LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

A collision between Cody Loud's car and Maxwell Meek's car occurred near Chestertown Thursday night. Mrs. Meeks and Miss Parr were somewhat injured.

* * *

The Old Line Construction Company, of Chestertown, were low bidders on 2.30 miles of road in Delaware last week. The contract is from Gum Cross Roads—Laurel and the bid was $19,365.

* * *

Work has been started on the new semi-bungalow near Sudlersville, belonging to Mrs. W. W. Rambo and when completed will be one of the most modern bungalows in the First District, of Queen Anne's.

* * *

Poultry thieves have become active in various sections of the town. On Satuday evening between 8 and 10 o'clock, a thief raided the hen roost at the home of George W. Rash on Washington avenue and stole a dozen of his Plymouth Rock hens and a rooster, leaving the heads scattered over the poultry yard. Some nights ago a similar number of fine hens were stolen from Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence G. Brown.

* * *

J. W. Kirby is shingling his elegant home on Maple avenue on the outside. The Pennington Construction Company is doing the work.

* * *

The Town Relief Society met at the home of Mrs. James W. Kirby on Thursday evening.

A large delegation of citizens of Chestertown and Millington appeared before the County Commissioners on Tuesday and requested that an appropriation of $500 each, be granted toward the maintenance of the Volunteer Fire Companies of both towns, the same to be provided for in the annual tax levy.

* * *

The jury in the Joseph Walters case returned a verdict in her favor last Friday evening. The case will now be carried to the Court of Appeals. The case involves the right of the widow of the late Joseph Walters to claim the proceeds of an insurance policy carried on the life of the husband by his employer, Robert G. Nicholson.

* * *

Washington Jester, until recently engineer on the Pennsylvania passenger trains running between Chestertown and Massey, through his attorney, Wm. Frazier Russell, Jr., filed a suit in the Wilmington courts this week for $50,000 damages for the death of the ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jester, last winter, on the streets of that city. The lad was coasting on one of the thoroughfares and had reached an intersection of streets when he was struck by a large coal truck belonging to the Perry Coal Company, and driven by Joel Clements, an employee of the company, a former resident of Crumpton, near Chetsertown, and almost instantly killed. Until several weeks ago, Mr. and Mrs. Jester resided in Chestertown having returned to Wilmington, where he is in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

The Victory Sparkler Company has forty ladies and girls employed at the Chestertown plant.

* * *

B. L. Bonnett, of Chestertonw, will start a Spring festival and super sale Wednesday, May 12 and will run for 15 days. Scores of startling values have been planned as a surprise for you. Mr. Bonnett has established a reputation here for courteous treatment. Read his page adv. in this issue.

* * *

Watch for "Melody Land," Chestertown's big show May 17, 18, 19. Benefit Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company. Cast of 150.

* * *

A clinic for diseases of the chest will be conducted in The Health Centre, Chestertown, Monday, May 10th, at 10.30 a. m.

* * *

According to Barry & Barry. of Baltimore, Fox Field Representatives, whose exclusive filming of the recent Eastern Shore of Maryland polo game was accomplished last Saturday, the newsreel was released this week by the New York office and is being shown throughout the country. In Baltimore the Century, Rivoli and other theatres show Fox newsreels.

* * *

Miss Ruth G. Taylor, of Baltimore, has been appointed public health nurse by the Kent County Health Association. She will enter upon her duties next Monday, May 10th.

* * *

Dr. W. O. Selby, of Rock Hall, has been named Health Officer for Kent County for the next two years succeeding Dr. Merritt Brice, of Millington.

The fifth annual interscholastic Championship Track and Field Meet will be held at Washington College Saturday, May 22. These meets have grown each year in popularity and there is expected a record number of contestants. All the High Schools of the Eastern Shore of Maryland and Virginia are expecting to take part.

* * *

The Commissioners of Chestertown re-elected all the officers at their annual meeting Monday as follows: Mayor, Chas. N. Satterfield; Secretary-Treasurer, James W. Crouch; Attorney, Herbert E. Perkins; Officers, Samuel E. Cooper and Rufus Collins; teamsters, Charles Miller and Edw. Kennard. The other two commissioners are John W. Barnes and George W. French.

