Crumpton: Special evangelistic services continued every night next week at the Crumpton M. E. Church. This week the services are held nightly at the Crumpton M. P. Church. We hope to have everybody from all four churches: Crumpton M. E. and M. P. and Double Creek M. E. and M. P. to attend services each night. Visiting preachers and singers will assist our singers, preachers and members. We plan to have Revs. Grant of Church Hill, Hearn, of Middletown, Mumford, of Clayton, Baker, of Millington, Rowlenson, of Chincoteague, and Corkran, of Chestertown to assist us in these meetings. Cottage prayer meetings on Monday and Wednesday afternoons from 2.30 to 3.30 at the home of Bro. William Godwin and at the parsonage. "Mother's Night" will be held on Tuesday night. Every mother is urged to attend. There will be ribbons both pink and white for folks who can't get flowers. On Thursday night we will have "School Night." Every pupil in the Crumpton and Double Creek schools is urged to be present and help sing songs taught them by the committee. On Friday night the Sunday schools from the four churches are invited. The Superintendents of the schools will arrange the details. Rev. J. T. Rowlenson, of Chincoteague, Va., will preach to us on "School Night," and we expect Dr. Wilbur F. Corkran to preach to us on "Sunday School Night," Friday evening. Let's have large crowds and real consecration services. The merchants have closed their stores. Now, will you do youru part?

Episcopal Church Revivals Begun

Prayer services were held Tuesday in all Episcopal Churches throughout the country for the success of the "Bishops' Crusade," a nationwide movement, beginning January 6th, against the "license of the times" and "to reawaken the entire membership of the church to their Christian obligations."

Meetings and conferences will be conducted by 200 church leaders during January and February at strategic points throughout the country to the end that every listed member of the church be urged to renew the pledges he made at confirmation.

In an announcement outlining the purpose of the movement, the committee on evangelism of the Protestant Episcopal Church says the fundamentals of the existing social order are threatened by an age in which "license has come to take the place of liberty and the well-ordered desciplines of domestic and social life are not only disregarded but defied."

The Christian Church faces a serious situation the commission holds inasmuch as "its authority is challenged, and the very fundamental things upon which its fabric rests called in question. An age that is filled with speculations and doubt calls for a fresh and persistent affirmation of the great imperatives of our Christian faith."

The regular monthly meeting of the Emmanuel Branch of Woman's Auxiliary will be held in the parish house on Monday afternoon, Dec. 6 at three o'clock. Will the members please be prepared to pay or send their dues to Mrs. Thomas G. Wroth, treasurer.

The Rev. S. S. Hepbron, D. D., will conduct the services in St. Clement's Church, Massey, and The Chapel of the Holy Cross, Millington, at the usual hours on Sunday, December 5.

Chestertown M. E. Church, the order of services tomorrow will be as follows: 10 a. m. Sunday school, 11 a. m. reception of new members followed by the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper; 7.30 p. m. preaching by the pastor followed by an old fashion revival service. Next Wednesday evening some novel features will be introduced into the prayer meeting Jr. and Epworth League on Friday evening.

Kennedyville M. P. Church. 10 a. m. Sunday school, 11 a. m. sermon by Dr. Trout, 7 p. m. C. E., topic "Character, How Form It? What Effects It?" led by the president, Mrs. Geo. Johnston, followed with sermon by the pastor. Don't forget this is "Golden Rule" Sunday. On Monday evening a nominative committee met at Mrs. Johnston's home to arrange for the Christian Endeavor officers for the coming year. They will be elected at the next business meeting.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad and loving memory of our dear mother, Susie Moffett, who departed this life Dec. 8, 1923.
This date recalls sad memories
Of a loved one gone to rest;
Those who think of you today
Are ones who loved you best.
What would we give to clasp your hand,
Your dear sweet face to see,
Your loving smile, your gentle way,
That meant so much to us.
Dearly loved and sadly missed by her son, Albert, and Wife. 1t
