FIREMEN'S PARADE ECLIPSE ALL OTHER SHORE EVENTS

Chestertown did itself proud on Thursday in the big parade staged by the Volunteer Firemen under the direction of Wm. H. Elliott. It was sure some sight and proved interesting to the hundreds who lined the wide avenues and streets of the town. More autos were parked in town than ever before reaching nearly to the College o none street and to the Catholic Church o nHigh St. The town was encircled by the motor cars.

First came Edmund Hurtt on horseback as chief marshell followed by the hunters and polo players, then came the school children with fancy caps, lanterns, etc., 20 camp fire girls in white with their leader, Miss Doris Bell, the four Kent beauties next, Rev. C. L. Atwater with his troop of scouts, Dr. Paul E. Titsworth with the Rotarians, College boys, business men, etc., etc., followed by firemen from Smyrna, Newark, Denton, Harrington, St. Michaels, Elkton, Havre de Garce, Perryville, Clayton, Middletown and a few others.

Chestertown's band of seven weeks training under Prof. Schlosser was a wonder and received an ovation all along the line. G. A. Bacon and Jim Allen driving the grey to a hose reel and Charles Miller with his mules to the old engine created much interest.

The prizes awarded were as follows: Havre de Grace, coming longest distance; Middletown, best appearance; Denton best band; Elkton, most men in line. The judges were W. A. P. Strang, R. R. Hill and Carroll Catlin.

There were eight bands who furnished music during the evening.

The receipts were $1829, a little over last year.

All who helped in anyway are to be congratulated.
