President Paul E. Titsworth and Dr. Albertus Perry, field vice-president, are preparing to conduct separate parties of students and other tourists to England and the Continent next month. Dr. Perry will conduct the annual Dickens Pilgrimage, while Dr. Titsworth will tour the Continent for six weeks with his party. Both parties will sail from New York about the middle of July. Dr. Perry will be gone nearly three months.

TEACHERS OF QUEEN ANNE'S GIVE SUPERINTENDENT $100

Queen Aune's county public school teachers, assembled in Centreville for the annual election of officers of the County Teachers' Association, paid a generaus tribute of affection and esteem to County Superintendent of Schools T. Gordon Bennett, of Centreville.

By uanaimous vote they presented him $100 in gold to use in restoring his library, destroyed by fire several weeks ago, when his home was ruined and he narrowly escaped serious injury.

Superintendent Bennett had many valuable books destroyed in the fire.

KENT'S ATTITUDE TO DEL-MAR-VA BODY

Following the recent action of the Talbot County Chamber of Commerce in withdrawing from the Del-Mar-Va Eastern Shore Association, the Kent County Chamber of Commerce has given out a statement through its president. Thomas W. Perkins, in which it is explained that the situation here is entirely different from the recent relations between the Easton and Salisbury headquarters.

According to local officials, the Kent chamber has never contributed directly to the support of the Peninsula-wide organization and therefore has never had a direct affiliation with it, as had the Talbot commerce group. Therefore, it is cited, even though the local officials might agree with the Talbot group, there is no occasion to withdraw, since it is an independent body and has never had financial or official connection with the Peninsula concern. Individual members of the local commerce chamber, it is explained, are members of the Del-Mar-Va Eastern Shore Association and as such, are contributing to its support. Local commerce officials declare they stand ready to co-operate with any organization working for the welfare of the Peninsula as a whole. Officials feel, it is said, that the money now being contributed by local citizens to the Del-Mar-Va organizations, might better be spent in local advertising and necessary purposes.

Although the Kent organization will, it is said, continue to co-operate with the Salisbury group, it is said that local indivduals will be urged to contribute more heavily to the local body than to the Salisbury organization.

QUEEN ANNE'S TEST HELD UP

All testing of dairy herds in Queen Anne's County has been abandoned until October 1, except the re-testing of herds in which tuberculosis had been found on the initial tests.

Figures show that in the Centreville district 1500 cows have been tested, with 350 yet to be examined. In the Sudlersville district 900 animals have been tested and 1400 others remain to be examined. State officials stated this week that the test had been abandoned soledy because of lack of funds, due to the large percentage of tuberculosis found among herds tested. Retesting work will start between July 1 and 15. The great majority of dairymen whose cows were condemned have received checks from the butchers, and a few have been sent remittances by the state and federal governments.

Extreme Temperatures

Furnace Creek ranch, in Death valley, California, is the hottest known inhabited spot on the globe. A government thermometer there registered 134 degrees in the shade. The coldest recorded locality is in northern Siberia, where the mercury drops to 90 degrees below zero.

First Local Option State

Massachusetts, in 1881, was the first state to have a full-fledged local option law.

DELAWARE PEA PACK LARGE

Pea canneries in lower Delaware are now in full operation, and thousands of cases are being packed. The peas are of high grade, and the acreage is the largest in the history of Sussex county, except in Broadkiln District, where there was a slight reduction during the season. Canners are expecting a record pack.
