Among those mentioned as likely to get positions at Annapolis from Kent are Robert Johnson, of Golt's, Charles H. Crew, of Betterton, and Wm. Steele, of Galena.

Thomas Davis, of Chestertown, will take charge of a new A. and P. store to be opened in Salisbury soon.

Charles D. Brown, of near Chestertown, is in Bloomfield, N. J., where he has a fine position with the Vansant Construction

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Sparks, of Baltimore, have been visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sparks.

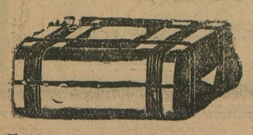

John W. Barroll, Esq., of Chestertown, attended the second Bachelor's Cotillion in Baltimore on Monday night.

Edwin Watkins, of Philadelphia. was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Strong at their home on Washington avenue.

Wm. Medders & Co. SPECIAL ATTENTION TO TELEPHONE ORDERS Still Pond, Md.

We make FREE DELIVERY via ERICSSON TRUCK to your town.

Some of the "JANUARY BARGAINS," Now on Sale!

Full 9x4 Bleached Sheeting Muslin, Extra Good Quality, sale yd. 45c

Hill Muslin y a²irwdsoftd finish 15c

Unbleached Muslin full yard wide 8c 8c

Apron Ginghams Amoskeag best checks 10c

Bed Ticking blue strips 15c

Table Oil Cloth white and fancy 25c

Hemmed Sheets 1.65 seamless 81x90 1.25

Pillow Cases nicely t:n n 25c

Turkish Towels extra value 15c

Outing Flannels good quality sale 15c

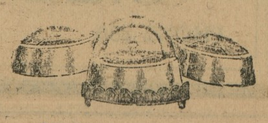

Long Cloth soft finish only 19c

Fine Nainsock french finish only 25c

India Linons nice sheet cloth 25c

Ladies Silk Hose best 1.50 value 98c

Cotton Toweling unbleached crash only 7c

MRS. POTTS IRONS

Full Set Potts Irons now on sale 98c

Window Curtains ood spring rollers 49c

Alarm Clocks good timers only 75c

Shoe Polish 2 in 1 all colors 9c

Mens Dress Shirts 2.00 english broadcloth 1.48

Extra Bed Blankets 7.50 quality wool mixed 4.75

Cotton Bed Blankets extra value 1.98

Congoleum Rugs gold seal 9x12 10.00

Brussel Rugs size 9x12 sale 17.50

Grass Rugs new patterns 9x12 sale 5.00

Good Couches 25.00 value sale 19.00

Hot Air Wood Stoves good sheet iron lined 3.50

The Best Ranges home ideal ranges 32.50

Oak Dining Chairs best 2 50 chairs sale 1.85

Oak Rockers made extra strong 4.50

LARGE AGATE DISH PANS

17 quart size now 45c

Good Brooms best 50c quality 39c

Extra Brooms worth much more 65c

Dish Pans 14 qt. good enamel 35c

Tea Kettles 1.50 enamel now 98c

Enamel Sauce Pans best 25c quality 15c

Enamel Cook Pots 5 quart size 39c

Large Drip Pans black iron pans 19c

Lisk Wash Boilers large 2.50 boilers 1.65

Lisk Galv. Tubs large 1.50 heavy tubs 98c

Enamel Dish Pans extra 17 quart size 45c

Big Pie Pans 10c tin pie pans 5c

Good Cloths Baskets extra heavy reed 1.50

Cocoa Door Mats good foot mats 75c

Felt Base Mats good patterns 18x36 10c

"THE STORE WITH A CONSCIENCE"

HARRY F. JEFFERSON
LADIES STORE

Cold weather is here so why not be comfortable as well as warm, which means health and happiness.
Ladies our Munsingwear stock of under garments offers the best of ever thing. Underwear and Hosiery that fit and guaranteed to wear.

Union Suits—

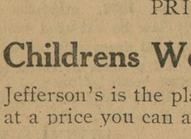

Low neck no sleeves tight knee.
Low neck short sleeves tight knee.
Low neck no sleeves ankle.
High neck long sleeves ankle.

