TRAVEL NOW OPEN AT DAVIS' HILL

During the big storm Tuesday night the Davis Hill bridge was carried away by the flow of water. The site of the bridge is two miles south of Galena, and for a day autoists detoured by way of St. Dennis Cemetery, on the Massey road. The demolished bridge was a State structure spanning Spencer's Creek on the main Eastern Shore highway.

Engineer Austin F. Shure, of the State Roads Commission has constructed a temporary bridge and travel is now open across this bridge in perfect safety.

WET FOURTH OF JULY

Thousands of persons were disappointed on the Fourth and Fifth of July because of the rain storms. The holiday opened with a thunder storm 1 a. m. Sunday, slight here but assuming a cloudburst at Philadelphia, where great damage was done, especially at the Sesqui-Centennial where the damage was estimated at $100,000, including $6,000 to the Maryland building, Sunday was showery, and on Monday old Jupiter Pluvius never left the switch. The rain no doubt did a world of good, and also cut down the number of accidents by keeping traffic off the roads.

At Rock Hall the committee, with Frank O. Puppe chairman, had to call off much of their plans. The ball game was played between showers the local team winning from St. James. The Rock Hall band increased with talent from Chestertown and Cecilton under the leadership of Charles Judefind gave afternoon and evening concerts in Junior Hall which was elaborately decorated with the national colors, besides a twilight concert from Nelson Rodney's upper porch that was enjoyed by an audience that crowded the street. A dance in the hall completed an evening of real mirth and enjoyment. Cake and lemonade were provided by the Progressive Association under whose auspices the demonstration was held and ice cream was sold. Stores and homes were decorated with bunting and flags and the holiday spirit prevailed everywhere even if the parade was postponed until the carnival that will be held in August. Beginning with Saturday evening fireworks and illuminations were on display at many private homes.

Betterton and Tolchester had their usual holiday crowds.

Millington's carnival was interferred with by the rain but has had a big time the balance of the week.

WEDDING NOTES

The marriage of John Emory Beck and Miss Dorothy L. Meekins was solemnized Saturday afternoon at the Rectory of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Centreville, Rev. Alward Chamberlaine officiating. The bride and groom are residents of Kent county, residing just beyond Fairlee on the Tolchester road. Mrs. Alward Chamberlaine and Ellsworth Meekins attended.

Miss Minnie N. Robinson, of Hillsboro, Md., and Walter W. Needles, a prominent business man of Chestertown were married at the M. E. parsonage at Denton on Thursday last by Rev. Melvin E. Wheatley, pastor of the M. E. Church. They will reside at the groom's home on High street.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Willson announce the marriage of their daughter, Rena Frances, to Maurice Kelley, Tuesday evening, June 29th, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. J. F. Earner at the Roman Catholic rectory in Chestertown. The couple were attended by Miss Florence Cornelius and Martin Wagner. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelley, of Skinner's Neck, and is associated in business with Harry Price at his mill in Rock Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Kelley have taken rooms with Mr. and Mrs. Bertie Coleman at Rock Hall where their many friends wish them all happiness and prosperity.

Miss Rever Smith, daughter of Charles Smith, of Rock Hall, and Walter Hood, of Chester, Pa., were married in that city Wednesday, June 30th. The bridal couple spent from Friday to Monday with Mrs. Hood's father.

COUPLE MEET WEDNESDAY
MARRIED ON SATURDAY

On Eastern Neck Island Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Nehus are enjoying martial happiness. Tuesday week. Mrs. Harie Nadlocki, now Mrs. Henry D. Nehus, inserted the following in the "Situation Wanted" columns of a Baltimore paper:

GERMAN lady, middleaged, first-class cook or housekeeper. 3606 Clifton Avenue, Walbrook, near Elsnior Avenue.

Thursday Mr. Nehus appeared at 3606 Clifton, where Mrs. Nadlocski was employed as housekeeper. He proposed that she take charge of his domicile in the same capacity and the two sat down to discuss the matter.

By the time the initial conversation was over it was understood definitely between them that there was certainly no reason, religious or otherwise, why they should not marry and every reason why they should.

They really wanted to get married obtained the license and on Saturday at 11 a. m., Mrs. Nadlocski became Mrs. Nehus and proved the axiom "It pays to advertise:"

BIG RECEPTION TO DAIRY BOYS

Maryland's champion dairy cattle team of which Stanley B. Sutton, of Kent, is a member, which arrived in England a week ago to compete with a similar team of British boys in an international contest under the auspices of the British Royal Agricultural Society, has had a strenuous experience preparing itself to meet the British team.

The utmost hospitality has been shown them at every turn and they are enthusiastic in their praise of the fairness of the British in giving Americans every opportunity to study intimately the types of cattlt they are to judge in the international contest

The Maryland boys are now convinced they are up against a harder proposition than last year. The British boys are better organized and more experienced now and are out to win.

The contest takes place July 14th Meanwhile the Maryland boys will spend another week visiting dairy farms' exhibitions. All its members are well.

Chairman Thomas W. Perkins, of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce has arranged a number of Booster Meetings. See adv. on 4th page.

MILLINGTON CARNIVAL A BIG SUCCESS

The Millington Firemen's Carnival this week was a huge success. On Thursday night one of the largest crowds ever seen in Millington was present. From 3,000 to 5,000 persons were said to be in tht town viewing the parade. Both Kent and Queen Anne's sent their Democratic candidates and all were in a pleasant humor.

Chestertown Volunteer Fire Co. won the cup for having the greatest number of men present and Denton won cups for coming longest distance and finest band.

Clayton, Smyrna and Dover also sent large delegations of firemen and they all looked fine.

Millington is certainly to be congratulated upon handling the whole affair in such a masterly manner.

Tonight is the last day and another big crowd will be on hand.
