J. PEARSON JEWELL, 86, CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Mr. Jewell, in excellent health, received the congratulations of many relatives and friends upon his 86th birthday anniversary in the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. P. Stanley, Delaware City. Mr. Jewell's former home was near Tolchester Beach, Kent county. He has lived in Delaware City 15 years.

PLANS MADE FOR LAYMAN'S ASSOCIATION

A meeting was held recently at the rectory of Shrewsbury Parish when plans were made for the Spring meeting and supper of the Episcopal Layman's Association of Kent County which will be held April 28th with Shrewsbury as host for the occasion. These meetings deal with the problems of the parishes and the diocese from a layman's point of view and have proved most profitable. Messrs. Wm. R. Crow, George W. Sutton and Edmund Hurtt, all of Shrewsbury, are the committee in charge of arrangements. Thomas W. Perkins, of Chestertown, is the president of the county-wide organization.

CHURCH HILL BOYS LEAVE FOR CHINA

Nathaniel Clothier Leverage, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel C. Leverage, and Albert Storey Potts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Potts, both of Church Hill, will be among the first Eastern Shoremen to reach China.

They left Quantico, Virginia, Tuesday for San Diego, California, from where they will sail direct for China.

Both Mr. Leverage and Mr. Potts are members of the 10th Regiment of the United States Marines, and have been in the service since the fall of 1925. Young Leverage is 21 years old, and Young Potts, 19 years old. Mr. Leverage was sent to Chicago last October where he was U. S. Mail Guard. Mr. Patts has been located at Quantico throughout his enlistment.

QUEEN ANNE'S MAN GETS FEDERAL AIR SERVICE

Capt. Thomas B. Bourne, of the Maryland National Guard Air Service, a poultry raiser near Crumpton has just been appointed to a responsible position in the Federal Air Service assigned to the Department of Commerce.

At this time, with a group of other aviators, Captain Bourne is engaged in charting an aerial highway along the Atlantic seaboard, extending from Florida to Washington. Eventually aerial highways will be extended to every section of the country.

SENATOR S. S. BECK ADDRESSES ROTARIANS

Senator S. Scott Beck addressed the Chestertown Rotary Club on Monday evening last. Delegates Arthur H. Brice and E. C. Bowers were also guests and each made a few remarks. Marion deK. Smith, Jr., presided at the Rotary meeting in the absence of President Titsworth. Senator Beck in his address explained the local laws concerning Kent county that were passed by the legislature. The following is the list of local laws as passed and each one was explained by Mr. Beck:

Bill to enable Rock Hall to sell its electric light plant.

Bill to change Kent county dog law making it conform to the law as adopted by every other county in Maryland.

Bill relating to wild fowl.

Bill to prevent the selling of fox hides, which does not stop the killing of foxes.

Bill to bond Chestertown for $100,000 to be voted on April 25.

Bill relating to duck blinds.

Bill relating to traders licenses.

Bill giving Washington College $100,000 without any "strings tied to it."

Bill to incorporate the town of Rock Hall.

Bill to remodel Kent county jail to be voted on.

Bill to bond county for a school building at Rock Hall.

Bill to incorporate Rock Hall.

Bill for Water supply at Rock Hall.

Bill to pay deputy treasurer of Kent county not over $1,000 a year.

Senator Beck's hardest and most successful fight was on killing the five fish bills.

The following State wide bills also introduced and passed by Senator Beck:

Bill to build Chesapeake Bay Bridge and tax on same to be divided between Kent and Baltimore counties and the State.

Bill concerning the Gas and Electric Co. of Baltimore.

Bill concerning Public Service Commission.

Bill relating to public service commission.

Bill relating to joint investigation.

Bill concerning librarian.

Bill concerning municipal corporations.

Bill relating to health.

Bill for "Calvert Corporations."

Bill of "Dissolution."

Delegate Arthur H. Brice introduced and passed three bills relating to Betterton.

Delegate E. C. Bowers did not introduce any bills.
