ORGANIZATION TICKET IS COMPLETE

Completion of the Democratic State Organization ticket, headed by Governor Albert C. Ritchie, with the announcement of Congressman Millard E. Tydings for the United States Senate, and the indorsement of this ticket by the Kent County Democratic Organization, headed by S. Scott Beck, Esq., are the outstanding political events of importance during the week.

Members of the complete State Organization ticket in the approaching primary are:

Governor
ALBERT C. RITCHIE
U. S. Senate
MILLARD E. TYDINGS
Comptroller
WILLIAM S. GORDY, JR.
Attorney-General
THOMAS H. ROBINSON
Court Appeals Clerk
JAMES A. YOUNG
Congress
T. ALAN GOLDSBOROUGH

The only announced opposition to date to the organization slate in Maryland, is the candidacy of William Milnes Maloy, of Baltimore. For a time it was reported that a keen "wet" and "dry" fight might develop in the primaries, but this apparently has been abandoned, as both Governor Ritchie and Candidate Maloy have indorsed the same identical planks on the prohibition question.

Whatever opposition may have developed to Governor Ritchie in Kent because of his views on prohibition, has, naturally, been largely dissipated because of the identical stand taken by his opponent.

Congressman Tydings on Thursday filed his papers as candidate for the United States Senate and is planning to make an active and aggressive campaign, backed by the Organization wing of the party in each county and the various political sub-divisions of Baltimore City.

City leaders have issued enthusiastic statements backing Congressman Tydings for the post of United States Senator. He is well-known throughout Maryland, having served with distinction in the American Army in France, returning from the war as one of the State's outstanding heroes.

Albert C. Ritahie, for Governor; William S. Gordy, Jr., for Comptroller; Thomas H. Robinson, for Attorney-General; James A. Young, for Clerk of the Codrt of Appeals and T. Alan Goldsborough, for Congress, are all candidates for re-nomination and re-election.

The Anti ticket as published last week was correct with the exception of W. K. Hudson as candidate for Orphans' Court. The Antis dropped him good and hard and endorsed Dr. E. A. Scott, an Organization leader and candidate on the Organization ticket.

THE NAME REMAINS

"ORGANIZATION"

Some of our friends ask, "What name will the Organization have during this campaign? The Antis have tried to take it.

Ever since the beginning of time such things have been transpiring. The Antis have tried during each successive contest to appropriate to themselves the word "Organization," but as the campaign progresses they find it useless and have to still nurse the child of their iornin', viz., ANTIS.

In trying to appropriate this name they acknowledge the strength of the Organization and the justice of their claim, so that it is considered quite an honor to start each campaign with this little sketch on the part of the Antis. They have even gone to the Organization and gotten as many men as they could as candidates for office. Another acknowledgment of the purity and strength of the Organization, of the fitness of the men composing same to fill public office.

Finally the campaign this year will be between the Organization and the Antis. The Organization ticket is headed in Kent county by that matchless leader and learned legal light, S. Scott Beck, Esq., with a coterie of men whose fitness for the various offices to which they aspire will be presented in further issues of the Kent News.

As a further evidence and proof of the inability of the Antis to change to Organization in a day we refer the reader and all interested to Jeremiah 13-23.

A SPLENDID TICKET

The Organization ticket in Kent is one of the best tickets ever placed before the people for their commendation and support. Each name was presented and urged by a united sentiment of scores of Democrats interested in good government.

The fitness of each man for the office to which he aspires is specially eminent and worthy of support. Their nomination would mean a campaign this Fall against Republicans without any equivocation or quibbling.

The greatest recommendation to this ticket is that it is a body of men working together intelligently for the good of the whole, not committed to the domination of any one man or coterie of men. It is a ticket lined up with the responsible citizenship of this county. Its platform rests upon sanity in all things and it does not seek to foster any spirit of revolution, temper, noise or any move indicative of anything but Democracy.

It does not consider that its political existence depends upon demagogism; neither does it claim for itself infallibility. It comes before the public with a sober consciousness of ability to handle the reins of government and it confidently expects a favorable verdict in the coming primaries.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear little boy, Bernard F. Coleman, who departed this life June 7 1926.

Our little home we once enjoyed,
Is sad and lonely today
For death has left a vacant place
That never can be filled.
No one knows how we miss you,
No one knows the tears we shed,
God called you home,
His way is best.

By Father and Mother.

Rest in peace, dear Bernard,
From sin and sorrow, thou art free
No more pain, no more suffering,
God called you home to rest.

By Brother and Sisters.
