Kent News

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1926

With the rapid approach of winter it is vital that property owners should look to their chimneys to see that they are clean and safe. A great deal of worry will thus be saved householders to say nothing of unnecessary runs our firemen will save.

Vote the full Democratic ticket and thus give your answer to the charge of disloyalty. The Republicans cannot win except by Democratic votes. Their candidates for commissioner are as much against Mr. Wood as against others. Therefore vote for Wood, Johnson and Jones. They are good men and can fill the office with ability.

Senator Weller "The Absentee Senator's" Record

Persons familiar with the record of Senator O. E. Weller, Republican candidate for the United States Senate, know that in the five years of his term he hasbeen absent over half the time when votes on important matters were being taken affecting the taxes, welfare and interests of the people of Maryland.

A sample of how Senator Weller neglects to safeguard the interests of his people is again disclosed by his absence record while the tax-reduction bill was being considered in the senate. Among the matters voted on and upon which Senator Weller did not vote either way are the following:

For example, (a) increase of personal exemption. When this amendment was voted on, Senator Weller was absent and did not vote.

For examle, (b) gifts and inheritance amendment. When this question arose, Senator Weller was absent and did not vote.

For example, (c) amendment to discontinue taxes on transportation. When this question arose, Senator Weller was absent and did not vote.

For example, (d) amendment striking out taxes on telephone, telegraph and radio messages. When this amendment came up, Senator Weller was absent and did not vote.

For example, (e) amendment reducing taxes on sales of stock. When this question came up, Senator Weller was absent and did not vote.

For example, (f) amendment striking out foreign trade corporations. When this statement arose, Senator Weller was absent and did not vote.

For example, (g) merger of corporations. When this question came up, Senator Weller was absent and di dnot vote.

For example, (h) hotels and lodgings amendment. When this amendment arose, Senator Weller was absent and did not vote.

For example, (i) reduction for losses amendment. When this question came up, Senator Weller was absent and did not vote.

For example, (j) bonds and securities amendment. When this amendment arose, Senator Weller was absent and did not vote.

For example, (k) estate tax amendment. When this amendment arose. Senator Weller was absent and did not vote.

Finally, on the passage of this tax reduction revenue bill, affecting every taxpayer, Senator Weller was absent and did not vote.

Colonel Tydings, the Democratic nominee for the United States Senate, who is opposing Weller in view of Weller's absenteeism will no doubt receive the solid support of his own party against Weller but all Republicans as well who are not so hide bound as to put their party's success ahead of the Welfare of Maryland and the nation. Colonel Tydings was present and voting on all provisions of the tax reduction bills.

The following action of a sister college is respectfully submitted to Washington College authorities.

There will be no more hazing at the Men's College, University of Delaware, and only class fights authorized and supervised by the Student Council will be permitted, a rule to that effect having been announced by officials of the college Wednesday. Warning was also given that violation of this rule will render the offenders liable to dismissal.

This notice has been sent by Dean Dutton to parents of students asking their co-operation in carrying out the no-hazing rule: "I am writing to call your attention to the following rule of the Faculty of the University of Delaware and to ask your co-operation in carrying it out. The President, the Dean, and the Faculty of Delaware are determined to prohibit physical violence and hazing that are likely to result in injury."

Declaration of Principles

The following resolutions were adopted:

We, the representatives of the Republican party of Kent County, the State of Md., in convention duly assembled in Chestertown, Md., Sept. 25th, 1926, for the purpose of nominating a ticket to be voted on in the approaching November Election, do hereby subscribe to the following declaration of principles.

First of all, we believe that the paramount issue in this campaign to be law enforcement.

We therefore give our unqualified endorsement to the 18th Amendment and the Volstead Act. Since the passage of this law we as patriotic citizens of this great state have been made to feel most keenly the disgrace that has come to us as a result of the failure of officials both high and low who took a solemn oath to uphold the consitiution, of both state and nation, but who have deliberately winked at the open violation of the law. Upon two occasions Gov. Ritchie has served notice upon the President of the U. S. that this law can not be enforced in Md. The logic of this statement is on two things. First: that the U. S. Government is powerless to enforce its own laws, a position which no intelligent, self-respecting man can believe and admit. Second: that it shall not be enforced, which position is nothing short of anarchy. And all intelligent people of Kent Co., know that the attitude of our Governor has been reflected in the attitude of our local enforcement officers.

For even should we grant local officers are not obliged to enforce the Federal law, they surely are bound by their oath of office to enforce teh State and County laws against the sale of intoxicants, which laws were not repealed by the passage of the 18th Amendment.

It is with shame that we have to confess that the bootlegger has been made to feel that he is immune to prosecution in Kent County.

In the second place: We give our hearty endorsement to the Corrupt Practice Act of this State. It is current report that at the recent primary election held on the 14th day of September, 1926, there was a wholesale purchase of the electorate in practically every precinct of this county.

And, we the Republican party of Kent Co., do hereby pledge the people of the county that we will not spend one dollar in the approaching general election for the purpose of corruption. We also, assure the public that in nominating a ticket we have exercised special care that each candidate chosen is in perfect sympathy with this declaration of principles.

In the third place: We feel that men entrusted with the business of the levy court should by all means be men of probity and large business experience. We pledge the tax payers that if our party be put in control of this branch of our county government there shall be an honest and economical management of our fiscal affairs.

In conclustion, in presenting these principles and in naming these candidates for the offices to be filled in the November election, we make our appeal to all good thinking people of Kent Co., to put their conscience above their party, and help us redeem our beloved county from a condition which is deplorable beyond our power to describe.

Published by authority of Republican State Central Committee, Robt. R. Hill, Treasurer.
