THE Organization Ticket

The Kent News presents here the names of the candidates who are asking the votes of the Democratic citizens in the Primary Tuesday. It is important that the people give careful thought and consideration, not only to the issues at stake, but to the fitness, ability and character of the men to be nominated.

The duties of the representatives in our Legislature should be regarded in a serious manner especially when we think of the great number of important questions which will be presented by the people of Maryland to be passed on by Kent's men in conjunction with other rep esentatives.

The men on THE Organization ticket are business men, farmers and watermen who want clean government and to do the things which shall promote the best benefits to the largest numbers.

The head of the Kent county ticket, S. SCOTT BECK, is known to the people of Kent as seldom is the privilege of but few men. He is young, aggressive and intelligent, of high character, enthused with the progressive spirit of the day and will make one of the best representatives Kent has ever had. He acts after mature reflection and consultation with his constituents and will carry out their wishes to the best of his ability.

He was born February 13th, 1883, and after a public school course at Lankford, attended Washington College at which institution he graduated in 1903. He graduated at the Maryland University in 1906 and passed the bar examination of the Court of Appeals in September of the same year. He came to Kent and has been practicing law since. He was elected State's Attorney in 1919 and so well did he conduct the office that he was re-elected in 1923 without opposition. During last term of Court he made a wonderful record in law enforcement and received congratulations on all sides.

He is in sympathy with the advanced position the State has taken in the building of our State highways, i nimproved public institutions in agricultural, fishing and oyster interests, in strengthening our educational system along "home rule" lines, and other constructive legislation, all of which tends to elevate and advance our citizens. At the same time he insists that business methods must be employed and strict economy practiced so that taxes do not become a burden.

He is an advocate of publicity, believing that public sentiment is a true guide and a great protection.

He was elected President of the Chestertown Bank of Maryland, on the death of the late lamented William W. Beck, three years ago, and as head of this large Kent county institution has shown that he is an able banker and financier.

ARTHUR BRICE

of Betterton, as a candidate, for the House of Delegates, is one of Kent's best informed citizens and a man for whom the people of the county can take a just pride in casting their vote. He is well-equipped in every respect to serve his people. He accepts the candidacy in the hope that he may do something for his county and his party. What a worthy aspiration! What a lofty motive! It is a great pleasure to support a man of Mr. Brice's high character and wide reputation for good citizenship. The farmers and business people have in him a man of intelligence and ability to grasp the measures which come before him.

CAPT. CHAS. R. KERR, who has been to Annapolis before, is the special representative of that large class of men who get a livlihood from the water, viz., the fishermen and oystermen. He knows their needs and is able to eloquently present their cause. He is dignified in personal bearing and holds the esteem of the people of Rock Hall district in an enviable degree.

J. PAGE GALE

For Clerk of the Circuit Court to succeed Robert R. Ayres, THE Organization presents J. Page Gale, of near Tolchester. Mr. Gale is an ideal candidate in that he is a farmer, waterman and business man. He was born on the farm where he now resides and for ten years assisted in the management of the concessions at Tolchester which required skill and industry. He is a gentleman of wide acquaintance, a neighbor to everyone and able to attend to the duties of the office for which he is a candidate. He has not made any promises as to deputies but will guarantee that the public will have no complaints to make either in the help employed nor in the conduct of the office.

DR. MERRITT BRICE

The First District Millington, precinct, presents to the people of Kent that stalwart resident, Dr. Merritt Brice as the candidate for Register of Wills.

He was born January 5, 1880, son of W. Tilden Brice. He attended the public school at Lankford, then went for two years at Washington College and graduated in medicine at the University of Maryland in 1907. He located in Millington in 1911 where he has been practicing medicine ever since. He has endeared himself to that community by his unselfish devotion to those in need and unstinted in ministering to the sick. He is a gentleman of good judgment, intelligent and loyal to every local enterprise. He will carry on the work of the Register of Wills office with satisfaction to his friends and be a credit to his party. He is a Democrat and always found fighting for the party and its candidates thru thick and thin. He deserves your vote and what more, will appreciate your support.

