Telephones Used More by Railroads

(1) Trainman calling dispatcher for orders, using portable telephone set. (2) The dispatcher at the switchboard. (3) Towerman copying a telephone train order. (Photos courtesy Southern Railway Company.)

Greater use is now being made of the telephone in the operation of the railroads of this country than ever before and this has contributed substantially to the efficiency with which the rail carriers are being operated, according to a report just submitted to the annual convention of the Telephone & Telegraph Section of the American Railway Association at Swampscott, Mass.

Class I railroads in 1925 had 132,850 miles of telephone lines, used for the transmission of train orders, an increase of more than 13,000 miles compared with 1920. Telegraph lines used for such purposes in 1925 totaled 121,521 miles, a decrease of more than 13,000 miles compared with 1920.

In using the telephone instead of the telegraph for train dispatching, the information is handled in less time, less training is required to handle the telephone efficiently, there is less physical and mental strain on the dispatchers in making the calls, and operators who have become incapacitated as good telegraph operators are still able to handle the business by telephone efficiently. In the event of emergencies in train operation, the train conductor or engineman, using a way station or portable telephone, can give first hand information to the dispatcher or superintendent more intelligently, with less excitement and in less time than with the telegraph. There is more of a personal feeling and better esprit de corps developed between the dispatchers, the different operators and the train crews than is possible with the telegraph, with obvious results.

WHEREAS, at the January Session of the General Assembly of Maryland, held in the year 1924, an act was passed, to-wit: Chapter 116 proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Maryland, by adding a new section to Article 4, to follow section 31 and to be known as Section 31-A, granting authority to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to pay each of the judges of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore additional salaries; in words and figures as follows:

CHAPTER 116

AN ACT to amend the Constitution of Maryland by adding a new section to Article 4.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, three-fifths of all the members of both Houses concurring, that the following section be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Maryland, and if adopted by the legal and qualified voters thereof, as hereinafter provided, the same shall stand as an additional section to Article 4 of said Constitution to follow section 31 and to be known as Section 31-A.

31-A. In addition to the authority granted to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore by the preceding section to pay to each of the judges of the Supreme Bench the annual sum of Five Hundred Dollars, authority is hereby given to said Mayor and City Council to pay to each of said judges such further annual sum as an additional to their respective salaries as the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall from time to time deem right and proper, provided, that any such sum being once granted shall not be diminished during the continuance of said judges in office.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that the said foregoing section hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution shall be, at the next general election for members of the General Assembly to be held in this State, submitted to the legal and qualified voters thereof, for their adoption or rejection, in pursuance of the directions contained in Article 14 of the Constitution of this State; and at the said general election the vote on said proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be by ballot and upon each ballot there shall be written or printed the words "For the Constitutional Amendment," and "Against the Constitutional Amendment," so that the voter may elect; and immediately after said election due return shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against said proposed amendment, as directed by the said 14th Article of the Constitution.

Approved, April 9, 1924.

Now, Therefore, I, Albert C. ORDER OF PUBLICATION

Thomas W. J. Perry
vs.
Ethel Marie (Johnson) Perry

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, In Equity, No. 2432.

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled case is to procure a Decree for Divorce a vinculo matrimonii.

The Bill states:

1. That on the 17th day of July, 1920, Thomas W. J. Perry was married to his wife, Ethel Marie (Johnson) Perry, at Chestertown, Kent county, Maryland, by Rev. Omar E. Jones, a duly ordained minister of the Gospel, and with whom he resided in Chestertown, Kent county, Maryland, until some time in the year 1921.

2. That though the conduct of your orator towards his wife, the said Ethel Marie (Johnson) Perry has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach, the said Ethel Marie (Johnson) Perry has, without just cause or reason, abandoned him, and has declared her intention to live with him no longer, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for at least five years, and is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation.

3. That your orator and the said defendant, Ethel Marie (Johnson) Perry had one child born to them by said marriage, whose name is Myrtle Marie Perry, aged five years, and who at the time of filing this Bill of Complaint, is residing with said defendant and her mother, at Buffalo, State of New York, and who is receiving good motherly care and attention by the said defendant and her mother.

4. That the said defendant, Ethel Marie (Johnson) Perry is a non-resident of the State of Maryland.

5. That your orator is a resident of Kent county, Maryland, where he has lived all his life.

It is thereupon, this 29th day of September 1926, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent Counuty, once in each of four successive weeks before the 1st day of November next, give notice to the said Ethel Marie (Johnson) Perry, non-resident, Defendant, warning her to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 15th day of November next, to show cause if any she has, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