Two-piece Garments and Bloomers—

MADE—Cotton, Cotton and Wool, Silk and Wool, Rayon.
PRICES 50c to 4.00 PER GARMENT.

Childrens Wear---

Jefferson's is the place to find the selection of what you think you need at a price you can afford to pay also give a garment that will wear and fit.

Baby Bands, Baby Shirts single or double front.
Union Suits of Cotton, Cotton and Wool.
High neck long and short sleeves
Long and short leg
Prices 25c to $2.50 Per Garment.

Harry F. Jefferson

Chestertown, Md.

"THE STORE WITH A CONSCIENCE"

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

Queen Anne's Poultry Farm, near Chestertown, made its first shipment of little chicks on Tuesday. Truslow and Sons, owners, say the prospect is for a very good season.

Emmanuel P. E. Sunday School will hold a turkey supper Thursday, January 20th.

Elwood Whaley while employed in his blacksmith shop Monday had occasion to use a ladder and accidentally fell. He injured his face quite badly so much so that Dr. Copeland had to take several stitches in his patient's ear.

M. Halbert who has been conducting a dry goods store in the Parks' Building in Chestertown for several years filed a deed of trust naming S. Scott Beck as trustee. About $15,000 are the liabilities with assets consisting of a big stock of goods.

Walter S. Trew has sold to Lewin Parsons the house on Cannon street adjoining Bacchus' coal yard. It will be occupuied by Mr. Parson's daughter and husband who will remove here from Baltimore.

The offices of the Kent County Chamber of Commerce were formally opened on January 3rd, with Mrs. F. B. Westcott as secretary. Although the Chamber of Commerce has been so recently organized, numerous inquiries in regard to business and farm lands in Kent county have been pouring in from various parts of the country. The executive offices will be operated daily and visitors will be most cordially welcomed.

The regular meeting of the Town Relief will be held at the home of Mrs. G. C. Rote next Tuesday evening, January 11th, at 7.30 p. m. All members are urged to be present.

The appointment of Dr. J. P. Franklin, deputy state health officer for Cecil, Kent and Queen Anne's counties, as chief of the bureau of communicable diseases of the Baltimore City department of health with a salary of $3600 leaves a post vacant in these counties—Dr. Franklin's salary here is $3200. He recently took the examination for eligibiles for the position and ranked first in the list of those ,who passed the test.

Prof. Paul M. Wheeler, of Goucher College, Baltimore, addressed the Women's Literary Club on Monday evening in the Court House. It was one o fa series of lectures being given for the benefit of the Chestertown Public Library.

By summer it is believed all Kent county towns, between Chestertown and Rock Hall will have electric service furnished by the Chestertown Electric Light and Power Company. Negotiations have been completed whereby the Town Council of the bayside town has contracted with the local company to supply electric current to the town at an annual rate, and the present plant in Rock Hall inadequate to supply the needs of the town, will be discarded.

The Dental trade journal of November contained an interesting article on "The Brothers Hurtt and Their Bunch" formerly of Chestertown, accompanied by a page picture. J. H. Hurtt its president and Spencer M. Hurtt secretary and treasurer. They are not only flourishing in business but are members of the Philadelphia Rotary Club, the Penn Athletic Club, the Shriners. also a 32nd degree Mason, etc. They started with small capital but are now on easy street.

Grover C. Preston, canner, of Havre de Grace, Md., yesterday filed an application in bankruptcy in the United States District Court, alleging liabilities totaling $75,111,88. He estimated his assets at $66,125, which included $15,500 in realty and $43,500 stock in trade. The application was referred to J. Edwin Webster, referee in bankruptcy.

A clinic for diseases of the chest will be held in the Health Center in Chestertown on Monday, January 10 1927, from 10.30 a. m. to 1 p. m. Dr. Nicklas, of the Maryland Tuberculosis Association, will be the examining physician.