CLARENCE NEWSOME

For County Treasurer, Clarence Newsome, of Betterton, is THE Organization candidate, and is a hustler. He is the proprietor of Newsome's Garage at Betterton and a man well and favorably known in nearly all parts of the county. He is a brother to M. Elwood Newsome, of Chestertown, and Louis ant Wm. T. Newsome, of Worton, and has lived at Betterton most of his life. He is well fitted both by education and business training to handle the finances of the county.

SAMUEL J. JOHNSON
T. RINGGOLD JONES
CAPT. WM. H. COOPER

To mention the three candidates for the office of County Commissioners on THE Organization ticket at once calls to the mind the names of three men of integrity, ability and industry, and men who will give the county a conservative service..

Samuel J. Johnson, of Massey, T. Ringgold Jones, of Rock Hall, and Capt. Wm. H. Cooper, of Worton. will conduct the affairs of Kent in such a manner that the people will be convinced of their wise choice.

Samuel J. Johnson, of Massey, and T. Ringgold Jones, of Rock Hall, have been members of the Board of County Commissioners for several years. They are farmers and know the needs of the people. They have given unlimited time and attention to the affairs of Kent and the ability to so manage the business as to bring about a reduction of SIXTEEN CENTS in the tax rate prove their worth. They are now in better position than ever to serve the people because of this experience.

Capt. William H. Cooper, the third member to be voted for on THE Organization ticket, has qualities of fitness for this office that makes his candidacy appeal to a large class of tax-payers. He was a tenant farmer for 14 years under the late R. D. Hynson and for 8 years lived on Buck Neck farm. For 8 years he has been boating and for 20 years followed fishing. He has been a contractor of tomatoes and always a friend of the growers. He is thus fitted by experience to represent, not only the farming class, but also the watermen and others. Capt. Cooper is a remarkable citizen, reared in the school of "hard-knocks" and having an appreciation of the tax-payers' burdens.

If the people of Kent want an administration that will be conducted in a business and economical manner and in the interest of no class or clique they should nominate Samuel J. Johnson, T. Ringgold Jones and Capt. Wm. H. Cooper as County Commissioners.

STEPHEN ROBERTS COLLINS

One of the most important offices in Kent is that of State's Attorney. He stands between the people and that class of citizens who have no regard for law and who break it with impunity. Every community tries to place this duty in the hands of a man who is conscientious and who appreciates the responsibilities of the office. In Kent county THE Organization recommends to the voters Stephen Roberts Collins, of Chestertown. The naming of Mr. Collins as the candidate is quite interesting. It was generally supposed that another well-known lawyer would be the candidate but he declined. Not only did this well-known lawyer decline, but after conferring with fellow members of the bar not candidates themselves, with their approval, endorsed in the highest terms Stephen Roberts Collins and he was accepted.

Mr. Collins is a son of R. Harrison and Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts Collins of Chestertown. He graduated as valedictorian in his class of 1915 at Washington College, after attending public school here. He was employed as secretary to one of the vice-presidents of the Dupont Co. in Wilmington for three years and served his company satisfactorily.

Upon the declaration of war with Germany he enlisted in the Air Service of the Army where he served until February, 1919, three months after the Armistice. He returned to his position with the Dupont Co. and remained a year, leaving to take up the study of law. He graduated at the Maryland University, passed the Bar in 1824 and has been practicing ever since. Mr. Collins, if nominated and elected, will in our opinion, make a very efficient State's Attorney, as he has shown ability and skill in the trial of cases and court work generally. His chief endeavor will be to serve the people of Kent and to promote the best interests of his constituents and to faithfully discharge the full measure of his duty toward them. Such purity of motive devoid of self aggrandizement, should win the approval of all elements of society. His visits to various parts of the county are winning friends for him and impressing the public with his sincerity and loyalty to those with whom he is associated.

J. THOMAS HADAWAY

Next, to the State's Attorney and the Court in importance in enforcing the law, comes that of the Sheriff. THE Organization presents that fighter, J. Thomas Hadaway, who has proven by past two terms that he knows how to conduct the sheriff's office. He is of good old-time Democratic stock and will give to the office his best service.