* * *

At the school election held in Harrington Saturday afternoon, Mrs. John Masten becomes the first woman member of the Harrington School Board. Fred S. Bailey was also re-elected. The school board is now composed of Fred S. Bailey, L. G. Markert and Mrs. John Masten, with Prof. Von Borenstein as secretary. Mrs. Masten will be remembered in Chestertown as Miss Iris Anthony, a sister to Mrs. Wm. H. Elliott.

PERSONAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. J. Merkel and Mr. and Mrs. Mason C. Willis, of Philadelphia, visited Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Willis, near Worton, over the week-end.

J. B. McIntire has been quite sick the past week.

Webster McIntire was operated on at Mercy Hospital, Baltimore, last Thursday. His wife has been spending the week with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman McFarlan and daughter, Frances, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arlington L. Sparks.

Miss Sue B. Ford is the guest of friends in New York City.

Mrs. Fay Gaffney and Miss Blanche Gaffney, of Columbus, Ga., have been guests of Mr. and Mrrs. Merrick Clements the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Allie Perkins and children, of Landsdowne, Pa., were week-end guests of the latter's sister and brothers.

Mrs. Helen Bowers who has been chief operator at the local telephone exchange for the past eight years has resigned and will be succeeded by Miss Coulbourne, of Easton. Mrs. Bowers has been one of the most courteous and obliging officials, and will still be employed as one of the operators.

L. B. Russell, Jr., left Wednesday morning for Loudenville, Ohio, from which point he will drive home a new Buick funeral coach. He was acommpanied by his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rambo and little daughter, Lillian Frances, of Sudlersville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Roeder, near Kennedyville.

Dr. Berta Whaland, a prominent physician, of Bridgeton, N. J., is the guest of her aunts, Misses Anna and Helen Welch.

Mrs. Carrie Ways, of Philadelphia, visited her daughter, Mrs. Leonard C. Needles, the first of the week.

Mrs. G. C. Rote went to Philadelphia on Monday to consult a specialist.

J. S. Kreeger attended the Maryland and Delaware Retail Jeweler's Association Convention held at Frederick.

Miss Virginia Parks, of Sabillasville, Md., is spending a few days in town with her grandmother, Mrs. R. F. Parks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McLauhlin, have moved to Cannon street.

Edgar Chaires was operated on at Easton Hospital on Monday.

Dr. H. C. Hughes attended the State Dental Association in Baltimore on Monday.

Miss C. R. Walker, of St. Louis, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Beck.

Mrs. Raymond Bowers returned home from the hospital on Saturday last.

Wm. Oglesby, of Chestertown, Md. sailed from Baltimore, Friday, April 30th, on the S. S. "Gloucester" of the Merchants and Miners Line enroute to Jacksonville, Florida.

Miss Stephanie Ford, of Denton spent the week-end at home.

Mrs. Lawrence Duyer is visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Rote and daughter, Miss Alice, and Miss Martha Trew, motored to Valley Forge. Pa., on Sunday.

Wm. R. Pippin, of Chestertown, is attending the Hotel Men's Convention at Atlantic City this week.

Arthur V. Cloak left Havre de Grace on Tuesday for Durham, N. C., where he has been assigned on the staff of umpires in the Virginia League, at a splendid salary. Mr. Cloak is well known here.

CLASS PLAY

On Friday evening, May 14th, the Freshman Class will produce a play. "The Professor Stubs His Toe," a delightful farce written by Dr. Paul E. Titsworth. The production will be staged in William Smith Hall, at Chestertown.

An 8 to 8 tie was as near as Washington and Loyola could come to deciding supremacy in base ball last Saturday. The game was called at the end of the tenth inning to permit the Loyola team to catch the boat at Tolchester. Jack Carroll was on the mound for the Kibbies and twirled a fine game.

Herbert E. Perkins, Attorney.
ORDER NISI.