Charged with stealing and wrecking two automobiles, Raymond Prettyman, of Salisbury, aged 21, was sent to jail Tuesday by Justice L. T. Hearne, to await the March Term of Court. Owners of the cars were: Harlan W. Huston, formerly of Chestertown, local insurance man, and Dallas Revelle, Princess Anne. Harry Conway, 17, who is said to have accompanied Prettyman on his escapades is said to have given the officers the information which incriminated his pal. Houston's car, stolen Christmas night, was wrecked near Bridgeville, Del.

Joseph Wright, a respected colored employee on Round Top farm near Chestertown, suddenly disappeared from his home and it was believed that he wandered to the shore of Chester river and was drowned, but such was not the case. Wright had been confined to his bed with fever which is believed to have caused delirium which led him to leave his bed and wander away. A search disclosed the fact that he had fallen unconscious along the fence not far from the house and died. Wright had Josiah Massey, of Kent, won the first prize on white corn at the show in Baltimore.

The College Ice Hockey Club will meet Walbrook on Urieville mill Pond today, Saturday, at 1 p. m.

A clinic for diseases of the chest will be conducted in The Health Center, Chestertown, Monday, January 10, 10,30 a. m. Individuals complaining of any of the following: Cough, expectoration of blood (spitting), tired feeling, loss of weight and appetite, indigestion, hoarseness, etc., should see their family physician and obtain permission to attend clinic at the place announced above.

Mrs. D. M. Garrison, State Regent of the Maryland Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution entertained the State Board at luncheon at her home in Annapolis Tuesday, January 4th. Old Kent Chapter was represented by its Regent, Miss Fannie E. Stuart.

The Parent-Teachers' Association of Chestertown met at the Elementary School Thursday afternoon and were delightfully entertained with a musical program by Dr. Fred G. Livingood and wife. Among the selections were violin solos, "Novelette," "Humoresque," "Souvenir," etc.; piano solos, "To a Wild Rose" and others. It is to be rgretted that there were not more present to enjoy the rich treat. The next meeting will be February 3rd.

Among the removals in Fairlee neighborhood are these: Arthur Loller moved to the Graves place, George Hendrickson moved to J. P. Nicholson place, Howard Hadaway of Quaker Neck has moved to his farm near McLane's Corner, John Scott moved to the Eliason farm, John Moore has quit store keeping, and moved on farm vacated by Scott. Mrs. Elliott has taken charge of the store.

The annual reunion and banquet of the Young Men's Club of Christ M. P. Church will be held on Thursday evening, January 13. Covers will be laid for 100 guests. The speaker of the occasion will be Rev. Dr. G. I. Humphries, former president of the Maryland Conference, and at present pastor of Salisbury M. P. Church. Wm. L. Fowler is the president of the club.

Miss Helen N. Schellinger, of New Jersey, who was recently appointed Kent County Home Demonstration Agent, has assumed her duties succeeding Miss Susan V. Hill, who resigned last September to take a special course at Washington College. Miss Schellinger will have charge of the Girls' and Women's Club work in the county.

At the meeting of the P. T. A. of Swan Creek on Tuesday, December 4th, 1927, Walter M. Kenley spoke on 4H Club Work and the children that signified their intention of joining were prepared for organization of the same.

Dr. Franklin spoke on the State Department of Health, Its Various Bureaus and Their Functions. He also gave the duties of the deputy State officers and proved by figures their efficacy in lowering the death toll of contagious diseases during the past twenty years.

Miss Taylor, our county health nurse, told of the duties of her department, dividing them into six kinds:

1—Assisting health officer in prevention of communicable diseases.
2—Preventation of tuberculosis.
3—Child hygiene work.
4—Corrective work in schools.
5—Bedside instruction and nursing.
6—Social service.

The talks of both Dr. Franklin and Miss Taylor were extremely instructive and although the roads were almost impassable, a very large attendance was achieved. After the serving of refreshments the meeting was adjourned.

Kennedyville Notes

William Urie, Miss Catherine Urie, Miss Elizabeth Hurlock, Miss Delia Spry all returned to their schools on Sunday after spending the Christmas holidays with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hessner attended the New Year's celebration in Philadelphia the past week.

Rev. Mr. Shauer and son, Donald, visited friends here last week.

