MONKEY BUSINESS

Walter Coakley, assistant chief of Susquehanna Hose Company, this city, on Wednesday had the most exciting moment he has experienced for many a day. He was hunting near Havre de Grace when he was startled by a strange animal rushing up a large tree. Throwing his gun to his shoulder and quickly pulling the trigger he was supprised to find that he had shot a monkey. A monkey escaped from the Downie Bros. Circus in winters quarters here and it is thought the animal belonged to the show. Mr. Coakley says it is foolish for one to travel to the African jungles when you are liable to find anything in the wilds of Harford county. —Ledger.

Church Hill Man Crosses Country In Marine Plane

To First Lieutenant Wm. J. Wallace, of Church Hill, goes the honor of being the first Queen Anne's countian to cross the continent in an airplane. Lt. Wallace landed last week at Quantico, Va., after having flown from the U. S. Naval Air Station, San Diego, Cal.

Lieutenant Wallace, who has been in the aviation service for the past six years, for three years at San Diego, was chosen to pilot one of the six airplanes that left San Diego on November 15th, for Quantico.

On reaching Kelly Field, Texas. Mr. Wallace wired relatives in Wilmington and the county that he expected to be in Quantico in time to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with his father in Wilmington ,and on Wednesday he went to Wilmington and Saturday and Sunday was in Church Hill, where he was the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Katie Wallace.

Besides the driver each ship carried one other man, and their purpose in coming east was to pilot 12 planes to the West Coast. Wednesday morning the 12 ships took off from Quantico for San Diego, in four formations, with the Queen Anne's man leading one of them.

Lt. Wallace is a son of William D. Wallace, formerly of this county, but more recently of Wilmington. He is a grandson of the late Wm. A. Wallace, of Church Hill. He was at Quantico during a part of the World War and was later located at San Domingo. He has been in the service eleven years, six of which time has been in the Aviation.

The trip was uneventual with the excention of a severe snow storm which the planes encountered at St. Louis, Mo.—Observer.

School Children Give Cantata

Sixth and seventh grade pupils of the Elementary School gave an entertainment last Thursday night which was especially fine. In addition to a large chorus, W. Frank Jarrell, Jr., as "Robin Hood;" Edward Collins, as "Uncle Remus;" Charles Atwater, Jr. as "Peter Rabbit;" Mary Joe Wheatley, as "Peter Pan;" Betty Thibodeau, as a fairy, added color to the entertainment. In the "Treasure Island" scene, John Harwood, Ivan Culver, Edgar Massey, Scott Beck, Jr., and William Camilla featured. In the Christmas carol part of the program, Arthur Leonard, James Kreeger, Jr., Betty Anthony, Otis Flowers, Frederick Frank, Rosa Gordon, Vira Reed, Stoughton Waller, Elva Rolph, Helen Needles, Irma Adams, Elizabeth Baxter, Christine Clark, Debra Brown and Blair Smith participated.

Mrs. Ella Robinson was largely instrumental in making the plot and all who had a part are to be congratulated.

At the business meeting of the P. T. A. of Swan Creek School held on Thursday, December 2, 1926, the following officers were re-elected for the ensuing year: Walter M. Kenley, President; Arvid Gustafson, Vice-President; Mrs. J. A. Bigelow, Secretary and Treasurer. Mr. Horace B. Derrick gave an instructive talk on bovine tuberculosis and the tuberculin test. He also gave a brief resume of the 4H Boys' Clubs and ten reasons why boys should belong. Martin Clubs and Stanley Sutton spoke at length of his various trips on cattle judging, especially the trip he took to Europe, using the map to show the route taken and the points of interest in the ten countries touched. After the serving of refreshments the meeting was adjourned at a late hour.