Leonard Wilson, Late Treasurer of Kent County, Maryland, versus
Douglas Johnson.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county.
State of Maryland.

Ordered this 30th day of April 1926, that the sale made and reported by Leonard Wilson, late Treasurer of Kent County, in the year 1924, of the real estate described in the aforegoing Report of Sale and assessed to Douglas Johnson for taxes for the year 1923 be ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary be shown on or before the 12th day of July next, provided a copy of this Order be inserted as an advertisement in some newspaper printed and published in Kent county once a week for each of four successive weeks before the 12th day of June. 1926.

LEWIN W. WICKES.
True Copy—Test:
m8-4t ROBERT R. AYRES, Clerk.

Herbert E. Perkins, Attorney.
ORDER NISI.

Leonard Wilson, Late Treasurer of Kent County, Maryland, versus
Annie Ward Heirs.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county
State of Maryland.

Ordered this 30th day of April 1926, that the sale made and reported by Leonard Wilson, late Treasurer of Kent County, in the year 1924, of the real estate described in the aforegoing Report of Sale and assessed to Annie Ward Heirs for taxes for the year 1923 be ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary be shown on or before the 12th day of July next, provided a copy of this Order be inserted as an advertisement in some newspaper printed and published in Kent county once a week for each of four successive weeks before the 12th day of June. 1926.

LEWIN W. WICKES.
True Copy—Test:
m8-4t ROBERT R. AYRES, Clerk.

Herbert E. Perkins, Attorney.
ORDER NISI.

Leonard Wilson, Late Treasurer of Kent County, Maryland, versus
W. Pierce,

In the Circuit Court for Kent county.
State of Maryland.

Ordered this 30th day of April 1926, that the sale made and reported by Leonard Wilson, late Treasurer of Kent County, in the year 1924, of the real estate described in the aforegoing Report of Sale and assessed to W. Pierce for taxes for the year 1923 be ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary be shown on or before the 12th day of July next, provided a copy of this Order be inserted as an advertisement in some newspaper printed and published in Kent county once a week for each of four successive weeks before the 12th day of June. 1926.

LEWIN W. WICKES.
True Copy—Test:
m8-4t ROBERT R. AYRES, Clerk.

Harrison W. Vickers, Attorney.

RATIFICATION NISI

Emory I. Crouch et al
versus
Dora Crouch Hadaway et al

In the Circuit Court for Kent County.
In Equity, No. 2342.

Ordered, this 7th day of May. 1926, by the Circuit Court for Kent County in Equity, that the Auditors Account and report, stated and reported by S. Scott Beck, Auditor, in the above entitled cause be ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary thereof be shown within three weeks from the date the first publication of said notice, viz: May 29th, 1926; provided, a copy of this Order be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Kent county, once in each of two successive weeks before the 24th day of May next.

ROBERT R. AYRES, Clerk
True Copy—Test:
8-2t ROBERT R. AYRES, Clerk

Crumpton M. E. Charge, Rev. Otic P. Jefferson, Pastor.

Crumpton Church. Sunday school at 10.30. Everybody present, please. 7.30 special Mother's Day program Last Sunday evening was "Men's Service." The music was grand and we trust the message was of inspiration to our people, at any rate, the presence of the Holy Spirit was felt. Choir rehearsal at Crumpton every Tuesday evening. Bible discussions and prayer and praise meetings at the Crumpton Church every Thursday evening.

Miss Frances Ruth, one of our home girls, is to have a part in the cast. She will interpret the character known as "Mrs. Hendrick." Barton Hendrick, her husband, is a county friend of the unfortunate professor. Miss Ruth is talented and we are confident that she will be quite a success. Galena should be well represented in William Smith Hall when the curtain rings. We should be interested in Washington College in general and Miss Ruth in particular.

Double Creek on Crumpton Charge Sunday school at 2 p. m.

MILLINGTON LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Selz, of near town, spent the past ten days with relatives in Wheeling, W. Va. They were accompanied by their son Frank Selz, Jr., of Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brice and little Noah Walker, Jr., of Baltimore, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ahern, last week.

