A TERRIFIC WIND STORM

The storm Sunday night which passed over this section attended by severe lightning and copious showers, was attended with cyclone violence over near Delaneys. A roof on the stable of John F. Conner was blown off and carried clear across a field. A shed roof of Charles Bailey was also blown off. Near the Maryland line, lightning struck a stable and burned it down. Another farmer in the Delaneys district had his coop of 16 turkeys carried away by the wind, killing three of them. It was one of the worst storms this vicinity has seen in years.

Lightning struck a tree at Mrs. Elizabeth Elburn's in Rock Hall. A fine milch cow was killed at Howard Leaverton's dairy farm. A large tree blew over on John Coleman's house. Two locusts at Wm. Bramble's were blown down. Edward Parsons had to stop to cut up a tree before he could get out on his dairy route. Many trees—all the way along—went down and corn and tomatoes were hurt by wind and hail.

Lightning struck the M. P. parsonage at Kennedyville Sunday night without doing much damage except giving Dr. Trout much uneasiness.

THE PLACE TO GET COOL

Nothing is so helpful these summer days than a cool tropical worsted suit. Bordley & Son, Corner High and Cross streets, Chestertown, are offering some beauties at low prices. Just think of it—imported English flannels $27.50; tropical worsteds $18.50 to $25.00; mohair $15.00 to $18.50; palm beach $10 to $15.

LECTURE

All seats free. No collection.

Has it not many times occurred to you that there must be some reasonable explanation of the cause of the world-wide unrest, distress and perplexities? Where is the rational human being who has not often wished that things were different—who does not long for peace, happiness, freedom from pain and sorrow?

The divine plan for man's release from all causes of unhappiness is not only reasonable but genuinely heart cheering.

KENT COUNTY, MD. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Enthusiasm was the keynote Thursday night in a meeting held at Rock Hall for the purpose of establishing The Kent County Chamber of Commerce. The organizing committee, after poor meetings in Chestertown, Galena and Millington, had begun to become disheartened. But, the Rock Hall gathering returned to the committee all their former enthusiasm, and more. The interest displayed by the lower Kent township assures Kent of a county-wide chamber.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the Rock Hall Progressive Association, the wide-awake civic organization of that town.

F. W. Maaloe, Director of Extension for the Del-Mar-Va Eastern Shore Association was the principal speaker.

Ellsworth Leary was named chairman of a member-soliciting committee with the following members: Frank Puppe, Capt. Charles R. Kerr, Herbert Urie, Snowden Maslin, Edw. Smith and George Coleman.

The meeting for the third district was held last night at the Hotel Rigbie, Betterton.

The canvassing committee for 4th district of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce will please report by Tuesday July 27th.
