JUST FOR TODAY

In one of Kent's Sunday schools Sunday the superintendent suggested a number of wholesome resolutions paraphrased from a well-known writer. They are:

1—Just for today, I will try to live thru this day only and not tackle my whole life-problem at once.

2—Just for today I will be happy. Happiness is from within; it is not a matter of externals.

3—Just for today, I will adjust myself to what is, and not try to adjust everything to my own desires.

4—Just for today, I will take care of my body and not abuse it with cigarettes nor strong drink.

5—Just for today, I will study and learn something useful. I will read something that requires effort, thought and concentration.

6—Just for today, I will exercise my soul by doing somebody a good turn and not get found out. I will do at least two things I don't want to do, just for exercise. I will not show anyone my feelings are hurt.

7—Just for today, I will be agreeable, criticise nor find fault nor try to regulate anybody.

8—Just for today, I will have a quiet half hour, think of God and get a little more perspective to my life.

9—Just for today, I will be unafraid to enjoy what is beautiful, to love and to believe that those I love, love me.
