KENT HORSE SHOW ATTRACTS HUNDREDS

About a thousand persons attended the Kent County Horse Show on Wm. Toulson's field, near Chestertown, on Saturday. Dr. G. Allan Jarman, of Chestertown, and Sidney Watters, noted Baltimore horseman, acted as judges.

The only untoward incident of the afternoon was a bad spill sustained by Miss Rowena Woods, of near Chestertown, while taking a hurdle. Though she fell under her mount she disdained medical attention and completed the event successfully.

Proceeds of the affair about $300 went to the Kent County Public Health Association. The show was arranged and conducted by the Kent County Horse Show Association, of which Wilbur Ross Hubbard is president, Howard B. Strong, secretary, and Stephen R. Collins, treasurer. Mr. Hubbard's hunter, Bobby, took three blue ribbons.

Summaries, horse, owner and rider:

The Rock Hall Carnival marked another distinct success for its promoters, the Rock Hall Progressive Association. The profits amounting to $2280.00 are pledged to a fund for securing a public water supply for the town. The Association wishes to publicly express its appreciation of the labors of the Carnival Committee working under and inspired by its chairman, W. A. P. Strang. No less credit is due the captains of the many booths and their willing and faithful assistants. The Association wishes particularly to thank the ladies who assisted and who gave so generously of their time and ability. All the workers from the management to store-keepers are entitled to full credit but the final success of the undertaking rested with the people of Rock Hall and neighboring towns who rallied to the cause so wholeheartedly that Rock Hall's first Carnival was a signal success financially and socially.