Mrs. Maria Bamberger, of near town, was a recent Sunday guest of her son, David L. Bamberger, near Clayton, Del.

Don't forget the meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of Asbury M. E. Church to be held next Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. John Bottomley.

Richard Comegys, of St. John's Collge, Annapolis, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Comegys.

Mrs. C. Bradford Dudley, of Baltimore, visited her cousin, Mrs. Eva C. Sykes, this week.

Mrs. John Wallace, o fnear town, who went to the Emergency Hospital, Easton, on Monday of last week for special treatment, is reported to be getting along very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Slaughter and daughter, Miss Margaret and Mr. and Mrs. Millard Slaughter, of Elkton, visited relatives in town last Sunday.

Mrs. Tilden Starkey and son, of Massey, Mrs. Anor Wooleyhand and son, and Mrs. James D. Moore, of Millington, were guests last Sunday of J. C. Catlin, of Dover.

A supper will be held on Thursday evening, May 20, in the Community Hall, for the benefit of the Community Fire Company.

George S. Everett, of near town, was given a surprise birthday dinner last Sunday, May 2, by his children. Those present were Lewis Everett and family, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Everett and son, Leroy Everett, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Starkey, Miss Sarah Green and Howard Smith, of Sudlersville, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Walter King and daughter, of Massey, Mr. and Mrs. George N. Hyatt and little son, of Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Everett, of Dover, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisher and daughter, of Philadelphia, and Edgar T. Stevens, of Millington. After spending a very pleasant day, the guests departed for their homes wishing Mr. Everett many more happy birthdays.

Charles D. Moore, of Baltimore, visited his brother, James Moore, last week.

The Boy Scouts will hold a bake this Saturday, May 8, in the Community Hall.

Mrs. Ethel C. Moffett is having her home improved with a fresh coat of paint.

Mrs. David L. Bamberger and daughter, Miss Harriett, of near Clayton, were guests last Sunday of relatives in town.

Miss Florence Gale spent the past week-end with Miss Ethel Boyles, of Galena.

Prof. Wm. James Heaps, State Secretary of the P. O. S. of A. delivered a very pleasing address last Sunday morning in Asbury M. E. Church to a large and appreciative audience.

Mrs. Nan Taylor moved on Tuesday of last week from Washington into the Bamberger bungalow.

Miss Florence Comegys returned Sunday to Baltimore after spending several weeks with her mother, Mrs. S. S. Comegys.

Miss Grace Wilkinson, of Wilmington, spent the week-end with her cousin, Miss Ethel Neal, near town.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Wallen and son, Carlton, attended the funeral of the former's uncle, Wm. M. Rutter, which was held last Sunday at Double Creek M. P. Church.

Tomorrow, May 9, will be observed as Mother's Day at Asbury M. E. Church. The Sunday school is preparing a special program under the direction of Miss Carrie Wiest's class to be given at 10 a. m. At 11 a. m. preaching by the pastor, Rev. Frank A. Baker, on the subject "Mother." At 7.30 p. m. Epworth League, leader, Mrs. N. A. Wallen. At 8 p. m. preaching by the pastor. The special feature in the evening service will be a "Mother's Choir" and the evening will be devoted mostly to the singing of the hymns our mothers used to sing.

Still Pond Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jewell and little daughter spent last week-end in Philadelphia. Mrs. Sallie Jewell went as far as Wilmington where she visited her daughter, Mrs. Howard Atwell.

Harry Bedwell, of Philadelphia, visited Mrs. Sallie Parrott this week.

Millard Wilmore is spending some time in Baltimore.

Miss Marion Smith, of Philadelphia, spent last Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Carl Norris.

The Ladies' Aid Society held an interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Wallace Ford on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Medders spent several days this week in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davis and daughter, of Baltimore, spent last week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson.

The regular meeting of Friendship Rebekah Lodge will be held next Thursday evening, May 15.

Gale Rasin who has been quite sick at his home near town is improving.

To-morrow being Mother's Day there will be special service in the Sunday school. Every one is asked to wear a flower.

