BALTIMORE WASHINGTONIATS FEAST

Dr. J. M. H. Rowland, Dean of the college of medicine of the University of Maryland, gave an unusually suggestive address last Saturday evening at the Hotel Rennert on the occasion of the annual mid-winter banquet of the Baltimore Chapter of the Washington College Alumni Association. Dean Rowland was in a fine fettle as the main speaker of the occasion. About thirty-five members of the Chapter were present to hear him.

This banquet of the Baltimore Chapter was presided over by James W. Chapman, Jr., who made an unusually able and pleasing toastmaster for the occasion. Besides Dean Rowland, he called on John I. Coulbourn, of Philadelphia, Professor William R. Howell and Dr. Frederick G. Livingood, of the College, Mrs. Melvin Stewart, of Anapoolis, and Dr. Titsworth for short talks.

The banquet was held in dining room I at the Hotel Rennert which afforded a most appropriate setting for the occasion. After enjoying one of the Rennert's best meals the guests finished off the evening at Bridge and Five Hundred.

Due to an illness extending over nearly a year the president of the Baltimore Chapter, R. Loran Langsdale, was unable to attend. The committee on arrangements composed of Mr. Langsdale, Dr. W. Houston Toulson, Claude Griffin and Henry H. Sasser did a splendid job in setting the stage for this banquet of the Baltimore Chapter of the Washington College Alumni Association.

KENT COUNTY BOY GETS TRYOUT WITH EASTON

William Loller, Kent County boy and former star athlete of Chestertown high school, will be given a trial by the Easton team of the Eastern Shore League during the coming season. Young Loller, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Loller, of Worton, is regarded as one of the best baseball prospects to be developed in this section for years.

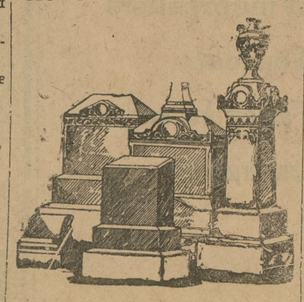

During his career at the high school he was the mainstay of the pitching staff. He will be given a tryout first as a pitcher and if he fails in that he will be tried at an infield berth. Loller is about 21 years old and has a strong throwing arm.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

Howard Realy Comegys versus
Eva Beaulah (Butcher) Comegys

In the Circuit Court for Kent County
In Equity, No. 2449.

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled case is to procure a Decree for divorce a vinculo matrimonii for the Plaintiff against the Defendant.

The Bill states:

1. That on the 8th of September, 1913, Howard Realy Comegys was married to his wife, Eva Beaulah (Butcher) Comegys, by Rev. Dave R. Dunn, a duly ordained minister of the Gospel, with whom he resided in Kent county, Maryland, until sometime in the month of August 1921.

2. That though the conduct of your Orator towards his wife, the said Eva Beaulah (Butcher) Comegys, has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach, the said Eva Beaulah (Butcher) Comegys has, without just cause or reason, abandoned him, and has declared her intention to live with him no longer, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for at least five years, and is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation.

3. That your Orator and the said Defendant, Eva Beaulah (Butcher) Comegys had no children born to them from the said marriage.

4. That the said Defendant, Eva Beaulah (Butcher) Comegys, is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, and whose whereabouts is unknown to your Orator.

5. That your Orator is a resident of Kent county, State of Maryland, where he has lived all of his life.

It is thereupon, this 19th day of March, 1927, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, in Equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 25th day of April next, give notice to the said Eva Beaulah (Butcher) Comegys, non resident Defendant, warning her to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 9th day of May next, to show cause, if any she has, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
