Wesley Chapel of Kent invites you to her services this Sunday in commemoration of Mother's Day. A special program has been arranged consisting of recitations and songs. Rev. C. Dawson will deliver a short address, "God, Mother and Home." Wesley, Kesley and Raum invite you to this worship. Other services as usual. Mothers bring your children; children your mothers. A welcome awaits you all.

Bond M. E. Church, J. Irwin Barrett, pastor. Sunday school at 10 a. m. and regular worship at 11 a. m. This is Mother's Day! A large congregation would be a fitting tribute to her and an inspiration to the pastor. I suggest that the part of my congregation who help to make up that "vast invisible audience" neglect the radio for a day and seek their usual places in church. Come out and enjoy the hour of spiritual fellowship with man and Gad. It will richly repay you. We need all of you to make an inspirational congregation. Will you not help us? Epworth League at 7.30 p. m.

Mowbray Chapel, J. Irwin Barrett, pastor. Sunday school at 2.30 p. m. We need the adults to make a successful Sunday school. Please come out. Regular worship at 7.30 p. m. It is Mother's Day. Honor her by your presence at church. The life suggestions of Dr. Jones are fresh in our minds. Let's carry them out and make Mowbray Chapel a real power in the Kingdom of God. It all depends on you individually.

K. K. K. ATTEND CHURCH

On Sunday evening, April 18, a large number of K. K. K.'s from various sections of Kent and Cecil counties assembled in Elkton, and in a body attended service at the M. E. Church, when the pastor, Rev. Mr. Harris, preached a most inspiring and helpful sermon, not only to the Order, but to the Christian and non-Christian as well. Text, Ephisians 6-11.

It was a most thrilling scene to witness the assembling of about one hundred and fifty Klansmen and Klanswomen in white robes and fully half that number in citizens clothes.

A cordial invitation was extended the Order by Rev. Mr. Sharp, of Bethel, to assemble at his church for service, in the near future.

This invitation being about the fifth invitation extended the Order by the various churches of Cecil county.
