CHILDREN'S DAY PROGRAM

The annual Children's Day exercises of the M. E. Church were held Sunday with appropriate ceremonies. A song by the entire school opened the interesting affair, after which Jean Cooper and Margaret Ann Dukes welcomed the guests in the name of the school. The speeches of the little tots were well received. Ellen Bordley then gave a recitation as did also Owen Anderson. There was a song by the junior boys and another recitation by Louis Hess. Maynard Porter and Grace Derrick also spoke.

A pageant, "Pierrot Lights the Torch," was given and a song by five little girls followed. A daisy drill was given by the following little girls: Christine Clark, Martha Speicher, Elizabeth Baldwin, Miriam Newcomb, Myrtle Hadaway, Betty Hess, Eleanor Barwick, Florence Crew, Phyllis Greenwood, Anna Bland, Helen Benjamin, Doris Patrick and Martha Taylor.

A song by the primary school completed the exercises. Mrs. John N Bennett was in charge of the entertainment and coached the children for the eventful occasions.

The collection was $62.80. This amount is used toward educating worth young men for the ministry.