The P. T. A. of Kennedyville school will hold their regular meeting in the school building on next Wednesday afternoon, January 12th, at 3.30 p. m.

Mrs. Dempsey, Mrs. John Rollison, Mrs. Annie Johnston and Master Joseph Weer are on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell returned on Friday from a pleasant visit with relatives in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller moved on Monday to Mr. Janvier's farm near Locust Grove.

Will and Harry Johnston moved on Monday to Mr. Janvier's farm near Turner's Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sutton are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Miss Mary Robinson, Miss Daisy Ford and Miss Henrietta Wallis were New Year's guests of their parents.

Mrs. Martha Townsend and daughter, of Baltimore, were visitors of her

PERSONAL NOTES

Missida Crew has taken a room at the home of Mrs. Lillie Strong for the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Westcott and family have returned to their home here after spending somtime at Woodland Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rouse, of Havre de Grace, were the week-end guests of friends in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Bates Russell, Jr., are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a fine daughter at Easton Hospital Sunday morning. Mother and daughter are getting along nicely.

Miss Alice Rote a student at the Marjarie Webster School, Washington, D. C., returned to her school on Sunday after spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Rote.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney West and daughter, of Wilmington, are guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs Ira T. Leager.

Dr. and Mrs. L. C. Hess have moved to the house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Waddell.

Miss Mary Scott, of Baltimore, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Webster McIntire for several days.

Mrs. H. C. D. Wilkinson, of Baltimore, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Barnes, last week.

Thomas Hoyle, of Philadelphia, spent last week at his home in Fairlee.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. East entertained a few friends and relatives at their home near Radcliffe bridge on Sunday evening. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hurd and children, of Worton, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Kendall and Miss Mildred Rollison, of Rock Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Gibson and daughter, Jean, of Rich Neck, Mrs. Ida Jones and son, Noble, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jones, of Chestertown, Miss Mildred Jones, of New York, and Vernon East, of Oak Hall, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Gibson had as guests Monday Mrs. C. C. Kendall and daughter, Dorothy, of Baltimore and Captain Charles O. Kendall and son, Oliver, of Rock Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hicks, Chestertown, had a most enjoyable Christmas. They had all their children home together and had a real Santa Claus time with an "honest to goodness time" tree and happy grandchildren to enjoy it.

Fred Hirons, of Jacksonville, Fla. was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hirons the past several days.

E. R. East and Clarence Hurd spent last week-end as guests of the former's brother at Oak Hall, Va., his brother, Vernon returning with him.

Miss Anna Keyser has been quite sick in a Washington hospital. Miss Anna is in training at the Episcopal Hospital.

Norman Hirons, of Philadelphia, was the week-end guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hirons. Norman is doing finely in business.

Miss Susie Frazier, of Washington visited her mother and sister last week.

Maynard Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Porter, was accidently shot in the eye by Cecil Taylor last Wednesday while playing.

A. S. Turner is attending an automobile convention in Detroit.

Miss Miriam Smith spent the Christmas holidays at her cousin's home in Baltimore.

Postmaster John N. Bennett has appointed Mrs. A. Parks Rasin, of this town, a substitute clerk in the postoffice as the result of a recent civil service examination held here. Mrs. Rasin is the second woman appointed to a similar position in the town within the past eight years.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Whaley Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Smyth and Mrs. Thomas W. Skirven, of Chestertown, were present at a turkey dinner on Sunday last, at the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. James A. Brice, of Betterton. There were present about twenty-five relatives and friends who partook of the sumptuous repast. The home was beautifully decorated, the color scheme being red and gold.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Frank and children, have moved from Chestertown to a farm in Queen Anne's.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. King have moved from the Waddell house on Queen street to a new bungalow on Campus Avenue.

Randolph Waddell and family have moved to the Waddell property on Queen street.

Captain and Mrs. Charles O. Kendall were guests last week of friends and relatives in Baltimore, Mrs. C. C. Kendall and daughter, Dorothy, of Baltimore, returning home with them.

Miss Isabelle Crow spent the holidays at the home of her aunt in New York.