Massey Notes

Miss Evelyn Spencer, of Kennedyville, is spending some time with Mrs. J. R. Kelley, of near town.

Mrs. Wm. Sparks, of town, is spending some time with her sister of Philadelphia.

Monroe Palmatory, of Bear, Del., spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Palmatory.

Mrs. Ned Holiday, and two children, Margaret and Junior, Bob Mitchell and son, of Wilmington, spent Sunday with Mrs. Margaret Maslin.

Mr. and Mrs. Brhyn Shockley and two children, Mildred Anne and Betty of town, spent the week with his parents, of Goldsboro, Md.

Franklin Daniels, of Jersey City, N. J., is spending some time with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Malsberger.

Mrs. Thomas Luff, of Chestertown, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newnam.

BIG SALE OF GUERNSEYS

Prominent guernsey breeds have consigned twelve young bulls and as many heifers to a sale of pure bred guernseys to be staged at Centreville on May 11. The management and organization of the sale are in the hands of Oliver C. Jones, former county agent in Queen Anne's county. Maryland.

A-Golfing, A-Motoring, A-Field Wear Knickers

The smart knickers this year are full cut—in homespuns and cheviots, greys and tans with figured patterns — diamonds, checks and plaids and herringbones.

6.00 to 7.50

Linen knickers in plain white, checks, diamond weaves and plaids.

4.00 to 5.50

GOLF HOSE, in many striking and novel patterns.

Domestic Hose	50c to $2.50
Imported Hose	$2.50 to $7.50

Straw Hats

THE WIDE BRIM'S THE THING THIS YEAR

Very rakish wide brim — medium crown, jaunty colored bands—these are the high lights of style this year.

Made by the most skilled craftsmen of America.

BRIGHMAN HOPKINS & CO.

Select Italian-grown barid, bleached by the Mediterranean sun to a beautiful oriental pearl shade. No chemical bleach used. Looks better, resists moisture and dust, holds its shade longer. Hand filled edges. Air cushion, genuine leather sweat bands

2.50 to 4.00

White Shirts of Broadcloth

IMPORTED FROM ENGLAND

1.50 to 2.00

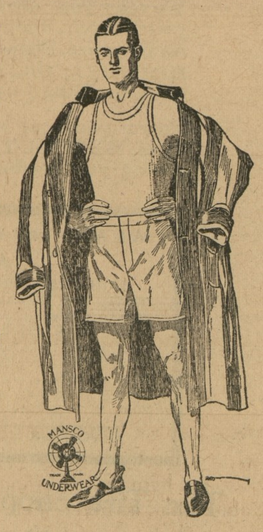

Neckband or Collar Attached

Made of fine English loomings, extraordinarily durable and with a silken lustre that withstands tubbing and wearing. Cut with well formed shoulders, full length and finished in the custom manner. The collar attached shorts have barrel cuffs. Neckband styles in plain white. Collar attached, in white, tan blue and gray.

Athletic Union Suits

Of Madras, checked nainsook, handkerchief cloth or knit.

Cool, long wearing, ribbed back, band or side opening. Pearl buttons, cut full and on pattern that prevents bunching or pulling, in the following nationally known makes.

MANSCO, made by the makers of Manhattan Shorts $1.00 and $1.50

Munsingwear $1.00 and $7.00

Rocking Chair . $1.00 and $1.50

B. V. D. $1.50

BORDLEY & SON

Chestertown, Maryland.

Now Buy the New Engine for Your Boat

I have the largest stock in Maryland of the famous Fisherman Engine 5, 10, 20, 25 h. p.

E. M. Milbourne, Crisfield, Md.

WHITE HELP WANTED

IN CHESTERTOWN

150 Women and Girls To Start Work At Once

PLEASANT WORK. GOOD PAY.

CAN ALSO USE 50 YOUNG MEN AND BOYS

APPLY IN PERSON AT MILL, W. MILL STREET OR WRITE

H. F. JEFFERSON, President.

Chestertown Business Men's Association

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_22_1-0179