INTERESTING NOTES FROM BETTERTON

The community suffers an irreparable loss in the death of Mrs. Mary Gooding Crownhart. A true friend to all and especially to the little children, who affectionately knew her as "Miss Mary." Sympathy is extended to the sorrowing husband and son.

The entertainment which was scheduled for April 18th, to be given by the Girl Scouts and the Boy Scouts in the High School has been postponed to Monday evening, April 25th.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis and Mrs. Irvin Smith were Easter guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Owens.

Mrs. Edythe Anderson has been spending a few days with relatives in Cheser, Pa.

Litleton Moore, of Philadelphia, was a holiday guest of his sister, Mrs. Elwood Bramble. Mrs. Moore and the children, who have been spending the week returned with him to their home on Monday.

Miss Florence Owens had as an Easter guest John Kilpatrick, of Chester, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gooding and daughters, of Wilmington, were week-end guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Brice.

Dr. Otis, of Wilmington, preached a very fine sermon on Easter Sunday at the M. E. Church. Dr. Otis also had charge of the Epworth League service in the evening. The church was beautifully trimmed with spring blossoms and potted plants.

Wm. C. Owens, who has been spending several months with his son, Rev. Clifton Owens, near Washington, D. C., has returned to his home here.

Alfred Greenwood, of Baltimore, and Georgetown, was a holiday guest of his wife at their home here.

Mrs. Thomas Brice is quite a sufferer from inflamatory rheumatism.

Miss Grace Tull, of Baltimore, has been spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Mattie Tull.

Mr. and Mrs. Duffield have returned from a trip of several weeks duration to California and South America. They were in Nicaragua at the time of the fighting and saw some of the dead and wounded soldiers brought in from the scene of conflict.

Mrs. Robert Moore and daughter, Miss Jessie, of Centreville, spent the Easter holidays with the former's sister, Mrs. Evelyn Harris, of near Betterton.

Prof. Harold Crew, wife and small daughter, of North East, Md., spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Wm Crew.

Earle Glenn, of Rock Hall, has been spending the holidays with his grand mother, Mrs. Mary Myers.

The case against Oliver Taylor charged with selling poisoned liquor was postponed.

At the hour of going to press the Court was occupied with the case of Merritt Brown charged with setting fire to a house in Georgetown, near Tolchester.

SHAD FISHERMEN REAP A HARVEST

Fishermen at Rock Hall, Tolchester and Betterton are reaping a harvest from an unusually large run of shad, the prices of which range from 75 cents to $1.25 each. Floyd Crownhart, a Betterton fisheman, made an unusual catch of 200 fine shad on Monday morning and there have also been large individual catches made by the fishermen of Rock Hall and Tolchester.

The season is proving very profitable for the watermen, due largely to the fact that at each of the fishing centers buyers from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New Pork, are competing for each day's catch, while numerous express shipments, are made from Chestertown, to which point they are being brought in large trucks.

"MERRY WHIRL" REHEARSELS BEGUN

The rehearsals for the big Firemen's Play, "Merry Whirl," began on Thursday last. Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler are here and the affair will be given on May 9, 10 and 11, at Lyceum.

LOCAL FIRE COMPANY VISITS CAMBRIDGE

The Volunteer Fire Company attended the formal opening of the new Municipal Building, Cambridge, Md., on Tuesday. This building will house not only the Fire Company, but will also be used by the different departments of the City Government. Mayor Earle Orem has been most active in having this building erected. Among the formal exercises was a Firemen's Paradice. An oyster supper was served after the ceremonies. President Smyth, vice president, A. L. Sparks, Chief Russell, Asst., J. H. Thompson and 15 others on the big truck participated in the affair.

Stewart & Co., Baltimore, advertise in this issue a "Profit Sharing Sale" from Thursday of this week until Saturday, May 7th. Read the prices on page 3.

Fairlee Pastor "Pounded"

Last Friday evening the good people of Fairlee and Worton M. E. Churches tendered their pastor and family a reception in the parsonage about one hundred people were present, Rev. C. L. Randall, of St. James, and several of his members were present and Rev. C. L. Dawson, of Wesley Chapel, Mrs. Henry Anderson, of Fairlee, and B. F. Rash, of Worton, made addresses of welcome, response from pastor and wife, several piano selections from Rev. Randall and Rev. Dawson, address of welcome from H. S. Startt, recitations by Mrs. Harry Williams, Miss Ann Joiner, duet by Marvin Nichols, Betty Hadaway. The pantry was supplied with good things. After enjoying an abundance of cake and ice cream the people returned to their homes wishing pastor and family a profitable year.
