NOTICE

For better service and more accommodation to our customers, we rented the store of Mr. John Downey, where Mr. Nelson Rodney used to be, where we keep a whole line of our goods in Bread and Cakes, also Confectionery. Mrs. Russell Sewell is in charge of the same and we beg for your patronage.

Eat Huber's wholesome Cake and Bread,
You'll taste of what good material its made,
Pure butter and eggs, no matter to what it amounts,
Its made for your health and that surely what counts,
But "Huber's Bread" on your table three times a day,
And you always find an empty tray
Because its so wholesome, tasty and fine,
It has won great favor in so short a time,
Always insist upon "Huber's Bread and Cake,"
And keep joyous and happy, just for your own sake,
It'll keep you healthy and your good looks too,
How about a trial, just one will do.

Respectfully,
JOHN HUBER, Prop.

2 Chestertowm Merchants In A Serious Accident

A head-on collision about 11 p. m. Sunday on the road between Cecilton and Bohemia Bridge resulted in injuries to several men, a lady and children, all from Kent county. The injured are: James H. Sides, fractured knee cap, small bone in left wrist broken, throat cut and badly shaken up. He was carried to Elkton Hospital by a passing doctor and after rendering first aid was removed to Union Memorial Hospital, Baltimore.

J. Samuel Kreeger was cut and bruised and had several teeth loosened. He went to the hospital but was able to return home Monday. After resting a few days he is able to be at his store on Cross street.

Mr. Kreeger was driving his Chevrolet car and intended to board the train at Elkton to go to the funeral of his father who had died at his home in North Carolina, aged 79. Mr. Sides went to bring the car back.

Clarence Thompson, of Rock Hall, had several ribs broken.

Mrs. Clarence Thompson bruised and suffering from shock. Several children in the car were unhurt. One was thrown out.

Mr. Thompson was driving a studebaker car. He telephoned to Dr. Ivens in Chestertown who went for them and brought them to Dr. Copeland's office. The doctor rendered aid and they were driven to Rock Hall.

Mr. Thompson and family had been to Philadelphia and were returning home when the accident occurred. Both cars are badly damaged, it being a head-on collision.

Mrs. Sides went to Elkton early Monday morning and is now in Baltimore with her husband.

A Winner In the Beauty Contest

The Beauty Shop opened on Court street, Chestertown, has been doing a splendid business. It is a beauty parlor in more ways than one. One of the ladies employed there won the beauty prize in Wilmington last year and participated in the contest at Atlantic City. She is Miss Emma Catts and known as "Miss Wilmington." She also won second prize in the all Delaware contest.

HOT CHASE AFTER PRISONER

The Sheriff and Chestertown officers had a hot chase Monday for Stewart Johnson charged with taking Mr. Kennard's auto and with stealing chickens from E. E. Woodall. Johnson was located on Kent street near E. E. Hudson's store. As soon as he saw the officers he jumped a fence, ran down the alley of Thos. Whaley's home frightening Mrs. Whaley who was at work on the side porch, and down High he ran. He dodged the pursuers at A. H. Covey's and crossing his garden, went to Calvert street. Mrs. Covey was picking berries and was startled to see the man dashing across the yard. Officer Cooper finally caught him and he was landed in jail.

In the upper section of town two neighbors had an exciting experience with a chicken thief who attempted to rob the hen roost of S. Scott Thompson on High street. A neighbor of Mr. Thompson saw a colored man climb over his fence with evident intention of robbing the roost. Hesitating to fire his pistol at the Negro for fear of fatally injuring him, the the neighbor went to the basement of his home, secured his gun and returned to the window just in time to see the thief scaling the fence with his booty. The neighbor fired and the thief fell back into the poultry yard, but made a getaway before either Mr. Thompson or his neighbor could catch him. Inquiries have been made at the offices of all physicians in the town asking whether a man full of buckshot had applied for treatment, but to no avail.

Geo. W. Rash fired at what he supposed was a chicken thief one night recently but no result.

