WEDDING NOTES

A pretty wedding was solemnized at eight o'clock Monday evening, August 23rd, when Miss Florence Leona Matthews became the bride of Edward Alden Smith, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Wm. H. Revelle at the M. E. Parsonage in Rock Hall. Both the contracting parties are residents of Baltimore and were guests of Capt. and Mrs. Charles Thomas, the later of whom is Mrs. Smith's aunt and attended her, together with her daughter, Miss Cora Thomas, at the marriage. The bride was attired in green silk, Mrs. Thomas wore steel silk and Miss Cora was in white. The bride is well known and has a large circle of friends in Rock Hall. The happy couple have returned to Baltimore for residence. Mrs. Thomas and Miss Cora accompanied them for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Lane announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Caroline, to Rev. John R. Diehl, on Wednesday, August 25th, at Wilmington. Rev. Diehl was a Rock Hall boy and after a short wedding trip they will be with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Diehl, on Thursday for a short stay. The latter will again become residents of that town, while Rev. Diehl and his bride will reside at Cornersville where the former has a pastorate.

Registration Date Announced Sept. 7th

The Supervisors of Election have completed final plans for the forthcoming Primary on September 14.

A preliminary registration will be held on Tuesday, September 7th, at which time persons may register to qualify them to vote in the primary. Persons to become o fage before the November election may register, as well as those moving from another county to Kent. There will be no revision on this day.

The Supervisors named the list of Judges and Clerks to serve in the primary as well as the general election. All candidates in the primary have filed their papers and these are in the hands of the printers, to appear on the ballots to be voted. The democratic ballot will be on white paper and the republicans on blue Two sets of ballot boxes will be needed, two talley sheets, return blanks and i nfact everything required will be exactly double that used in the general election, except that the number of ballots is less.

Each of the candidates filed paid over a fee of $25, except those for Orphans' Court, who paid $10. Candidates for State offices also pay. Candidates for non-salary offices do not pay. This money is used to help to defray tht cost of the primary.

PROCLAMATION

PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE, 1926.

WHEREAS, at the January Session of the General Assembly of Maryland, held in the year 1924, an Act was passed, to-wit: Chapter 116 proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Maryland, by adding a new section to Article 4, to follow section 31, and to be known as Section 31-A, granting authority to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to pay each of the judges of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore additional salaries; in words and figures as follows:

CHAPTER 116.

AN ACT to amend the Constitution of Maryland by adding a new section to Article 4.

Section. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, three-fifths of all the members of both Houses concurring, that the following section be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to the constitution of the State of Maryland, and if adopted by the legal and qualified voters thereof, as hereinafter provided, the same shall stand as an additional section to Article 4 of said Constitution, to follow section 31, and to be known as Section 31-A.

31-A. In addition to the authority granted to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore by the preceding section to pay to each of the judges of the Supreme Bench the annual sum of Five Hundred Dollars, authority is hereby given to said Mayor and City Council to pay to each of said judges such further annual sum as an addition to their respective salaries as the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall from time to time deem right and proper, provided, that any such sum being once granted shall not be diminished during the continuance of said judges in office.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that the said foregoing section hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution shall be, at the next general election for members of the General Assembly to be held in this State, submitted to the legal and qualified voters thereof, for their adoption or rejection, in pursuance of the directions contained in Article 14 of the Constitution of this State; and at the said general election the vote on said proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be by ballot and upon each ballot there shall be written or printed the words "For the Constitutional Amendment," and "Against the Constitutional Amendment," so that the voter may elect; and immediately after said election due return shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against said proposed amendment, as directed by the said 14th Article of the Constitution.

Approved, April 9, 1924.

Now, Therefore, I Albert C. Ritchie, Governor of the State of Maryland, in pursuance of the direction contained in Section 1 of Article 14 of the Constitution of Maryland, do hereby order and direct that this Proclamation containing a full, true and correct copy of the text of said Chapter 116 or the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1924 be published in at least two newspapers in each of the counties of the State where so many may be published and where not more than one may be published then in that newspaper, and in three newspapers published in the City of Baltimore, one of which shall be published in the German language, once a week for at least three months next preceding the general election to be held in the State of Maryland on Tuesday the 2nd day of November 1926, at which election the said proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be submitted in form and manner prescribed by the General Assembly, to the legal and qualified voters of the State for their adoption or rejection.

The Great Seal of Maryland

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Maryland. Done at the City of Annapolis this 15th day of July, in the year Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-six.
