AUTO PARTY OF 4 KILLED AT CROSSING

Struck by an express train on the Delaware Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, at King's Crossing, one mile below Blackbird and one mile west of the duPont Boulevard, at noon Sunday, four persons were killed, their bodies mangled and carried down the track for 330 yards before the train was brought to a stop. All the victims were residents of Centreville, Del. The dead are:

Guerney Smith, aged 29 years, driver of the car.

Marjorie Smith, aged 19 years, his sister.

Anna Morris, aged 19 years.

James R. Hills, aged 28 years.

The men were so badly mangled that identification was made by articles found in the pockets of the clothing they wore. Practically every bone in the bodies of each of the victims was broken, and the automobile was wrecked, parts of the machine being strewn along the tracks.

MAIL ORDER BRIDE HAS HER TROUBLES

Attorneys Stephen Collins And Thos. Healey Act As Mediators In Family Trouble Of Eastern Neck Island Residents — A Happy Solution Of A Difficult Situation.

The martial felicity of a pair of newlyweds on Eastern Neck Island, 12 miles below Chestertown, was suddenly terminated as the result of an altercation, in which the bride ordered the arrest of her husband, Henry Nehus, Sr., his son, Henry, Jr., and his brother, John, on a charge of assault and battery. Several months ago Nehus, Sr., advertised for a wife with experience as a housekeeper and promised to give her the comforts of a pretty home on the water, etc.

Several days following the appearance of the advertisement Nehus received a reply from a charming Baltimore damsel of middle age, enclosing her photograph. Nehus hied himself to Baltimore, dressed in his best bib and tucker, and, meeting the lady, it proved to be a case of love at first sight. They were married next day.

The couple repaired to their island home and life was sweet and pleasant with the exception of an apparent coolness on the part of the son and brother, which did not soften with the passing days. Tension broke one evening and following a day's arduous toll in the threshing yard, an altercation ensued at the supper table in which the bride accused the three men of assault and battery and ordered their arrest. They were haled before Justice Stafford, in Chestertown, who after hearing the evidence, released the accused.

The bride, fearing further difficulty found temporary shelter in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hirshberg here, to await the next move.

Attorney Stephen R. Collins represented the accused.

Thomas F. Healey, Esq., represented the State.

In the hearing the services of Dr. T. Howard Fowler weer called upon to interpret the evidence as given in a foreign tongue.

TWO WOMEN PRAISE SAME MEDICINE

Both Helped by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"After the birth of my little daughter I was very badly run-down. I could not think of going to a hospital, but grew steadily worse, being compelled to stay in bed two or three days each week. A friend of my sister's told of the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done her, and my sister bought me two bottles of it. I had not taken all of one bottle when I was up and able to do some work. I am truly a booster for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and you may use my testimonial."—Mrs. Mayme Lynch, 1119 Island Ave., Ext., McKee's Rocks, Pa.

Mrs. Hope L. Smith, a farmer's wife of Route 3, Floyd, Va., says she was ill for ten years with a good deal of pain in her side and so weak she could hardly work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped her so much she is telling her friends about it.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine.

"Experience is the best teacher"

"That certainly applies to making gasoline. Prominent oil men tell me years and years of striving are necessary before a company can produce a gasoline that gives motorists what they want these days; snappy starting, good pull for the high stretches, lively motor always —all qualities which only experience can teach.

"Take 'Standard' Gasoline. There's fifty-six years of experience behind that brand. And it's the best straight gasoline you can buy. Always dependable—obtainable everywhere."
