HEAVY LOSSES ON STORED "SWEETS"

Upper Wicomico County, Md., and lower Sussex County, Del, with but few exceptions, are the yanly points on the Delmarvia Peninsula that store sweet potatoes for winter shipment, and more than five million baskets were housed last fall, about one-eighth of them being in and around Laurel, the center of the industry.

Black rot got into them causing devastation worse than was ever known. Few growers will ship out more than a third of what they stored and many won't get a fifth.

FEB. 22 CELEBRATION AT THE COLLEGE

President J. A. C. Chandler, of William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va., will give the Washington's Birthday address at the regular assembly of Washington College, February 24th, at 11 o'clock. Presumably President Chandler will discuss some phases of the life and work of George Washington, although he has not yet definitely announced his topic.

President Chandler has done a remarkable piece of work in rehabilitating the venerable college of William and Mary at Williamsburg which is the second oldest college in the United States. He has greatly increased its enrollment, its endowment, and its physical plant.

As a man of achievement as well as a man of thought his address should be most interesting.

The general public is particularly welcome at this college assembly and invited to attend.
