A Chapter of Accidents

An 18-year-old colored lad, Irving, employed by J. C. Loud at "Riverside," met with a serious accident while being initiated in a colored lodge in Chestertown recently. His eye was punctured by a sword and he was compelled to go to a Baltimore hospital for treatment. At last reports he had lost his eye.

Wesley Derry, another employe of Mr. Loud, the same week fractured his knee cap and had to go to Easton Hospital for treatment. Wesley was driving home when his horse took fright from a potota digger, ran away and kicked the driver on the knee.

Taking his father's shotgun from their home on the Wood farm, near Wye Mills, the 8-year-old son of George Wilson, colored, in some manner blew off his head when the weapon was accidentally discharged Friday morning.

Little Charles Shaffer, nephew of Mrs. Simon Westcott, fell off his bicycle last week and broke his arm.

A Family Re-union Dinner

One of the happiest affairs in Kent county this past week was a family re-union dinner given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. W. Biggers on Wood Chester farms near Millington. A typical Maryland Thanksgiving dinner from a beautifully browned thirty-pound turkey to pumpkin pie served the guests: S. C. Willis, the father, Mrs. S. A. Willis, the mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Biggers and son, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Willis and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. Irving Willis and son, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Willis and children, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Davis and son, Mr. and Mrs. W. Houston Pote and children, Mr. and Mrs. S. Ivan Willis and Henry O. D. Willis.

In the evening a supper was served including a very large and beautiful pink iced pound cake and ice cream. There was a program. The children, the eldest being nine years old sang and recited. A beautiful psalm was read. Captain Milbourne Willis and wife gave a number of saxaphone and piano duets. "A sing" by firelight of old time hymns and songs, the accompanist being Mrs. J. W. Biggers, each member of the party did his bit. The dining room and living room were beautifully decorated with autumn leaves chrysanthemums and trailing ferns.

A very enjoyable evening was spent by all. The party broke up in early morning hours in order for Captain M. L. Willis to take train from Wilmington to Philadelphia, where his ship was docked at the time, and Ivan Willis, who is an negineer for the U. S. Shipping Board, whose ship was also in a Chester shipyard for repairs.

R. Irving Willis was master of ceremonies and was voted to act in the same capacity and as secretary for another dinner to be given at the home of Captain and Mrs. Willis in Baltimore next year.

New Steamer On Chester River

The Steamer Chester, owned by the Southern Maryland Transportation Company, Inc., made its first trip up the Chester river on Tuesday. The new steamer will make two trips each way between Baltimore and Chestertown every week. The schedule issued by the company calls for the boat to leave Baltimore, pier 4 Pratt street, every Tuesday and Thursday, at 12 o'clock for Chestertown. The return trip will be made, leaving the local steamboat wharf every Wednesday and Friday at 7 a m. The trip consumes about 5 hours.

The last regular steamboat to travel the Chester river was the Steamer General Lincoln. The Linconl made her last trip over the local waterway on July 24, 1925.

Scientific Palmistry
Lately arrived in this city to do good for the public by his wonderful powers in reading the history of one's life by examining the hand. He tells the past, present and future. Also gives advice on all affairs of life. such as love affairs, business matters, family affairs, wills and divorces and most everything pertaining to the welfare of one's life. The Bible speaks in many places of the power of the palmist to predict the future things and give warnings. He tells you the initial of your companion, whether true or false; tells you what business you are best adapted to and all about absent friends, whether living or dead. Tells you what planet you were born under, what part of the country is luckiest for you. This phenomenally gifted man is now located in your city and can be consulted on all affairs of life. He tells the color of the eyes and hair of your future wife or husband and gives initials of names. Also answers any and all questions. Call and consult this gifted palmist on all affairs of life.
A true Palmist is born. I am different from all others, because I not only read your life like a book, but also help you out of your troubles. For instance, what good would it do you to be told you had a rival or enemy in your path unless you were told how to overcome them; or, in case you wanted to win he love of a certain one, would you be satisfied to be told it? Or, would you rather know how you could win your desire I am able to point out the path to success and happiness.
