Senator-Elect MILLARD E. TYDINGS

REMARKABLE CAREER OF SENATOR TYDINGS

Havre de Grace gave its distinguished citizen, Senator Tydings, a big reception and parade Tuesday night in honor of his election to the U. S. Senate. The career of Senator Tydings is remarkablt and is summed up in an article in the Democratic Ledger under the affectionate heading "Our Boy:"

"We believe we express the sentiment so every individual—man, woman and child in Havre de Grace and Harford county—when we say "Congratulations, Chief," following the election on Tuesday when our boy, our hero, our warrior, Col. Millard E, Tydings was elected to the United States Senate by the biggest vote ever received by a Marylander for this high office.

Millard Tydings, known among his thousands of friends as "Chief," is perhaps the most widely known and most popular of Maryland's sons, and his election to a seat in the greatest deliberative body in the land is the greatest joy to his home folks.

He will be perhaps the youngest man in the Senate, as he is only thirty-six years old.

Col. Tydings' life while covering only a short space seems like a fairy story, and his career stands almost without a parallel, as far as political activity is concerned. At an early age after attending the public schools of Havre de Grace, he secured a scholarship to the then Maryland Agricultural College (now the University of Maryland) where he took all honors that were offered and in four years was graduated with the highest rating. Upon returning to Havre de Grace he accepted a position as civil engineer with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company where he was employed for a short time.

Giving up the engineer work he began the study of law at the University of Maryland Law School where he also finished near the top of his class.

Immediately after passing the State Bar Association he came to his home here and "hung out his shingle" where he began building up a substantial law practice.

Having a desire for politics he shortly announced himself as a candidate for the House of Delegates, winning the nomination and election by a handsome vote.

Before another session of the Legislature, the Mexican trouble came on and Col. Tydings was the first to volunteer for service. Serving as a private he was soon promoted to a sergeant and in a few months returned to his home in Havre de Grace to resume his law practice.

In the spring of 1917 when war was declared with Germany, he responded to the call and his promotion from a sergeant to a captain quickly followed. When he landed in France he was promoted to Major, in command of a machine gun battalion and just before the armistice was signed November 11, 1918, he was raised to a Lieutenant-Colonel and was cited several times for bravery in action.

He has been given the distinguished Service Medal and other medals for his splendid work while in the trenches.

After the close of war, Col. Tydings was again elected to the House of Delegates, and was named its Speaker. His next political promotion was to the State Senate where he served one term ,resigning to accept the nomination for Congress from the Second Maryland District. He is now completing his second term in Congress where ne has attracted nation wide attention for his power as a speaker. He has another year to serve in the lower House of Congress when he will be the Junior Senator from Maryland in the Upper House. The prominent place occupied by Senator-elect Tydings was got by merit alone, he having been the son of poor parents, and all that he has today he has had to battle for. He is a shrewd, keen-thinking politician, and we firmly believe he will go further, as even his political enemies have to admit that he is a two-fisted fighter with plenty of brains and the "intestional stamina" necessary to win political battles.

He is a fighter when he feels he is right on any public matter, but at the same time he is a lovable son and a sympathetic brother, never failing to help even those who may oppose him.

"Chief," your city is proud of you and may you live long and continue to bring lasting honors to your parents, your sisters, your town and your county and your State."

TWO HOMES MADE HAPPY

By Women Who Used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I think it is the most wonderful medicine I ever tried," is the statement made by Mrs. Goldie Shoup of May View, Illinois. She declares that after taking the Compound she is in better health than before.

Mrs. J. Storms of 29 Lane Street, Paterson, N. J., writes: "I can not speak too highly of your medicine and I recommend it to all my friends."

These statements were taken from two enthusiastic letters which tell of the help that has been received from using the Vegetable Compound. Both Mrs. Shoup and Mrs. Storms were in a run-down condition which caused them much unhappiness. When women are suffering from lack of strength and from weakness, their own life and that of their family is affected. When they feel well and strong and are able to do their housework easily, happy homes are the result.

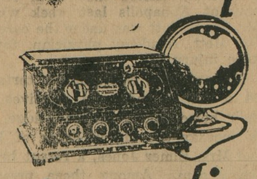

Thousands of testimonial letters have been received from women in different walks of life, stating that the Compound has helped them.
