YACHTSMEN TO ATTEND REGATTA

The sixth annual regatta of the Chesapeake Bay Championship Workboat Association will be held at Solomons Island, June 26th, Chestertown boating enthusiasts are there in force.

The Chestertown fleet which is planning to attend the races is composed of a newly built bridge-deck cruiser, the Tranqillity; a Crosby cat and four skip-jacks, which have been bought by local residents and remodeled into pleasure boats.

The other boats which are expected to attend are the Anna, owned by Thomas W. Perkins; the Peggy, Harriett L., Margie S. and Claytonia. The Peggy is the property of Wm. H. Truslow, the Harriett L. of R. Hynson Rogers, a local attorney; the Margie S., of P. M. Brooks and the Claytonia is owned by Mr. Hartman.

The Lizzie Cox, one of the bugeyes entered in the race for her class at the regatta, is of Rock Hall. She has taken part in three of the five races held thus far. In two of the events she has managed to finish in the money. At Clairborne in 1923 she finished in second place and she took third place at the Annapolis race in 1922. Her skipper is Capt. C. H. Kendall, of Rock Hall.

Captain Kendall has been sailing boats on the Chesapeake since he was 17. He has been master of the Lizzie Cox for the last five years. Capt. Kendall was so anxious to take part in the races at Annapolis in 1922 that he left Rock Hall with a portion of a load of lumber, which he did not have time to unload before the race, still in the hold of his vessel. After bringing the Cox home in third place he returned to Rock Hall to finish unloading the lumber. At Claiborne, due to a misunderstanding as to the correct side on which to pass a buoy at the starting line, he crossed the line twenty-two minutes in the rear of the rest of the starters. During the race he gained consistently, however, and at the finish was only eight minutes behind the winner.

Captain Kendall expressed deep regard for the sailing qualities of the Isaac H. Keeler, the boat which has been entered in the place of the George C. Todd, of Crisfield, the winner in the last three bugeye races. She is a fast sailer, he said, and is much faster than the Todd. The Keeler is a sister ship of the Todd, the only difference between them being that the Todd is five feet shorter.

MASONS VISIT SMYRNA

Chestertown ladge of Masons was represented by 40 persons on Thursday evening last when they were guests of the Smyrna, Del., Lodge of Masons. A most enjoyable evening was spent by the Marylanders in the hospitable town. A third degree was conferred by the Smyrna lodge after which refreshments were served.

Smyrna has made a number of improvements in the last few years the most conspicuous of which are a $160,000 High School building, which is a wonder; a new fire house building with all modern conveniences costing $30,000; a splendid postoffice building erected by the U. S. government and two fine bank buildings.

JOS. BRICE'S MILL BURNED

The well-known Brice's Mill, near Lankford, was burned on Saturday night between 8 and 9 o'clock together with contents. This mill was owned and managed by Joseph Brice. He went on a visit to Ringgold's Point shore Saturday and did not know of the fire until his return on Sunday evening. No reason can be assigned for the fire.

The loss is estimated at $10,000 with insurance in J. G. Beck's agency of $5,000.

The Volunteer Company visited the fire but was too late to save any of the mill property. They played water on adjacent property.

The barn, shed and implements on the Wm. A. Hurlock farm in Piney Neck were burned Saturday afternoon entailing a loss of several thousand dollars. Hulbert Townsend, the tenant, had $200 insurance on implements in Belt Townshend's agency. Wm. A. Hurlock lives in Baltimore. The origin of the fire is unknown.

WEDDING NOTES

A very pretty wedding took place in Reading, Pa., on Saturday, June 5th, when Mrs. Belle Rambo was married to Levi Long, of Pine Dale, Pa., by the Rev. Charles E. Creitz, pastor of Trinity Reformed Church, 146 Walnut street. The bride was dressed in a pearl grey satin with hat and coat to match. Afterwards they were driven to the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hennan Fligge, of New Ringgold, where a wedding dinner was served. They took the 9.45 train at New Ringgold for Niagara Falls where they will spend two weeks. The bride's traveling suit was dark blue serge.

