WHO'S WHO IN THIS CAMPAIGN

The reception given the naming of THE Organization candidates for the Senate and House in the KENT NEWS last week was indeed inspiring and means a great victory September 14th. In addition to the splendid men mentioned in that article there are still more to follow and in the same high class.

J. PAGE GALE

For Clerk of the Circuit Court to succeed that popular incumbent, Robert R. Ayres, THE Ogranization presents J. Page Gale, of near Tolchester. Mr. Gale is an ideal candidate in that he is a farmer, waterman and business man. He was born on the farm where he now resides and for ten years assisted in the management of the concessions at Tolchester which required skill and industry. He is a gentleman of wide acquaintance, a neighbor to everyone and able to attend to the duties of the office for which he is a candidate. He has not made any promises as to deppties but will guarantee that the public will have no complaints to make either in the help employed nor in the conduct of the office.

DR. MERRITT BRICE

The First District, Millington precinct, presents to the people of Kent that stalwart resident, Dr. Merritt Brice as the candidate for Register of Wills.

He was born January 5, 1880, son of W. Tilden Brice. He attended public school at Lankford, then went for two years at Washington College and graduated in medicine at the University of Maryland in 1907. He located in Millington in 1911 where he has been practicing medicine ever since. He has endeared himself to that community by his unselfish devotion to those in need and unstinted in ministering to the sick. He is a gentleman of good judgment, intelligent and loyal to every local enterprise. He will carry on the work of the Register of Wills office with satisfaction to his friends and be a credit to his party. He is a Democrat and always found fighting for the party and its candidates thru thick and thin. He deserves your vote and what more, will appreciate your support.

CLARENCE NEWSOME

For County Treasurer, Clarence Newsome, of Betterton, is THE Organization candidate, and is a hustler. He is the proprietor of Newsome's Garage at Betterton and a man well and favorably known in nearly all parts of the county. He is a brother of M. Edward Newsome, of Chestertown, and Louis and Wm. T. Newsome, of Worton, and has lived at Betterton most of his life. He is well fitted both by education and business training to handle the finances of the county. We predict Mr. Newsome's nomination by a handsome vote.

burgh, and a year's graduate work at the University of Pennsylvania. He has taught the social studies for two years in the high school at Clairton, Pa., where he has established a splendid record for himself as an inspiring and hard-working teacher and a friend and adviser of boys. He looks to the President like a real Washingtonian.

Announcement should also be made that Mr. Roy Schmidt, of Sudlersville, has been appointed instructor in voice. The college feels itself fortunate in securing his cooperation.

New Board Members

Two new members have just been appointed to the Board: Dr. Joseph K. Shriver, Jr., of Cambridge, Who fills the position made vacant by Dr. B. W. Goldsborough, who resigned because of ill health, and Dr. Thomas Garey, of Baltimore, head of the Army and Navy Preparatory School of that city. We are glad to have their help.

Achievements

This year has seen two notable advances. The first is the greatly increased registration. The strenuous sales campaign which was begun in December, 1925, and continued down even until the end at the week college opened last September brought us some 92 freshmen—the biggest class the college ever had—and raised the total enrollment to 182—a gain of more than 45 per cent. last year.

Incidentally the prospects for an even larger registration for September, 1926, are very bright.

Perhaps Washington's greatest achievement of the year was getting on the accredited list of approved colleges. This distinction came to the college only after many years of hoping and working. Being a Grade A institution gives Washington a new leverage and a new place of esteem among patrons and among other colleges. It is mark of scholastic approval respected the country over.

The Business Managership

The Board has created a new office of Business Manager of the College and elected Prof. George G. Snyder to fill it. As business manager Professor Snyder will relieve both Treasurer Perkins and the President of many of their arduous duties. The increasing complexity and quantity of the business affairs of the college require one man's full time. It is believed that the more careful and systematic attention which can be paid to finances under the new plan will make it possible for the college next year to live within its budget. With its augumented income of next year, it should be able to do so.

At the June Board meeting the Board formally approved the plan for a cafeteria restaurant to be installed in the basement of the gymnasium during the summer. This arrangement will provide a thoroughly up-to-date eating place, which will take care of as high as 250 students and should be adequate for the college's needs for several years to come.

Two innovations are to be tried coming year at Washington: one is a four-day late summer conference for ministers of all denominations to be held September 7-10 and the other is freshmen week.

The summer conference, it is hoped will prove of vital service particularly to Peninsula pastors.

Through Freshmen Week, to be held just before College opens, the college officials hope to bridge over the difficult chasm between high school and college. Often first year students lose much time, or fail completely, before they understand how to handle themselves in the college atmosphere which is utterly different from high school.

The President cannot close this brief report without again expressing the hope that very speedily more friends may be raised up for Washington College, who will see to it that the institution shall be kept strong, and sound, and prosperous for the big and growing work before it.

The college has a unique and challenging field. Some day—I pray it may be soon — some big-hearted man is going to oiscover in Washington the opportunity to build for himself a monument, not of cold granite but of finer material, a structure not made with hands, but eternal in the heavens.

PAUL E. TITSWORTH,
President Washington College.

Kentucky College of Agriculture has planned for a vacation for farmers' wives! Some one else's cooking. No children. No husbands. Good old summer vacation for farm women. At $1.50 to $2 a week—per. A new wrinkle to remove wrinkles.

A WORTHY INSTITUTION

The Children's Home at Easton has been enlarged and greatly improved. It is a veritable home for homeless girls, the only one on the Eastern Shore, and it is wholly dependent on the generosity of the nine counties of this peninsula for its support.

The Board of Directors of the home have planned a more systematic plan of giving to meet the requirements of the home as they arise. Therefore Kent county has promised to furnish the flour needed, and a committee has been appointed to see those who are interested in the upkeep and welfare of the Home and ask for a donation of wheat for this purpose. This wheat will be made into flour free of charge and sent to the Home when needed.

The members of the Board for Kent county are Mrs. Wm. Walter Chapman, Chestertown, and Mrs. E: Thos. Massey, Massey.

Romie Byron, dated January 27th, 1917, and duly assigned to George P. Hendrickson, be ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary thereof be shown on or before the 10th day of September next; provided, a copy of this Order be inserted in some newspaper printed and published in Kent county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 9th day of August next.

Somerset county has declared its tax rate to be $1.90, just 68 cents more than Kent's. They levied 67 cents for schools while Kent levied 77 cents.

Bank statements in the News today show Kent county's financial institutions in fine shape.

Bridgeville, one of the large berry centers, experienced a profitable season, probably exceeding that of any strawberry point on the peninsula. There were quite a number of growers in that section who averaged $1,000 an acre profit on their strawberry crop. Henry L. Neal's gross receipts from three-quarters of an acre were over $1,200, giving him easily a profit of $1,000 on his patch. John Lauer it is said, realized gross receipts of over $2,000 on one and one-fifth acres.

In reappointing Dr. Harry V. Holloway State Superintendent of Public Instruction the new Delaware State Board of Education has acted wisely. Aside from his value in aiding the State law makers in their work, Dr. Holloway has demonstrated his ability to manage the educational affairs of the State. He has an affable personality which has added to his popularity among all who have to do with the affairs of the schools, including school commissoners, teachers, students and parents.

We made the prediction last year that good bulls of serviceable age would be scarce this year. If you do not believe they are, go out and try to buy a T. B. tested bull old enough for service. They will be harder to find next year. We have several born last October and November that will be ready for service this fall.
