In loving remembrance of our dear baby Helen Marie Mench, who departed this life December 8, 1923, daughter of Grace and Vincent Mench.

Gone from earth, yes gone forever,
And we can see thee no more,
But some day we hope to meet you
On yonder bright and shinning shore.
Call not back the dear departed,
Anchored safe where storms ore o'er
On the borderland we've left her
And to face this world of care.
We shall find our missing love one
In our Father's Mansion there,
For only just a little distance
She is waiting in the upper garden fair,
And she with joy now waits our coming,
By the crystal river there,
Loving Mother and Father, Sisterand Brother. 1t

A word to the WIVES—

For every pipe-smoker on your list

AT THIS season, when you are being urged on every hand to "Give this" and "Give that," be assured of this truth: Nothing you could give a pipe-smoker could make more of a hit than a generous supply of Prince Albert . . . mild, mellow, fragrant Prince Albert.

Here, for instance, is the crystal-glass humidor, all dolled up in holiday clothes. It contains a full pound of P. A.—the grandest tobacco that ever lined the bowl of a pipe. There's a little sponge in the top of the humidor to keep the tobacco "just right."

Every pipe-smoker on your list would be tickled to death to find this good-looking package among his gifts on Christmas morning. It will brighten the Big Day for him and furnish deep-down pipe-joy for the days that follow. The Prince Albert humidor, by all means!

This prime favorite of experienced smokers also comes in pound and half-pound tins. At the nearest shop, you will find Prince Albert in sizes to suit every purse and purpose. If he smokes a pipe, your Christmas problem is settled . . . and settled satisfactorily.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!