DR. EDW. A. SCOTT,
J. H. THOMPSON,
JAMES H. GROVES

Continuing the references to the men on THE Organization ticket, we come to that important office of Judge of the Orphans. For this position the News recommends heartily Dr. Edward A. Scott, of Galena, J. Henry Thompson, of Rock Hall, and James H. Groves, of Kennedville, as Judges of this Court. Dr. Scott's fitness is so well recognized that the Antis have endorsed his candidacy. For his associates, J. Henry Thompson and James H. Groves are well and favorably known to the voters. Mr. Thompson has served the public faithfully with Dr. Scott and is better fitted because of his service and will add strength to the Democratic ticket. James H. Groves has been farming in Kent for many years while he and his people are Democrats of long standing. He is a man of good judgment and will give to the Court his earnest, honest and undivided attention.

STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE

The State Central Committee is the head of the party, has charge of the details of registration and of managing in a general way the affairs of the Democratic party in Kent. For this important position THE Organization presents the following splendid candidates: Mrs. Ella M. Thomas, of Rock Hall; Mrs. Pricie M. Watson, of Fairlee; Mrs. Jennie B. Whaland, of Chestertown; Elmer S. Jarman, of Galena; George R. Rasin, of Kennedyville; Charles F. Wheatley, of Chestertown. The voters may rest assured that these men and ladies will give the party good management.

DELEGATES TO STATE CONVENTION

For Delegates to State Convention THE Organization have three men hard to excell — Charles L. Dodd Robert R. Walbert and Morris H Cooper. These are the cap sheaf to the elegant array of candidates presented to the voters in the Democratic Primaries to be held September 14th.

THE Organization in Kent stands for law and order. State's Attorney S. Scott Beck, the candidate for Senate, has behind him a consistent record of duties well performed. His independence of thought and act are too well-known for the inendoes of puppet and pawn to hurt. His character is too high for the slurring attempts to impugn his motives to succeed. He is sincere, honest and straight-forward. He has fought his way up from a farmer's boy and knows the value of a dollar. He is the type that wears well.

Kent is certainly fortunate in being able to secure the consent of a well-known lawyer to serve as representative at Annapolis. A number of counties have business men to serve in this capacity, but in all cases these men rely on lawyers to advise them in the framing of legislation. Kent stands out as a leader among the other counties and with Mr. Beck in the Senate would wield a strong influence and get most anything desired.

He is making a great sacrifice in this matter but is willing to do so if he can serve his fellow Democrats. His eminent fitness for the position is acknowledged by friend and foe. In him the people of this county would have a representative unsurpassed by any other county in the State; a credit to his party and county.

His associates are also men of high character and will make worthy representatives.

Primary Election Tuesday

The Kent News and THE Organization Candidates have conducted a dignified and fair campaign. THE Organization has so conducted their fight that no sore spots will remain to be reflected in the general election. Personal attacks, implying of selfish or untrue motives and things of like character are not only hurtful to the party, but they are things that no gentleman will indulge in, and in the end will prove harmful to the parties spreading or the ones they are spread about with a mistaken idea of helping.

In the whole catalogue of crimes there can be found nothing more contemptible than an attempt to injure a man's good name by spreading what is nothing but propaganda. The injury to a man's fair name is a poison, "without remedy, without antidote, without evasion." No being sorry afterwards can return to the man injured what you have taken from him.

The Salisbury Advertiser well says, "Candidates who have not enough merit and qualities in themselves for them and their friends to talk about and dwell upon without attacking, in a personal way, their opponents, are not fit for public office."

Let the individual voter, who believes in the party because he regards it as the best medium for the transaction of public business, weigh the merits of the candidates, and the welfare of the party as a whole, cast his or her vote in accordance with the conclusion thus arrived.

Music Pupils Ecel In Scholarship

Students of music are 25 per cent efficient in their school work than children who have never taken any music lessons, it is shown in an exhaustive analysis of school grades of Springfield, Mo., high school pupils made by the Conn Music Center at Elkhart, Ind. Music study was found not only to improve the grades, but also to rank high as a mental stimulant in other ways.

More than 20 per cent of the 348 students in the High and Junior High Schools of Springfield have studied music for six months, or more. The general average of the grades of the Springfield High Schools was found to be 82 per cent, while the average grade for those studying music was three points higher. Since 70 is the minimum grade and 82 the general average, there is a differential of only 12 points, and the actual superiority of the three points on the part of the music students in their general school work indicates an approximate increase in efficiency of 25 per cent.

Of the pupils studying music, by far the largest number take piano. Violin is next in favor, and cornet, clarinet, saxaphone and trombone follow in the order named.