CHURCH LEAGUE RACE

Standing of Clubs

	W.	L.	P.C.
Worton	4	0	1000
Crumpton	3	2	.600
Church Hill	3	2	.600
Sudlersville	2	3	.400
Galena	2	3	.300
Millington	0	4	.000

Results of last Saturday's games were as follows:

Galena 20, Church Hill 7

Sudlersville 11, Crumpton 2

Worton and Millington did not play,

Massey defeated Kennedyville in the third game of the series on Saturday last by the score of 5 to 1. This was Massey's third straight win over the Kennedyville nine. The game was a pitcher's battle from beginning to end. Groff allowed three hits and Kennedy six, the Massey boys bunched their hits and turned them into runs. A double play in the eight killed a possible rally when Urie, the first man up singled and Wiltbank's then hit into a double play. Groff whiffed seven men bringing his string up to 132.

Miss Mary Helen Rasin died at a hospital near Baltimore this week. She was about 78 years of age and was a frequent visitor at the home of Wm. M. Slay, Esq., in Chestertown. She was related to a number of prominent Kent countians. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon with interment in Kent county.

Harry F. Jefferson, "The Store With a Conscience," is offering special reductions for hot weather. Bathing suits 20 per cent off, floor coverings and linoleum rugs 10 per cent off. Smal lot specials. Come look them over.

FARMERS' PICNIC AT TOLCHESTER BIGGEST IN ITS HISTORY

Farmers, wives and children to the number of 2500 were present at the picnic at Tolchester Thursday and had a jolly time. Wm. G. Smyth, secretary of the County Farm Bureau, furnished a program of amusements, E. Thomas Massey, president of the County Farm Bureau, presided at the business session, and addresses were delivered by James W. Davis, president of the State Farm Bureau; Senator David G. Harry, of Harford county, president of State Grange; M. Melvin Stewart, State Farm Bureau secretary; Professor H. B. Derrick, County Farm Agent, and Stanley B. Sutton, member of Maryland National Dairy Cattle Judging Team which had just returned from a tour of European dairy centers.

The baseball game was won by Kennedyville over Massey 5 to 2.

The pitching quoits contest was won by John Atwell and Vernon Corey with Harry Williams and Olie Ford, second.

The hog calling contest was as follows: Loudest, Edgar Pennington; musical voice, Wm. H. Whiteley, Jr.; call for best effect, Wilbur Ford; most penetrating, Percy V. Hendrickson; booby prize, A. Earle Nicholson.

The crowd consumed 100 gallons of ice tea, 65 gallons of ice cream, besides dozens of chickens, etc., etc.

DERRICK AND SUTTON RETURN FROM ABROAD

Members of the Maryland cattle judging team are home. They report that they were attacked while in France by a crowd bent upon giving riotous expression to their anti-American feeling.

The team was composed of Arthur Dunninggan, Harford county; Ralph Walker, Montgomery county, and Stanley Sutton, Kent county. They went abroad to take part in the internationl cattle-judging contest which was held at Eastbourne, England, on July 14th, and were accompanied by Prof. H. B. Derrick, county agent of Kent county.

Following the contest the members of the party and Professor Derrick visited France, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium and Holland. The attack by the Frenchmen was made as the four members of the party were riding in a taxicab through the Bois de Boulogne between Versailles and Paris.

The crowd surged around the taxicab, forcing the driver to halt. Then with folded newspapers, the occupants were beatten over the head. And all the while they were subjected to volleys of abusive language.

"There was only one thing to do," said Professor Derrick, who is a former member of the Marine Corps, "and that was to grin and bear it. That is what we did. Nevertheless, it was unpleasant experience."

Prior to the judging contest the team members were escorted on a tour of England and Scotland that took them into the most interesting places of these two countries and afforded them an opportunity to visit some of the most famous cattle-breeding establishments. Historic places in and around London also were visited. The team members described their entertainment in England and Scotland as "royal."

Although they failed to win the gold cup, trophy of the cattle-judging contest, the Marylanders said they returned to this country with the satisfaction of knowing that they made a good showing. They were defeated by a margin of only seventeen points out of a possible 900.