Mrs. Long is well-known in Kent as she is a sister to Mrs. Henry Rosin, of Sassafras, and Mrs. John E. Matthews, of Chestertown. Mr. Long is a retired railroad man. They will reside at Deer Lake Park in one of the beautiful bungalows which has just been built.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gum, of Frankford, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Harriet Gum, to Perry Graves, of Chestertown, on Saturday at noon, at the M. E. parsonage at Milford. A luncheon immediately followed the ceremony, at the Hotel Windsor. Mrs. Robert Ayres and Mrs. Clarence Usilton, of Chestertown, and Miss Helen Baker, of Selbyville, were among those present. The bride wore a dark blue tailored suit, with white silk blouse, and a large black Milan straw hat The maid of honor, Miss Helen Baker, wore a white silk sport suit. The best man was Norman Graves, of Chestertown, a brother of the groom. The bride is a graduate of Frankford High School and the Woman's College of Delaware. During the last year, she has been a member of the Selbyville school faculty. Mr. Graves, the groom, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Spedden Graves, of Union Park Gardens, Wilmington, and a graduate of Goldey College. The wedding trip will be by auto, through western Maryland. The young people will make their future home in Chestertown.

Richard H. Collins, Jr., of Chestertown, will leave today for Kentucky where he will be one of the attendants at the wedding of his brother, John Collins, of Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nichols, of Highland, Maryland, have issued invitations to the wedding of their daughter, Lillian Gladys, to Rolph Townshend, of Chestertown, in Mt. Zion M. E. Church at 4 o'clock on Saturday, June 26th, at Highland, Maryland.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Downey, near Rock Hall, was the scene of a pretty wedding at eight o'clock in the evening, Saturday, June 19th, when their granddaughter, Miss Pearl Davis, of Bustleton, Pa., daughter of Mrs. Bessie and the late Wm. Davis, became the bride of John Walter Ashton, of Bustleton. The bride looked fine in her robe of white satin.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Revelle, of Rock Hall M. E. Church. Refreshments were served at the reception immediately following. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Downey, the bride's mother, Mrs. Bessie Davis, a sister. Miss Ella Roe Davis, both of Bustleton, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Beck, Mrs. Louise J. Rollison, Mrs. Augustus Warner, Mrs. Henrietta Rodney, Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Ayres, the latter's daughter, Miss Adeline Wilkie, of Baltimore, Spencer Smith, of Chestertown, Mrs. Stanley Downey and Miss Mary Elizabeth Downey, of Norfolk, Va.

The wedding of Miss Ida Bramble, of this county, and T. J. Clark, of California, is announced. The bride has been superintendent at Randolph-Macon College for some years and the report of her marriage was quite a surprise.

CHICKEN THIEVES BUSY

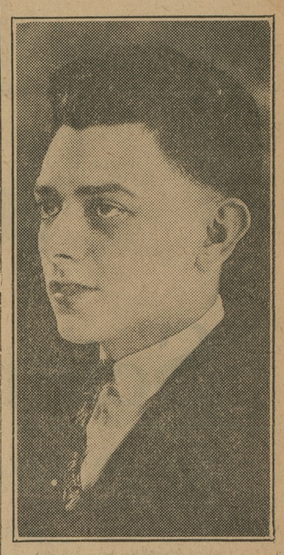

Depredations upon the farmers' hen roosts in the Locust Grove section of the county have become so frequent that the authorities of the law have begun a systematic investigation of the robberies. Sheriff Wm. W. Goodman estimates that not less than $2,000 worth of chickens have been stolen within the past two weeks, and two negroes have been arrested and are being held in jail here on suspicion. Both weregrilled by State's Attorney Beck who learned that they had served terms in prison for chicken thieving in Cecil county. They were arrested by officer Redding in Galena who stopped them by puncturing the tires on their automobile.

Rev. Mr. Lewis' hennery at Shrewsbury was robbed of 24 hens one night this week and it was on this occasion the two prisoners were taken.

In desperation, a large delegation appared before the County Commissioners and asked that some means be adopted to break up the depletion of poultry and meat houses. The Commissioners authorized the Sheriff to employ help.

FORCED TO VACATE

H. B. Rote, jeweler, is forced to vacate his present store room to make way for improvements for Conlyn Noland who recently bought the building. Mr. Rote will remove to the new room at the Voshell House on High street. He advertises to sell entire stock at ridiculously low prices. Call and look over his stock.

REV. ROBERT E. GREEN
New Pastor of Bond and Mowbray M. E. Charge.

MASSEY GOES DOWN LADDER

Chestertown's Fire Fighters can play ball as well as play water on fires. They defeated the strong Massey team Saturday 7 to 6. Blackway and George was on the mound for Chestertown while Groff pitched a fine game for Massey. The Fire boys comprised Russell, Chism, Armstrong, Derringer, Estes, Geiser, Loller, George, Blackway, and Updegrove. Massey—Peacock, Gibbs, Moffett, G. and L. Newnam, Groff, Everett, Pinder.

Miss Elizabeth Sutton, of Black, won the essay contest conducted by the Eastern Shore Society.
