200 PERSONS CONVERTED

The evangelistic campaign, conducted by the Rev. George W. Cooke, of Wilmington, Del., came to a close at Denton, Sunday night, after a very successful three weeks of spiritual happiness. It was one of the largest revival meetings ever held in the bounds of Caroline county, when lawyers, public officials and others high in the life of the county were brought to the altar to begin life in the Christian faith and happiness.

The Rev. Cooke for several weeks has been conducting special meetings in Delaware and Maryland under a large tent, with a seating capacity of 1,200 or more. Mr. Cooke makes no charge for his services. The last day of his campaign, however, funds are subscribed to defray his expenses. At the Denton meeting $860 were raised on Sunday for the evangelist and his co-workers.

From Denton, after a few days of rest, the Rev. Mr. Cooke will invade Laurel, Md., where he will conduct a three week's campaign.

As an outcome of the evangelistic meetings a law and order association (county wide) has been organized.

The "Better Home"—Has Arrived!

GOOD HOMES have been built for some time but now a "better home" may be built—a home that sets a new scale of values by which all homes can be measured.

Here's how it happened: The Lehigh Portland Cement Company held a Prize Home Competition. "Give us the perfect home of concrete masonry," they said. Twelve thousand architects were asked, "How would you design a perfectly planned, moderately priced, fire-safe house?" Hundreds of unique plans were received. Twenty-eight Prize Winners were selected by a jury of eminent architects.

No home builder should plan his home until he investigates the permanent satisfaction that concrete masonry provides.

If you plan to build, first send for the book, "28 Better Homes." It contains the floor plans, illustrations, and complete descriptions of each of the 28 prize-winning homes. In addition it contains practical advice, answering almost every problem facing the home builder.

May we send you a copy without cost?