Miss Miriam Kirby spent the Christmas holidays with relatives in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen C. Smith and son spent the week-end with relatives in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Thomas and children, Marian Ann and Elmer C., J., have returned to their home in Betterton after spending the Christmas and New Year's holidays in Centreville with Mrs. John H. Evans left Wednesday for Florida, where they will spend the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. Alice Blades is spending some time in Baltimore.

Arthur Deputy has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Deputy in Fairlee.

James M. Hepbron, director of the Baltimore Criminal Justice Commission, and formerly a resident of Kent county, was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sidney Turner, Jr., on Front street.

Miss Wilkinson, of Philadelphia, and Miss Dora McIntire, of New Jersey, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Webster McIntire

Samuel Cloud, the grandson of Rev. and Mrs. S. L. Hanby, struck a pitchfork prong in his knee recently which is giving him a great deal of trouble.

Galena Notes

Mrs. Eugene Hungerford returned to her home at Georgetown, Del., on Monday, after a pleasant visit with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Walmsley. Mrs. Walmsley accompanied her home to spend the remainder of the winter.

Miss Theresa Scott has returned to school at Delaware College, Newark,

Mrs. Katherine Smith is spending sometime with her daughter, Mrs. Scott Rosin, of near Sassafras.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kent, of Wilmington, were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Bolton, during the holidays.

Edwin Chrisfield who has been visiting relatives in Wilmington for a week, has returned home.

Miss Eva McCauley, of Philadelphia, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Eva McCauley, over the New Year holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Guthrie entertained on Sunday Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Guthrie, of Kenton, and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Culley and daughter, Miss Grace, of Rock Hall.

William Jones, of Wilmington, spent the week-end with Rev. and Mrs. Ivanhoe Willis at the parsonage.

Mrs. Wm. Thornton, of Warwick, visited her sister, Capt. and Mrs. Walter T. Hadley, and family on Sunday.

Misses Elizabeth and Frances Ruth and Chester M. Davis returned to school at Washington College on Monday.

Louis Cruickshank has returned to Philadelphia after spending the holidays with his mother, Mrs. Lucy Cruickshank.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vandyke moved to their new home on Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Linda Walls and son, John, returned home on Monday after a pleasant visit with relatives in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jarrell, of Middletown, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dixon.

Miss Blanche Williams spent a few days with relatives at Chesapeake City.

Miss Helen Vansant entertained Miss Creamer, of Chesapeake City a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnard Jones and little daughter, Emily Louise, visited relatives in lower Delaware last week.

James LeSage and family moved last week from the Prettyman house to Massey.

Those moving to town and near town are George Johnston, Neal Jarvis, George Newcomb, Mr. Dill, Mr. Crew and Emory Camp. William Starr Moved to the house vacated by Ralph Vandyke, John Boyd to the house vacated by George Starr and George Starr moving to Wm. A. Hyland's house.

Miss Nellie Dempsey has resumed her studies at Beacom after the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Dempsey.

Rev. Mr. Otis who was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Ivanhoe Willis at the parsonage last Sunday and a retired minister of the Wilmington Conference preached in the M. E. Church morning and evening, able and soul inspiring sermons.

Capt. Walter T. Hadley who has been quite sick for a week, we are glad to report has improved and returned to Wilmington the first of the week.

Edward and James Davis, of Newark, returned to their home on Sunday after spending the holidays in town.

The Christmas entertainment and treat for the Sunday school was held in the church on Friday evening of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Todd and Miss Jennie Parr attended the funeral of their brother, William Parr, on Monday afternoon at Still Pond.

Several from town attended the social at Shrewsbury last week.

Salem M. E. Church, Fairlee, Rev. S. L. Hanby, pastor. Sunday school at 10 a. m., Walter Barnes, superintendent; preaching by the pastor at 11 a. m., "One Way Traffic;" Epworth League 7 p. m., topic "Establishing Zones of Silence. Evangelistic meetings will begin in Salem M. E. Church, next Sunday night, Jan. 9th. Ladies' Aid Society will he held in the parsonage on Thursday evening, January 13th.

Union M. E. Church, Worton. Sun-

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc6000_23_1-0013