Chestertown M. E. Church. Now that the diversions incident to the schools is past we should all guard against the dissipations of Sabbath desecration and get back to our churches with faithfulness and zeal. The program for tomorrow is as follows: 9.45 a. m. Sunday school, 11 a. m. preaching by the pastor, subject "Jacob's Vision;" 3 p. m. A mass meeting of all the churches of the county at which Dr. Howard Kelley, of the Johns Hopkins University, will be the speaker Dr. Kelley will speake on the Bible and Its Message. It is a great honor to have such an eminent man in our midst and a great privilege to hear him. It is to be hoped that all our people will honor themselves by being present. 7 p. m. will begin our summer schedule of Sunday evening services when the Epworth League will take the first half hour for its program and the pastor will occupy the next half hour.

Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, N. O. Gibson, minister, Sunday, June 20. Sunday school at 10 a. m., Divine worship at 11 a. m., sermon by Dr. Albertus Perry, Vice President of Washington College, Children's Day at 7.30 p. m., Wednesday prayer and bible study at 7.30 p. m., study theme "Christ in Levitieus."

Young men and women are offered a free training by the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago for almost any kind of Christian service in the home or foreign field. The Institute has an efficient employment bureau which also helps students to obtain work for their spare hours, by which they are able to earn enough to pay their board and lodging. The present is the best time to secure reservations for the opening of the Fall term in September.

The ladies of Bond Chapel cleared $100 on the recent church supper.

Services will be held in Massey M. E. Church tomorrow, Sunday, at 3 p. m. Rev. Edwin Gardner, a former pastor, will preach by special request.

At Double Creek M. P. Church the services will begin at 11 o'clock. The pastor will bring a special message which everybody should hear.

Rev. Robert E. Green, of Wilmington, preached at Bond and Mowbray Churches Sunday. These congregations have asked for Rev. Mr. Green as pastor in place of Rev. Mr. Barrett who has resigned.

You are cordially invited to attend the service of the St. James M. P. Church this Sabbath at the regular hours. The Sabbath school meets at 10 o'clock. At 11 o'clock the pastor, Rev. Colvin Randall, will preach on the theme "The Mizpah." There will be special music. At 7.30 p. m. Miss Laura J. Rees will be the leader in the Christian Endeavor Society with the theme "How much of a goal should money be?" Come.

There will be no services at Lynch, the congregation being invited to attend the service of the Lord's Day Alliance in M. E. Church, Chestertown, to hear Dr. Howard Kelley at 3.00 p. m.

At Crumpton M. P. Church the services are as follows: 2 p. m. Sunday school in charge of Mrs. W. D. Coleman. 8 p. m. gospel song service followed by sermon by pastor on the subject "The World's Creed." prayer meeting Wednesday evening.

Wesley Chapel supper and festival Thursday evening netted $302.57 and was a splendid success in every way.
