LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

In the Kent News last week a caution was published by E. Joseph Watson, game warden for Kent, warning gunners not to trespass upon the Bartus Trew farm under penalty of $100 for each offense and, as the place is already well supplied with both rabbits and partridges, it seems certain that at a very little expense to the State the place can be converted into a most successful preserve. Stock rabbits and birds will shortly be liberated and a caretaker has been employed to superintend the work.

A GREAT RADIO NIGHT

Millions of persons were able to attend by radio Monday night one of the greatest free performances ever given. Twenty-two stations were linked together for simultaneous broadcasting of a pretensious program, beginning at 8 o'clock. The event marked the formal taking over by the National Broadcasting Co. of station WEAF, which the company acquired two weeks ago for $1,000,000.

The program opened with brief remarks by Merlin Hall Aylesworth, president of the National Broadcasting Co., in the grand ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria, where each of the announcers of WEAF and WJZ took his turn before the microphone.

The first number was by the New York Symphony Orchestra, which gave four numbers, and assisted some of the singers. The New York Oratoria Society furnished three numbers. Harold Bauer, pianist, appeared with the orchestra and in solos.

Other artists were: Titta Ruffo, baritone of the Metropolitan Opera Co., and Mary Garden, soprano of the Chicago Civic Opera Co. Miss Garden sang from Chicago. Will Rogers gave "fifteen minutes with a diplomat" from the dressing room of the theatre in which he is appearing in Independance, Kan.

During the latter half of the program, the Light Opera Co., the Goldman Band, Weber and Fields and others provided entertainment.

KDKA's signals were broadcast in England and South Africa.

At the regular meeting of the Samuel Turbutt Wright Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, held last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ramie Ziesal, near Chester Bridge, Miss Ella Roberts, Regent, and Mrs. Austin F. Roberts, and Miss Mearns, were chosen delegates to the Maryland State Convention which will be held at the Belvedere Hotel, in Baltimore in March, and Mrs. Jennie Clough, Mrs. C. H. Metcalfe and Mrs. Day were chosen alternates.

In sad but loving remembrance of aur little son, George Jonas Knox, who departed this life 10 years ago Nov. 19, 1926. Gone, but not forgotten.

Dear is the grave,
Where our darling is laid,
Sweet is the memory,
That never shall fade.
Flowers may fade, drop and die,
Friends may forget you,
But never shall we.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of my dear father, Barrett Smith, who departed this life three years ago November 17th, 1923.

How happy I was in days gone by
When our circle was fully complete,
But now it is broken, you have gone
To sleep at the Saviour's feet.
Though you left me, precious loved one,
Though I hear your voice no more
I am safe in my confiding
That we will meet on yonder shore.
Dear father, how I miss you,
None but God will ever know
If tears and sighs would bring you back,
You would have been here long ago.
Loving daughter, Marguerite.

Thirty-four more days until Christmas. Do your shopping early.
