flowers from friends and relatives were a fitting token of the esteem in which the deceased was held. Before the funeral party left the home Rev. Mr. Collins in his characteristically sympathetic way asked the blessing of God upon the home and upon Mrs. Jarrell, who was confined to her bed, and unable to attend the services of the church. Mr. Jarrell had just passed his 79th year. Fifty-six years ago he married Miss Emma Cornelius, of their nine children, three survive: Hettie, of New York, Oscar, of Boston, and Fred, of Kennedyville. Interment in Still Pond Cemetery. Six nephews from Caroline county acted as pall bearers.

James E. Marshall, a patient the past two years at Cambridge Hospital, died there Saturday of facial erysipelas. The deceased was about 60 years old and had come to lower Kent from Pennsylvania when a young man. He was a member of Rock Hall Wigwam of Red Men, one of whose number James T. Taylor, had the remains brought to Thomas H. Casey's undertaking establishment, from which place they were taken to Piney Neck M. E. Church where services were conducted at 3 o'clock Sunday by the pastor, Rev. T. S. Barrett. and interment made in Piney Neck Cemetery. The Red Men's burial rites were observed at the grave. The bearers were members of that order: Sterling Crouch, Melvin Warner, Wilbur Joiner, Raymond Hersch, Edgar Glenn, Frank Jacob.

Vaughn Matthews died Saturday, April 17th, 1926, at the home of his son, George Matthews, in Baltimore, aged about 76 years. The deceased formerly lived at Rock Hall where his wife died several years ago. He leaves another son, Frank Matthews, and two daughters, Mrs. Bliss Somers, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Charles Thomas, of Rock Hall. The deceased was brought Tuesday to the home of Capt. Thomas and funeral services were held at Rock Hall M. E. Church at 2 o'clock Wednesday, the pastor, Rev. W. H. Revelle, officiating. Interment at Wesley Chapel Cemetery. Thomas H. Casey, undertaker.

James W. Deringer died at his home at Spangler, Pa., on April 19. He was a son of Woodland and Florence Hurtt Deringer. He leaves a widow and one child, and five brothers, B. W. Deringer, Douglas M. Deringer. Bronough Deringer, and Clifton H. Deringer and A. Sidney Deringer. He was a nephew of Mrs. Alice A. Deringer, of Chestertown. The remains were brought to Chestertown Thursday and rested at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Alice Deringer. The funeral and interment was held at Shrewsbury on Thursday last. Rev. Mr. Lewis officiated. The bearers were his four brothers and Duncan and Lieut. Harry Deringer.
