Rock Hall Notes

Thomas Judefind, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Judefind, suffered a compound fracture of a thumb while playing ball Thursday. He was treated at Easton and is now home.

We hear that the "Antis" have finally persuaded Robert Shallcross to offer himself as a candidate for clerk after searching vainly for some one else. Too bad, Bob, to leave your old friends.

LeRoy Jacquette who got caught in the machinery of his power saw Monday morning along the State road not long after leaving home and was found by neighbors, is doing nicely. Kent was suffering from a sprained ankle and elbow and bruised about the body.

The "Ocean View" steamer is trying to make arrangements for a truck to carry goods from Queenstown to Centreville. The Rock Hall business is well covered by ferries.

Mrs. Thomas Willson who was a member of the Christian Herald party to the Holy Land recently has delighted the audiences at Wesley Chapel recently with interesting talks.

Our boys and girls had a grand day at the school rally Monday and brought home scores of medals.

Frank Cappa, tenant on Nelson Stevens farm on the Island, had a new Ford touring car stolen by a couple of laborers from Baltimore. They supplied the car with markers from another car and cut its tires, cut telephone lines and appropriated several cans of gasoline. The car was recovered from the streets of Wilmington but the men were not apprehended.

The little grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Bradley, of Swan Creek, broke a leg several days ago and was taken to a Baltimore hospital.

Mr. Crabbe, of the Anti-Saloon League made an address here recently and is very unhappy over conditions.

FOUR DELICIOUS CAKES FROM FOUR CORNERS OF THE UNITED STATES

(Ed. Note: This is one of a special series of articles contributed by 6 Famous Cooks. Their recipes are "different." Cut them out and paste them in your cook book.)

Who ever heard of a family without at least one "cake-eating" member? It's pretty certain that such a household doesn't exist. Usually there are several folks clamoring for cake and more cake. It's the one food which seldom has "left-overs."

MARGARET ALLEN HALL

It's also one of the foods which can be made just as rich or just as plain as the cook wants to make it.

For the Chocolate Fans

Rich Devil's Food Cake with Laplander frosting is a cake which appeals especially to those who like chocolate. Miss Margaret Allen Hall, nutrition expert at the Battle Creek College of Home Economics, gives this as her favorite recipe:

½ cup butter
2 cups sugar
1 cup milk
4 eggs
2 cups flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup chopped nuts
2 squares chocolate.

Cream the butter with one cup of sugar. Beat egg yolks, add the other cup sugar, beat until creamy. Combine the two mixtures. Sift baking powder with flour and add to creamed mixture alternately with the milk. Add melted chocolate and nuts, and fold in egg whites. Bake in deep pan, or in layers. Cover with Laplander frosting.

Laplander Frosting

1 egg
1 cup sugar
2 squares chocolate cut fine
3 tablespoons milk
2 tablespoons butter
½ teaspoon vanilla

Beat the egg, add milk, butter, sugar and chocolate. Cook slowly over flame, stirring constantly. When mixture comes to a boil, remove from fire, add vanilla and beat until thick enough to spread.

For the Children

Mrs. Sarah Tyson Rorer, the Philadelphia cooking expert, has an excellent recipe for a soft molasses cake. "Give the children as much as they want," says Mrs. Rorer. "It's wholesome and nourishing."

Here is Mrs. Rorer's recipe: Dissolve one teaspoonful of baking soda in two tablespoonfuls of warm water. Add one cupful New Orleans molasses, a quarter of a pound of melted butter, one cupful of boiling water, and one tablespoonful of ground ginger. Add three cupfuls of pastry flour and beat until smooth. Bake in a shallow pan on upper rack in a medium oven for about 30 minutes.

This may be served with whipped cream as a delicious dessert.

Use Bananas, Too

Bananas flavor this delicious cake recommended by Mrs. Kate Brew Vaughn, Los Angeles cooking expert. The ingredients are:

1½ cups sugar
½ cup shortening
2 eggs
1 cup mashed bananas
4 tablespoons sour milk
1 teaspoon soda
1¾ cups flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup chopped walnut meats

Is cake baking really difficult?

"Not when you have the right stove," say six famous cooks.

There is no reason why cake-making should be less successful than any other cooking operation—when the cook can depend upon her stove.

THAT is the statement of six famous cooks who have just completed a practical cooking test of the Perfection Stove. All six agreed in praising the Perfection highly for its baking ability, as well as for its general performance.

"Speaking of cakes, half the making is in the baking," said Miss Rosa Michaelis, New Orleans, domestic science specialist.

Delicate Angel Food

"An even temperature must be maintained while an angel food and other cakes are baking," added Miss Margaret A. Hall, nutrition expert of the Battle Creek College of Home Economics. "When I baked cakes in the Perfection oven I used a standard, portable oven thermometer as a check. The flame did not creep or crawl. You can depend on the Perfection flame to remain as you set it."

"My orange cakes and devil's foods were delicious," commented Mrs. Kate B. Vaughn, Los Angeles, household economics director. "The air circulation in the Perfection oven seems perfect. All excess moisture was carried away."

"It's the 'live heat' of the Perfection Oven which brings such good results," said Mrs. Rorer, famous Philadelphia cook.

"The Perfection oven is so roomy that there is room for several cakes at a time," said Mrs. Belle DeGraf, San Francisco. "And, through the glass door of the oven you can see just how they are baking. No need to open the door and lose any heat."

Miss Lucy G. Allen, of the Boston School of Cookery, commented on the visible oil supply. "You can see," she remarked, "whether you have enough for your cooking. If not, it's easy to refill the Perfection reservoir without soiling your hands."

High Praise

These are just a few of Perfection's good baking points which the six expert cooks praised highly. You will find many others when you bake on a Perfection. It's the stove which proves cake-baking is not difficult.
