It is said that "ox-warble" fly does attack not only cattle but also men and children. They generally sting cattle in the hoof, the grubs hatch and work their way around through the body. With the men and children the grubs work their way from the legs through the body to the back, stomach, root of tongue and teeth. Fly-Tox from your retailer, always in bottles with blue label.

MRS. BASSETT ALWAYS TIRED

Now in Good Health by Using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lansing, Michigan.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound whenever I needed it. When I first used it I was so bad I could hardly walk across the room without crying. I was tired all the time. I think my trouble was coming on me for six months before I realized it. I read of your wonderful medicine in the paper, and * * * my husband bought me a bottle, and after the first few doses I felt better, so kept on taking it until I was well and strong. I take it at times when I feel tired and it helps me. I will always have a good word for your medicine and tell anyone what good it has done me. I recommended it to my neighbor for her girl, who is sixteen years old, and it was just what she needed. She is feeling fine now, and goes to school every day."—Mrs. E. F. Bassett, 216 South Hayford Avenue, Lansing, Michigan.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our dear mother, Anna C. Dickerson, who died one year ago October 14, 1925.

MOTHER

It was early on Wednesday morning
Which I shall never forget that day,
When the angels came and whispered
We must take your dear mother away;
Mother, if you only knew
Of the trials I've been through,
How my heart has ached with pain,
How I hope that I can gain
A place in heaven there with you,
Where we know that all is true.
Many a tear I shed for thee,
No one else can tell but me,
Short and serious was the spell,
Of my dear mother I loved so well,
The blow was hard, the shock severe,
I little thought that death was near.
By her loving daughter, Bertha.

A happy home I once enjoyed,
A voice I loved i sstill,
A place is vacant in my home,
This world can never fill.
Your hands that did so much for me,
How helplessly they lay,
God knew they worked continuously,
But they are gone today.
By her loving son, Charles.

Unknown and forgotten by some you may be,
But the grave that contains you will never be forgotten by me.
You don't know the sorrow to be left alone,
Until God sends a message to your home.
It is hard when he calls for one or the other,
But its hardest of all when he calls your mother.
By her loving daughter, Leone.

In loving remebrance of our little girl, Anna May Knox, died 5 years ago October 13, 1921. Gone but not forgotten.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we love is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
By her Mother and Father.

Darling sister, she has left us,
Left us, yes, for evermore;
But we hope to meet her
On that bright and happy shore.
By her three Brothers.

Senator Weller "The Absentee Senator's" Record

Notwithstanding that Senator Weller is flooding the voters with appeals for their support it is generally well known now that Senator Weller refused to look after the interests of these Maryland voters by being absent from the senate and not voting over one half the time. On the tariff bill he missed in the five months it was under consideration over 90 per cent reduction of taxes are also well understood by most people. In December, 1925, Senator Weller sent out a circular letter to Maryland voters saying he was in favor of the repeal of the publicity of income tax returns provisons of the tax bill. In that letter Senator Weller said speaking of this provision:

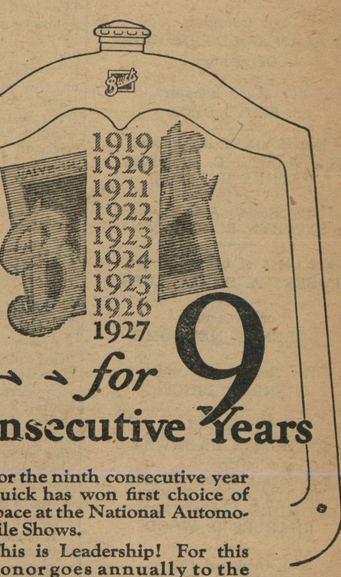

It is unwarranted interference with a man's private affairs. I am unalterably opposed to such iniquitous and unAmerican legislation..

Pure political propaganda. When the time came to vote for the repeal Senator Weller was absent, as usual, and on May 2, 1924, failed to go to the senate and vote when it was under consideration.

Colonel Millard E. Tydings, the Democratic candidate for the senate against Weller, has been a member of the House of Representatives for the past four years. He was the only member of the House to speak against publicity of income tax returns and he voted against it also in 1924 and 1926. Colonel Tydings looked after his people by being present and voting. Weller wrote letters stating what he would do and then was absent as usual.

Colonel Tydings' record will gain him much support. Weller, who is becoming to be known as "the absentee senator" will, because of his failure to look after his people's interest, lose much support even from Republicans.
